~~Timothy Delene B.A. (rector of Hamstall Ridware, Staffs) c1612-1695 1642-p1644~~
~~Delene was born about 1612 son of Timothy Delene (rector of Ashow, Warwicks). He studied at Oxford where on 10 Dec 1630 he was a student at Wadham College and matriculated. Later he migrated to New College. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 1 Feb 1633.4. He was ordained deacon and on 1 Jun 1634 ordained priest by Lichfield. On 19 May 1642 after presentation by Thomas Leigh 1st Baron Leigh of Stoneleigh c1595-1672 he was instituted rector of Hamstall Ridware. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he may have continued here as compliant presbyterian minister and by 1662 was back in office as rector. It is uncertain whether he was in office for all of that period. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 29 Jul 1662 and on 20 Oct 1663 was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 the rectory was valued at £60. In 1665 he did not certify the hearth tax but was assessed on 5 hearths at Hamstall Ridware. Still in office Delene died, aged about 83, and was buried here on 12 Dec 1695. His will made on 1 Nov 1694 was proved at Lichfield on 16 Dec 1695. His personalty was valued at £156/10/0. Delene may not have married.~~

SPEVER v. TOMKYNSON. Bundle 31, No. 113. To the King our sovereign Lord. Your orator Thomas Speuer. Whereas George Darwyn, clerk, late vicar of the parish church of Dyllern, co. Stafford, November, the 25th year of your reign [1533], granted a moiety or "hlafe dell" of the vicarage and glebeland, tithes, oblations, obventions and other profits to the said vicarage belonging to Christopher Wryht and your orator, for term of 3 years and so from 3 years to 3 years during the life of the said vicar, yielding yearly for the said moiety 7l. 10s.; by force whereof they were peaceably seised; and after the said Christopher granted such title as he had to your suppliant, and after the said vicar resigned the said vicarage to Sir Thomas Tomkynson upon condition that he should suffer your orator to enjoy the said bargain without any expulsion, whereunto the said Tomkynson agreed, by reason whereof he was admitted. After his induction the said Tomkynson, contrary to his promise came to the said glebe land where he found the cattle of your orator, which he with Robert Warner and other riotous persons, l0th December, in the 26th year of your reign [1534], riotously took and drove to a certain pound in the said county, being a common pound, wherein 14 of the said cattle died, being the most part of the goods that your orator had to find himself his wife and 12 children to live withal. Therefore please your highness to grant writs of subpena to be directed to the said Sir Thomas Tomkynson and Robert Warner, commanding them to appear to answer to the premises. Endorsed Before the King and his Council on the morrow of St. John the Baptist next to be. [THE COURT OF THE STAR CHAMBER] [SHC 1912 57-8]

~~Thomas Dicken B.A. (rector of Weston-under-Lizard) c1635-1708 H31~~
~~Dicken, born about 1635, was a son of William Dicken of Wollerton in Hodnet, Salop yeoman c1603-1683 and Mary (Die). He studied at Oxford where on 27 Nov 1652 he was a ?servitor at St John's College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 28 Apr 1656. On 1 Sep 1662 he was licensed as a schoolmaster and was then an usher at a school at Wem, Salop. On 5 Mar 1662.3 he was ordained deacon and priest by Lichfield. On 28 Apr 1663 after presentation by (the lord of the manor) Sir Thomas Wilbraham of Woodhey in Faddiley, Cheshire 3rd Baronet c1625-1692 he was instituted rector of Weston-under-Lizard and also licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 the rectory was valued at £30. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Weston-under-Lizard constablewick and was assessed on 2 hearths. Here he resigned before 11 May 1687 when after (another) presentation by (the lord of the manor) Sir Thomas Wilbraham he was instituted rector of Walsall. Still in office he died, aged about 73, and was buried here on 14 Aug 1708. His will made on 8 Nov 1707 was proved under Lichfield on 27 Aug 1708. His personalty was valued at £28/19/8½ and included "Bookes £5". Dicken married about 1659 to Elizabeth (d ?1684) (probably dau of Thomas Lochard of Wollerton in Hodnet, Salop gentleman....-1684) by whom he had 10 sons and 4 daughters. [NB: Maintaining his large family may have depleted his finances.]~~

William Dicken (rector of Darlaston) c1620-1682 H32

Dicken, born about 1620, was 3rd son of Hugh Dicken of Walton in Stone "gentleman" c1587-a1645. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman before he was in office as presbyterian minister of Bradley-in-the-Moors dependent parochial chapelry about 1651, of Fulford dependent parochial chapelry in 1651.2 and of Maer independent parochial chapelry from 4 Mar 1654.5. In early Jun 1660 he continued at Maer as de facto parochial curate and was still in office on 14 Mar 1660.1. Dicken was perhaps ordained deacon before Jan 1661.2 when as de facto rector of Darlaston he paid a clerical subsidy of 10/0. On 25 Mar 1661.2 he was ordained priest by Lincoln pro Lichfield. On 28 Mar 1662 after presentation by Mary Offley 1622-1718 by right as widow of John Offley of Madeley esquire c1619-1658 he was instituted rector of Darlaston and subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 21 Aug 1662. On 30 Mar 1663 he certified the heraldic visitation of Staffordshire pro his brother Christopher Dicken of Walsall mercer c1617-1682 when the family coat of arms is recorded as "Ermine a cross patonce sable". On 26 Oct 1663 he was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 the rectory was valued at £26/13/4. A diocesan record of that year states Dicken "was known to have been dying since February". In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Darlaston constablewick and was assessed on 2 hearths. Still in office he died, aged about 62, and was buried on 2 Feb 1681.2 at Walsall. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 14 Feb 1681.2. His personalty was valued at £160/5/4 and included "One Parcell of Books £10". Dicken married perhaps about 1650 to Mary Petit (d 1704) dau of Walter Petit of Ellenhall gentleman c1575-.... (no known children).

George Dixon (parochial curate of Gayton) e1604-1654
Dixon, born perhaps about 1604, is of unknown parentage. He was presumably ordained deacon (? and priest) before 1628 when he was in office as a stipendiary curate at Ashley. In 1634 he was appointed parochial curate of Gayton. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. On 4 May 1644 the Staffordshire parliamentary committee recorded that the "farmer of the tithes" refused to pay Dixon his salary of £10 and ordered that if payment was not made within a week that Dixon should have the whole of that year's tithes. On 25 Jun 1652 the Committee for plundered ministers granted him an augmentation of £22 to his annual salary of about £20 pa. Still in office Dixon died, aged perhaps about 50, and was buried here on 7 Mar 1653.4. Dixon married first perhaps about 1634 to Margery (d 1642) by whom he had 1 daughter. He married second about 1642 to Ann by whom he had 2 sons and 2 daughters. A Gayton glebe terrier (said to be of 1682, but perhaps of 1652) mentions one George Dixon as minister and records "House: the old parsonage house is down, but the house where the minister lives and the clerk's house are both on glebe land."

GOLDENHILL, CHRIST CHURCH. Christ Church originated in an evangelical secession from St. John's Church, Goldenhill, on the appointment in 1873 of a high churchman to the benefice. When the living became vacant, Bishop Selwyn, himself a high churchman, appointed the Revd. Osmond Dobree, formerly chaplain of a private chapel at Knypersley and a known high churchman. Immediately a petition against the appointment was presented by the parishioners to the bishop and also published in the local press. Dobree offered to withdraw but the bishop refused the offer and instituted him in September of the same year. [VCH]

$John Dolman B.A. (compliant minister of Brewood) 1617-1690 H33
Dolman, christened on 1 May 1617 at Trysull, was third son of Thomas Dolman of Seisdon in Trysull "gentleman" 1580-.... and Ann. He studied at Oxford where on 17 Oct 1634 he was a student at Lincoln College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 6 Jun 1638. On 5 Jun 1642 he was ordained deacon by Oxford at Cuddesdon, Oxon. On 5 Feb 1643.4 he may not have been in an office. By 1 Jul 1646 he was in office as compliant minister of Brewood vicarage when the Committee for plundered ministers granted him an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary of £20. This augmentation was funded from revenue sequestered from the dean of Lichfield. On 31 May 1647 a further augmentation was made of £8 from the recusants John Giffard of Blackladies in Brewood gentleman 1620-p1680 and (his father) Peter Giffard of Chillington in Brewood esquire c1581-1663. (The augmentation later varied but was apparently paid until 1659). Apparently a committed presbyterian, he signed the Staffordshire testimony of Jul 1648 as "John Dolman Minister of Jesus Christ at Brewood". In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de facto vicar and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of £1/10/0. On 15 Feb 1661.2 he was ordained deacon (again) & priest by Lichfield, on 27 Jul 1662 he was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield and on 15 Aug 1662 subscribed to the Act of uniformity . He probably resigned here before 6 Feb 1662.3 when after presentation by a group of local gentlemen (beneficiaries under the will of Sir John Wollaston of Aldersgate Ward, London knight c1584-1658) he was instituted vicar of Wombourn and, jointly, appointed parochial curate of Trysull. In 1665 the vicarage was valued at £40. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax of Orton (which lay in Wombourn parish) and Trysull & Seisdon constablewicks and was assessed on 6 hearths at Wombourn township. Still in office at Wombourn and Trysull, he died aged 73, and was buried on 9 Sep 1690 at Wombourn. His undated will was proved under Lichfield on 27 Oct 1690. His personalty was valued at £305/2/2 and included "the study bookes £20". Dolman married about 1650 to a woman by whom he had 3 sons and 2 daughters. By 1681 Dolman was patron of Broom and that year presented (his second son) Nathaniel Dolman (later rector of Aldridge) c1656-1692 and the following year (his first son) Thomas Dolman (rector of Broom) c1651-....

Probably identical with an M.A. of this name, who was ordained priest by Hackett 15 Feb 1661.2 and became vicar of Wombourn cum Trysull, QV, on 15 Feb 1662.3. On 1 Jul 1646 the committee for plundered ministers found that his living was but £20 pa, so it granted him £50 pa from the rents, etc, here, sequestered from the dean of Lichfield. On 31 May 1647 it granted him a further sum of £8 pa from the rents of lands called Blackladies and Whiteladies here, sequestered from John Gifford and Peter Gifford, recusants, farmers thereof under the dean, as the former grant was then said to amount to only £40 pa (BodlMS 323 p267; SPDI F2/i p221) Orders for the payment of the £50 are frequent in 1649, 1650, etc (Bod, MS 326 p296; SionMS p490; cf LMS 979 p356; 973 p678; 978 p617, 620; 976 p331; Shaw II p543) In 1654 the augmentation appears to have been altered to £23/17/4 out of the impropriate tithes here, though he is to receive all arrears of the £50 grant. (LMS 972 p27, 95, 97) In 1657 the tithes of Chillington are mentioned as having been granted to him (LMS 993 p249) and in 1658 and 1659 the total augmentation is stated to be £39 pa (LMS 994 p142; 981 p20) [1915 p38-9]

Near this place lies buried the body of the Rev. John Dolman, (M.A.) rector of Aldridge, prebendary and divinity-lecturer of the cathedral church of Lichfield, who died Nov 19 1746, aged 60 years. He was diligent and exemplary in the duties of his function, a most affectionate husband, tender parent and sincere friend. He married Margaret, the eldest daughter and coheiress of William Bendy, esq. of Shutt-end, by Margaret his wife, only daughter of John Hoo, gent. of Bradley-hall, in this county, by whom he left two surviving children, viz, William and Mary. William Dolman, (B.A.), a young man of great piety and prudence, sobriety and virtue departed this life the 21st day of Jul, 1748, in the 22d year of his age. Richard Dolphin B.A. (vicar of Wednesbury) c1595-?1642
Dolphin, born about 1595, was (? the only) son of Richard Dolphin (vicar of Wednesbury) c1565-1619. His father bequeathed him all his books which were valued at £1/10/0. He studied at Oxford where on 30 Jun 1615 he was a student at St John's College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 9 Feb 1617.8. On 21 Sep 1617 he was ordained deacon by Lichfield and presumably ordained priest shortly after. On 7 Apr 1619 after presentation by the Crown he was instituted vicar of Wednesbury in succession to his father. Dolphin was present on Easter Sunday 5 Apr 1640 when armed men entered the church "in a tumultuous manner, unbeseeming the sacredness of the day and place" in an attempt to arrest Thomas Parkes of Willingsworth in Sedgley c1596-1660. Dolphin probably died, aged about 47, in Jun 1642. His will made on 7 Jun 1642 was proved under Lichfield on 5 Feb 1649.50. He requested that he be "buried in the church yard of Wednesbury ... near sonne John". Dolphin married first about 1620 to a woman by whom he (probably) had 3 sons and 2 daughters. He married second perhaps about 1632 to Margery (no known children).

(1917) DOWLY, i.e. DOWLEY, RICHARD, B.A. (16232-1702). P. Born in Berks, younger son of John Dowley, afterwards vicar of Alveston, Warwicksh. Matric. at All Souls' Coll., Oxford, 10 Oct. 1639, aged 16; grad. B. as demy of Magdalen, 1643. Completed his studies under John Bryan, D.D., at Coventry, but still retained connection with Oxford till Aug. 1648. Became chaplain to Sir T. Rous at Rous Lench, Worc. Was ordained by presbyters, and a member of Baxter's Worcestershire Association. From 1656 held the sequestered vicarage of Stoke Prior, Worc. ; ejected, 1660. Assisted his uncle, incumbent of Elford, Staffs, till 1662; then silenced. Licensed, 18 Nov. 1672, for his own house at Orton West, Leic. Removed to London (1680 ?), taught school and preached occasionally, attending John Howe's ministry. Arrested and fined. From 1689 preached some time at Godalming, Surrey, but returned to London, infirm, to live with his children. Settled again at Godalming about 25 Mar. 1692. Died in London. [Gordon (1917) p255]

(1924) Richard Dowley. Assistant to his uncle, Robert Dowley, rector, of Elford, 1660-62. [Matthews (1924) p85-8]

$Robert Dowley M.A. (compliant minister of Elford) c1584-1672 (H34)
Dowley, born about 1584, was a son of ----- Dowley of Staffs "gentleman" c1552-.... and Agnes Hill daughter of John Hill of Ellastone "gentleman" c1532-.... and also nephew of John Hill (rector of Elford) 1552-1622. He studied at Oxford where on 20 Apr 1604 he was a "commoner" at Queen's College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 17 Oct 1607 (M.A., St Mary Hall, 6 Jul 1610). He was presumably ordained deacon and priest before 14 Jan 1609.10 when after presentation by (? his uncle) Richard Hill (rector of Hampton Lucy, Warwicks) he was instituted vicar of Alveston, Warwicks. He resigned at Alveston before 22 Dec 1624 when after presentation by (joint lord of the manor) William Brooke of Haselour in Lichfield St Michael gentleman c1579-1641 he was instituted rector of Elford. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. Apparently a committed presbyterian, he signed the Staffordshire testimony of Jul 1648 as "Robert Dowley Minister of Gods Word at Elford". Still in office as minister in early Jun 1660 he was then reinstated as rector and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 14 Aug 1662. In 1665 the rectory was valued at £75. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Elford and was assessed on 3 hearths. A Mr Doley was also assessed on 4 hearths at Comberford House. Still in office he died, aged about 88, and was buried there on 15 Jul 1672. His will made on 3 May 1664 was proved under PCC on 23 Nov 1672. His wealth at death is undiscovered but his will mentions much real estate and he was evidently a very wealthy man. Dowley married on 28 May 1621 at Alveston, Warwicks to Alice Cooper by whom he had 4 sons and 5 daughters. His daughter Agnes was the wife of Joseph Ainge (rector of Handsworth) c1624-1691 QV. ●Richard Dowley (presbyterian minister of Stoke Prior, Worcs) 1623-1702 was a nephew.

Under Mary, according to the martyrologist, Lichfield diocese was afflicted by "a cruel bishop there, called Rafe Bane, and a more cruel chancellor named Dr Draicot" and he tells how Draycot preached before the burning of Joan Waste at Derby, and then returned to his inn to sleep while the execution took place. He also admits, however, that many more were compelled to do penance than went to the stake. Following Elizabeth's accession Draycot refused to take the oath of supremacy and was accordingly deprived of all his benefices. In 1560 he was recorded as a prisoner in the Fleet, but it would appear that he was eventually released, for a later source reports—with some confusion of dates—that "Dr Draycott, long prisoner, at length getting a little liberty, went to Draycot, and there died", on 20 January 1571. He was buried at Draycott. [ODNB]

Thomas Dresser (vicar of Dilhorne) ?1623-1700 H35
Dresser, (? christened on 26 Dec 1623 at Norton-in-the-Moors), was probably a son of John Dresser of Norton-in-the-Moors and Elizabeth. He studied at Cambridge where on 9 Feb 1646.7 he was admitted as a pensioner at Jesus College but is not known to have graduated. He was presumably qualified as a presbyterian clergyman by about 4 Apr 1651 when he was appointed presbyterian minister of Newchapel parochial chapelry. That day the Committee for plundered ministers granted him an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary of £30 which is said not to have been paid. On 28 Jan 1651.2 the Committee (? for the universities) granted him an augmentation of £19 (? to his annual salary of £30) which was paid until he left. He probably resigned at Newchapel before about Jan 1657.8 when he was appointed presbyterian minister of Dilhorne vicarage. Here he signed the parish register on 25 Mar 1658. About 1659 he received an augmentation of £14 to his annual salary. In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de facto vicar. He was ordained (? deacon and) priest on 26 Sep 1660 by Chichester pro Lichfield. On 26 Sep 1661 after presentation by the dean & chapter of Lichfield he was instituted vicar. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 15/0. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 28 Jul 1662 and was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield on 22 Oct 1663. In 1665 the vicarage was valued at £35. In 1665 he was assessed on 2 hearths at Dilhorne which was part of Caverswall constablewick. Still in office at Dilhorne he died, aged about 77, and was buried here on 22 Apr 1700. His will made on 16 Apr 1700 was proved under Lichfield on 7 May 1700. Dresser married about 1649 to Dorothy (d 1702.3) by whom he had 6 sons and 3 daughters.

(1915) (Newchapel) 4 Apr 1651 oc. 1657 Thomas Dresser 29 - 29 Dresser. Probably matriculated 1646.7 Jesus College, Cambridge (Venn). On 26 Sep 1646 the committee for plundered ministers ordered that the residue worth £40 pa of the profits of the rectory here (see note 7) should be paid to the minister here when appointed. (SPDI F1 p209; Bodl MS 323 p359) On 4 Apr 1651 the same committee granted £50 pa from Penkridge rectory (see Maer, note 13) to Dresser, "this day settled minister here," as his present maintenance was but £30 pa (Bodl MS 328 p397) On 28 Jan 1651.2 a committee (for the reformation of the universities?) granted to this "godly and able preacher "an augmentation of £19 pa and ordered all arrears to be paid. (SionMS p497) This last grant was paid him until he became vicar of Dilhorne about Jan 1657.8. (LMS 976 p516; 993 p317; cf SPD CLXXX 42 n12). To illustrate the contradictory orders which were often made about this time, it may be mentioned that on 11 Jun 1652 the committee for plundered ministers granted him £20 from the tithes of Cannock sequestered from Mrs Coleman, recusant, together with one year's arrears up to 25 March 1652, as he complained he could not get the grant made on 4 Apr 1651 as the profits of Penkridge were overcharged. In Clematis Cottage [Milwich] at Whitelow Brooks, Richard Durose found a 62 year old widow, Charlotte Dunderdale and her grandson. who were both from Yorkshire. Charlotte received an annuity from the charity for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Poor Staffordshire Clergy, as her husband John had been curate of Fulford from 1821 until his death in 1824. She had received money from this source annually for over 20 years. In 1851 she was given 35 pounds and this was increased to 40 the following year. [INTERNET]

In the 1620s the gatehouse was fitted up as a song school by Michael East, the master of the choristers, who lived in an adjoining building, probably the gatehouse of the neighbouring canonical house. [VCH XIV 64]

Supposed to be son of the famous printer and music publisher. Thomas Este. Appointed vicar Choral and Master of the Choristers of Lichfield Cathedral about 1618. Probably also took duty as Organist. Composer of Church Music, Madrigals, "Duos and Fancies for Viols," &c. Contributor to "The Triumphs of Oriana." A work by him, entitled "The Sixt Set of Bookes, wherein are Anthemes for Versus, and Chorus of 5 and 6 parts ; apt for Violls and Voices" is dedicated to Dr. John Williams, Bishop of Lincoln. This worthy prelate, who was a perfect stranger to Este, had settled upon him an annuity for life, in return for the pleasure he had experienced in hearing some of the composer's Motets. A number of Este's Anthems, with accompaniment for viols, were published by the Musical Antiquarian Society in 1845, under the editorship of Dr. E. F. Rimbault. [West CATHEDRAL ORGANISTS (1921)]

Joseph Eccleshall B.A. (presbyterian minister of Sedgley) 1633-1692
Eccleshall, christened on 1 Dec 1633 at Kinver, was a son of Henry Eccleshall of Kinver c1603-1670 and Eleanor. He studied at Cambridge where he was admitted as a sizar at Emmanuel College on 21 Jun 1650 and matriculated the same year. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1653.4. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by about 1654 when he preached a "lecture sermon" at Dudley which was heard by some Sedgley parishioners. They requested their compliant minister William Parkes 1602-1656 QV "who was old and weak" to appoint Eccleshall as his assistant. Later that year he was appointed as presbyterian assistant minister and on 27 Oct 1654 was also appointed register. Parkes died in 1656 and, after "presentation" (for this turn) (? on 2 Mar 1656.7) by the parliamentarian Henry Stone of Walsall esquire c1605-1689 pro Thomas Parkes of Willingsworth in Sedgley, Staffs esquire c1596-1660, Eccleshall was appointed presbyterian minister of Sedgley vicarage on 22 May 1657. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto vicar. On 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to the Act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. Calamy records in 1727:

"Being single his Father and Mother liv'd with him and kept House and receiv'd what of the Dues was willingly brought in but sued none. He was of a strong Constitution and an obliging facetious pleasant Temper but very serious Laying to Heart the Worth of Souls and the great Number in the Parish he was the > more unwearied in his Labours to do them good. This Parish contains nine Villages in it and is very populous by Reason of the Workers of Lime and Cole and Iron. It had been an Heathenish Place till Mr William Fenner's [William Fenner (vicar of Sedgley) c1600-1640] four Years Ministry there which was bless'd with the Conversion of many. And he being forc'd away and succeeded by a weak vicar Prophaneness and Ignorance abounded there at the Time of Mr Eccleshall's first coming among them. Laying therefore all worldly Concerns aside he set himself to his ministerial Work with Zeal Prudence and Diligence both in publick and private. In Publick he read the Scriptures and expounded them and catechiz'd their Youth and preach'd and pray'd with great Fervency and Affection. He had a Voice that reach'd to the farthest Part of the Church which was generally fill'd though it was inlarg'd after his coming by the building of a Gallery the Timber for which was given by Thomas Foley Esq. He would also expound the Word at their own Houses and the vicaridge too as Opportunity offer'd. And he was frequent also in personally instructing elder Persons especially before their Admission to the Sacrament and he would manage it in a most obliging Manner. A great Alteration ap pear'd both in the Numerousness of the Congregation and the Stop put to profane and irreligious Practices which before abounded among them. He preach'd Week day Lectures in neighbouring Parishes and sometimes had neighbouring Ministers to preach in his Church. He did not bring controversial Matters into the Pulpit but preached and press'd plain Scripture Truths in order to Conversion and Sanctification Salvation and Holiness. He rather chose to deal with Opinionists personally and answer their Doubts in private than confute their Notions publickly.When it became necessary he studied the Terms of Conformity and preach'd his Farewel Sermon on Aug 17 1662 to a large Congregation cover'd with Tears. And on Aug 24 none coming to officiate he went into the Pew pray'd and read Scripture expounded and preach'd and came there no more.

After ejection Eccleshall stayed in Sedgley but moved to a house about one mile from the church. This might be the house of his father Henry who was assessed on 3 hearths in 1665. At this time he continued to attend church and in private also preached to and helped some of his old parishioners. Under The five mile act (31 Oct 1665), which prohibited nonconformist clergy from entering within 5 miles of parishes in which they had acted as clergmen since 1660, he was forced to move. He then moved back to his birthplace Kinver. Calamy records in 1727:

> [The act] forc'd him to Kinfare where he also preach'd in private and went afterwards with his Hearers to the publick Church to hear Mr Jonathan Newey a worthy Man who succeeded Mr Morton at Kinfare. [Richard Morton (presbyterian minister) 1637-1698 was ejected in 1662 and succeded by Jonathan Newey (parochial curate) ?1637-1716]. He came from thence secretly by Night to to his own People not daring to be seen by Day to do what Service he could and return'd back again by Night till the Rigour of the Times abated.

By 1669 Eccleshall had returned to Sedgley where he held a presbyterian conventicle at his own house which attracted about 200 worshippers. The same year "Mr Eccleshall" was one of four preachers at Coventry Leather Hall, Warwicks. In 1672 he was licensed as a presbyterian teacher in his house at Sedgley and the same year one "Ralph[sic] Ecclesole" was similarly licensed in "Wm Keels howse in Darleton [?Darlaston]". Ralph might be an error for Joseph. Calamy records in 1727:

> Then he appear'd in publick and continu'd his ministerial Work among his old People with little Allowance from them living upon a little Estate of his own chiefly with Frugality and Care. There were two Meetings kept up in the Parish because of its Largeness at two or three Miles Distance and Mr Eccleshall administer'd the Sacrament in both. Here he continu'd his Service several Years till at last he was silenc'd by Death.

A manuscript survey of dissenting ministers taken about 1691 has under Staffordshire the entry "Ministers that may want a Supply - mr Eccleshall - At Sedgley where he was minister hath little." In his later years Eccleshall preached at a meeting house at Coseley probably a precursor of a chapel which was built in 1717 on Old Meeting Road in Old End later known as "Coseley Old Meeting House". Eccleshall died, aged 59, and was buried at Sedgley on 22 Dec 1692. His funeral sermon was preached by Henry Oasland (presbyterian minister of Bewdley, Worcs) 1625-1703 on [Zechariah 1:5] "Your fathers , where are they ? ..." His will dated 24 Aug 1692 was proved under Lichfield on 17 Nov 1693. His personalty was valued at £235 and included "Bookes to the number 180 £12". In his will he requests that payment be made to "an able sound preacher, or preachers in the meeting house at Coseley where I preached" and bequeathes "to such poor schollers as my Executors shall think fitt all my Latine & other books relating to contraversies, And all my other books of practical divinity I give to my said sonne Thomas Dudley, desireing his carefull perusall of them ...". Eccleshall married about 1663 to Martha (d 1670) by whom he had 1 daughter (Martha wife of Thomas Dudley of "The Greenhouse", Dudley).

When he left the vicaridge he liv'd about a Mile from the Church in the same Parish and ordinarily attended the publick Worship except at the Common Prayer and the Sacrament and gave his old Hearers what personal Help he could in private. The succeeding vicar for some Years was hot and fill'd his Sermons with railing Invectives which put many of the People upon persuading him to preach to them which he yeilded to at Times different from the publick Service. The Oxford Act [The five mile act (31 Oct 1665)] forc'd him to Kinfare where he also preach'd in private and went afterwards with his Hearers to the publick Church to hear Mr Jonathan Newey a worthy Man who succeeded Mr Morton at Kinfare. (1778) (At Sedgley) He left the university about 1654. Preaching a lecture at Dudley, some of the people at Sedgeley heard him, and thereupon prevailed with their vicar, Mr Parkes, who was old and infirm, to call Mr E. to be his assistant; who in a few years succeeded him, with the good liking of the parishioners. Being single, his father and mother lived with him. He received what of the dues was willingly brought him, but sued none. He was of a strong constitution, and an obliging, facetious, pleasant temper, but very serious. He also expounded at the vicarage, and at the people's houses, as opportunity offered. He was frequent also in

He did not bring controversial matters into the pulpit, but preached and pressed plain scripture truths, in order to conversion and sanctification, salvation and holiness. He rather chose to deal with opinionists personally, and answer their doubts in private, than confute their notions in public. When it became neccesary he studied the terms of Conformity, and preached his farewell sermon on August 17, 1662, to a large congregation all in tears; and on August 24, none coming to officiate, he went into a pew, prayed and read scripture, expounded and preached. Afterwards, though he lived a mile from the church, he ordinarily attended the public worship there, and gave his hearers what personal help he could in private. The succeeding vicar for some years was hot, and filled his sermons with railing invectives, which put many of the people upon persuading Mr E. to preach to them, which he yielded to at times different from the public service. The Oxford-act [Five-Mile Act OR Oxford Act (1665)] forced him to Kinfare [Kinver], where he also preached in private, and went afterwards with his hearers to church, to hear Mr Jonathan Newey a worthy man, who succeeded Mr Mortan. He then came secretly by night to his own people, (not daring to be seen by day) to do what service he could, and returned back again by night, till the rigour of the times abated. When he appeared in public, and continued his ministerial work among his old people, with little allowance from them, living chiefly upon a small estate of his own with frugality and care. There were 2 meetings kept up in the parish, because of its largeness, 2 or 3 miles distant, and Mr Eccleshall administered the sacrament in both. Here he continued his service several years, till he was silenced by death. His fun. serm. was preached by Mr Oasland. [401-2]

(1934) ECCLESHALL, JOSEPH. vicar of Sedgley, Staffs. 1662. Adm. 22 May 1657. Successor inst. 22 Oct. 1662, on non-subscription of Eccleshall. (L. 998. Ep. Reg. Lichf.: Cal. 629, 777.) Son of Henry, of Coseley. Emmanuel, Camb., mc. 1650: B.A. 1654. After leaving the University 'preached a Lecture Sermon at Dudly, which some of the People of Sedgeley heard, and thereupon prevail'd with their vicar Mr. Parkes [Wm. Parkes, d. 12 Sept. 1656], who was old and weak, to call Mr. Eccleshall to be his Assistant, which he did soon after [he took oath as registrar for the parish 27 Oct. 1654]: And in a few Years Time, upon the Death of Mr. Parkes, he succeeded him in his Living, with the good Liking of the Parishioners. Being single, his Father and Mother liv'd with him, and kept House, and receiv'd what of the Dues was willingly brought in, but sued none. He was of a strong Constitution, and an obliging facetious pleasant Temper, but very serious. Laying to Heart the Worth of Souls, and the great Number in the Parish, he was the more unwearied in his Labours to do them good. This Parish contains nine Villages in it, and is very populous, by Reason of the Workers of Lime, and Cole, and Iron. It had been an Heathenish Place, till Mr. William Fenner's [D.N.B.] four Years Ministry there, which was bless'd with the Conversion of many: And he being forc'd away, and succeeded by a weak vicar, Prophaneness and Ignorance abounded there, at the Time of Mr. Eccleshall's first coming among them. ... He had a Voice that reach'd to the farthest Part of the Church, which was generally fill'd, though it was inlarg'd after his coming, by the building of a Gallery, the Timber for which was given by Thomas Foley, Esq. ... A great Alteration appear'd, both in the Numerousness of the Congregation, and the Stop put to profane and irreligious practices. . . .When he leftthevicaridge, he liv'd about a Mile from the Church, in the same Parish, and ordinarily attended the publick Worship, except at the Common prayer and the Sacrament, and gave his old Hearers what personal Help he could in private. The succeeding vicar [Thos. Jannes] for some Years was hot, and fill'd his Sermons with railing Invectives, which put many of the People upon persuading him to preach to them, which he yeilded to, at Times different from the publick Service. The Oxford Act forc'd him to Kinfare, where he also preach'd in private, and went afterwards with his Hearers to the publick Church, to hear Mr. Jonathan Newey, a worthy Man, who succeeded Mr. Morton [q.v.] at Kinfare. Licensed (P.) at his house, Sedgley, 1672. 1690, at Sedgley, 'hath little'. First minister of what was afterwards Coseley Old Meeting. Died 19 Dec., buried at Sedgley 22 Dec. 1692. One of them, Joseph Eccleshall, had been vicar of Sedgley since 1657. Before the end of 1662 he moved to Coseley and started to hold services in a private house near Wallbrook. The congregation was known as 'The Old Meeting Congregation'. He built-up a sizeable following, so much so that on his death in 1692, the funeral service was attended by so many people that the floor gave way and collapsed into the cellar, resulting in a number of injuries. In 1717 the original Presbyterian chapel was built in Old Meeting Road, at Old End, which became known as 'The Old Meeting House'. This was the first church of any denomination to be established in Coseley. ... Deeds of the property are dated 28th August 1722. Coseley Old Meeting Houses originally Presbyterian but eventually became Unitarian. When Joseph Eccleshall was ejected from the vicargae of Sedgeley (sic) in 1662 (he was deposed due to his refusal to sign the Act of Uniformity), he became the first minister to this congregation, until his death. It is said that so many people attended his funeral service in 1692 that the floor gave way and sank into the cellar- no one seriously injured! The society met at a house at "Old End" Sedgley, but this was wrecked in the Sacheverell riots (see below) and the new chapel built in 1717, John Peach registered as minister that year. Then merged with the "New Meeting". The chapel was again replaced in 1874. Notes taken from the preface to the register in the "Non Conformist Registers of the Parish of Sedgeley, including Coseley" [Later that year he was imprisoned as an insolvent debtor (probably at Stafford) [INTERNET]

Michael Edge M.A. (presbyterian minister of Uttoxeter) 1634-1683 (H36)
Edge, christened on 4 Oct 1634 at Kingsley, was second son of John Edge of Kingsley "gentleman" 1600-1675 and Frances. He studied at Cambridge where on 12 Jun 1651 he was admitted as a sizar at Clare College and matriculated. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1654.5 (M.A., 1658). He was presumably qualified as a presbyterian clergyman by about 31 Mar 1658 when after nomination by the Trustees for maintenance he was approved by the Commission for approbation of public preachers as presbyterian minister of Uttoxeter vicarage. On 13 Jul 1658 the Trustees granted him an augmentation of £70 (later increased to £83) to his annual salary of about £20. In Aug 1658 he wrote a letter to the puritan theologian Richard Baxter 1615-1691 who had founded the Worcestershire Association stating "God hath awakened the ministers of these parts to attempt such a work... what they have done yet is but an embryo; something they have consulted of to reform their congregations of ignorance and scandal" and asking how best to proceed to form a similar association (never achieved) in Staffordshire. In 1658.9 he certified the fitness of candidates for the ministry. In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de facto vicar. On 10 Mar 1660.1 (together with Augustine Schoolecoft 1633-1700 QV) he was ordained deacon at "the chapel of his oratory at the Barbican" and on 13 Mar 1660.1 ordained priest at Aldersgate Steet, London (both) by Lincoln. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 10/0. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 10 Jul 1662 and was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield in Nov 1663. In 1665 the vicarage was valued at £20. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Crakemarsh (in Uttoxeter) and Uttoxeter constablewicks and was assessed on 2 hearths at Uttoxeter township. At Uttoxeter he resigned before 6 Oct 1682 when after presentation by Gilbert Holles 3rd Earl of Clare c1634-1689 he was instituted rector of Yoxall. Still in office he died, aged 49, on 29 May 1683 and was buried there on 1 Jun. His will made on 29 May 1693 was proved under Lichfield on 26 Jun 1683. His personalty was valued at £244/7/2 and included "Books £130". Edge married on 5 Jul 1659 at Uttoxeter to Jane Pierce by whom he had 3 sons and 2 daughters.

(1915) 31 Mar 1658 res. 29 Oct 1682 Michael Edge M.A.? 11 - 11 Edge. Probably M.A. 1658 Clare College, Cambridge (Venn). Nominated to this vicarage by the trustees, admitted by the commissioners 31 Mar 1658 (LMS 999 p3), married 5 Jul 1659 Jane Pierce, certified the fitness of candidates for the ministry in 1658.9 (LMS 999); paid subsidy of 10/0 in Jan 1661.2, resigned this vicarage to accept that of Yoxall; died at Yoxall 1683. On 13 Jul 1658 the trustees granted him an augmentation of £70 out of these (rectorial) tithes as the vicarage was not worth more than £20. (LMS 995 p246 507; 994 p142) In Oct 1659 the trustees increased this augmentation by £13 in accordance with the instructions of the committee for plundered ministers, out of the (rectorial) tithes here, which were worth £83 pa (LMS 987 p287) [1915 p294 296-7]
(1924) Our county never attained to an Association of its own, though the matter was mooted. In August, 1658, Michael Edge, who had succeeded Thomas Lightfoot at Uttoxeter, wrote to Baxter, "God hath awakened the ministers of these parts to attempt such a work, i.e., an association; what they have done yet is but an embryo; something they have consulted of to reform their congregations of ignorance and scandal." He asks Baxter to advise them how best to proceed, "it is not my single desire, but would satisfy my brethren much and was much desired by Mr. Taylor of Checkley." Baxter replied, and there the matter ended so far as we know {Williams' Library, Baxter M.S.S., i. 106}. [Matthews (1924) p28]

(1917) EDGE, RICHARD (fl. 1690-93). Entered the Academy of John Woodhouse qv and received from the Common Fund (Feb. 1691) a gift of £4, and (Dec. 1692) a grant of £6 a year. He was ordained at Knutsford (27 S. 1692) as Minister of Bromborough, in succession to John Wilson qv; he left before Christmas 1693; apparently he served Bromborough as a Student [Gordon (1917) p257]

Thomas Edge (rector of Gawsworth, Cheshire) c1628-1678
Edge, born about 1628, was a son of Oliver Edge of "Birch Hall Houses", Withington, Lancs "gentleman". He was educated at Newton, ?Lancs under Mr Hulme and at King James' College, Edinburgh. He studied at Cambridge where on 25 Nov 1645 he was a sizar at Christ's College and matriculated that year but is not known to have graduated. On 17 Jan 1653.4 it was ordered that he was to be ordained as a presbyterian clergyman at Goostrey, Cheshire where he was appointed presbyterian minister of the parochial chapelry. Here he resigned before 9 Nov 1657 on his appointment as presbyterian minister of Gawsworth rectory, Cheshire and in Jun 1660 continued in office as de facto rector. He was in office there on 15 Oct 1661. On 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to the Act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. He was living at "Bottam, Leek" (probably Bottom in Cheddleton) in 1668 and also in Jun 1672 when he was licensed as a general presbyterian teacher. In 1672 he was a preacher at a meeting-house that had been constructed for his use at (his birthplace) Withington. Later he moved to Chelford, Cheshire where he lived for the rest of his life. Edge died, aged about 50, on 21 Jun 1678 and was buried on 24 Jun at Chelford. His will made on 21 ?Jun 1678 was proved under Chester on 10 Jul 1678. In his will he wrote "And of my bookes I give unto her [his wife] those english practicall bookes she shall make choice of". His personalty was valued at £451/13/7. Edge married in Jan 1655.6 at Goostrey to Mary Brett (d 1686) (no known children). Calamy writes in 1713 "... at Withington. He [Edge] had a very numerous Auditory, and no Meeting in the County was more crowded. Even such as shew'd little love to Seriousness, esteem'd him an excellent Preacher. Afterwards he preach'd more privately, in the Neighbourhood of Chelford, and in other Parts of Cheshire, and Staffordshire. The Times and Places of his meeting were order'd with great Prudence, for which he was indeed Eminent in the whole of his Management. He commonly gather'd People together before their Neighbours were out of their Beds, and broke up a little before the Publick. In the Afternoon he usually heard the Publick Minister at Chelford. ... He was an excellent Preacher, and a kind and fast Friend; very fit to give good Advice, either for Soul or Body, and very Affable to younger Ministers. His Sermons were full of close and sound Argument, and apt Similitudes: They were Close and Methodical, and deliver'd with much Zeal. He was a great Textuary, and a very good Expositor. His Prayers were Fervent, and his Expressions Taking, Copious and Fluent.!

The family of Edge of Birch Hall-houses appears in the 17th century. Captain Oliver Edge, an officer in the Parliamentary army, comes into notice as the captor of the Earl of Derby in his flight after the battle of Worcester. The place of capture was a little south of Nantwich. The earl writes: 'Lord Lauderdale and I, having escaped, hired horses and falling into the enemy's hands were not thought worth killing, but have quarters given us by Captain Edge, a Lancashire man, and one that was so civil to me that I and all that love me are beholden to him. BIRCH HALL HOUSES, was the residence of a family named Edge, who like most of his neighbours was a supporter of Cromwell. There is an incident worthy of record in connection with the capture of Lord Derby, previously mentioned, which speaks well for Captain Oliver Edge, son of Oliver Edge, of Birch Hall Houses. Of his capture the earl gives the following account : "I escaped," he wrote afterwards to the Countess, "one great danger at Wigan, and I met with a greater at Worcester. I was not so fortunate as to meet with anybody that would kill me, for the Lord Lauderdale and I, having tired horses, we were not thought worthy of killing, for we had quarter given by one Captain Edge, a Lancashire man, and one that was so civil to me that I and all that love me are behoiden to him." (Wem) PETER EDWARDS, born at Smethcot, in the parish of Wroxeter, and county of Salop, was elected September 26th, 1710. He was educated at Donnington school, in the said parish, and in Christ church, Oxford, where he took both degrees in arts, and then removed to Edmund Hall. He was my cousin german, travelled with me to Oxford, when I was admitted there, and was one of the three masters that examined me for my degree. Before he left the University, he was preceptor to a gentleman's son in Buckinghamshire; and when he came from Oxford, he assisted the chief master of Wolverhampton school. Mr. Husbands gave him a presentation to the rectory of Stoke, in the county of Salop, on condition of marrying his daughter; but then only in deacon's orders, he lost this advantage, because bishop Hough refused him a private ordination, and the living would lapse before there could be a public one. After he had been some years at Wem, he got the rectory of Moreton Corbet, which he resigned as soon as Mr. Vincent Corbet, the son of his patron was qualified for it. From this living, and the school, he acquired so much money, as to leave an estate of £50. per annum for three lives under Henry, earl of Bradford. Whilst he was rector of Moreton, he preached a visitation sermon at Shrewsbury, before bishop Hough. Another sermon of his preached at Wem, was remarkable only on account of the text, "Stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples, for I am sick of love". Solomon's song, ch.2 v. 5. In his time the school flourished exceedingly, and great numbers of young gentlemen were bred up under him. He was politick, discreet, well bred, and had a majestic presence, being a big and comely man. He took great pains in the school, but in the latter part of his time, especially in the summer, his fatness disposed him to be sleepy. In 1724, upon the decay of his health, and some little bickerings with the feoffees, he resigned the school, and with a few of his scholars, retired to his nativity. At his father's death, which happened not long after; he succeeded him in a good estate at Smethcot. September 21st, 1729, he died of a relaxed state of body, brought on by the medicines which he took to relieve him from a feverish disorder. [Samuel Garbet THE HISTORY OF WEM]

William Adcock Ellis was born in 1845. He was educated partly at a private school in Worcestershire and partly at King Edward's Grammar School, Birmingham. In the year 1867 he married Mary Emily, daughter of the late William Mackenzie Eglington, of Aldridge, an amiable and gifted lady who passed over to the great majority in 1875, leaving her husband three handsome boys. The eldest son, William Eglington Ellis, entered into holy orders and is now vicar of Long Itchington, near Rugby. Mr W A Ellis has played a leading part in public life of Handsworth for many years. He has worked hard for the best interests of Handsworth upon the old Local Board and present District Council and his retirement at the present juncture from the latter authority has occasioned wide-spread regret. He has all his life been a sturdy upholder of the dignity of the Church of England and his devotion to St Michael's Schools proves his interest in the religious education of young people. During the first School Board election in Handsworth he acted as Hon. Secretary to the Bible teaching party and had the satisfaction of seeing the whole of the candidates of this party returned. He is a governor of the Bridge Trust School and a member of the Technical School Committee. [INTERNET]

Richard Emery (vicar of Brewood) c1622-1678 H37

Emery, born about 1622, was a son of Thomas Emery of Stone yeoman. He was educated at Shrewsbury. He studied at Cambridge where on 29 Oct 1639 he was admitted as a fellow-commoner at St John's College and matriculated but is not known to have graduated. He was presumably qualified as a presbyterian clergyman before he was appointed presbyterian minister of Shareshill ?independent parochial chapelry. Here an unnamed man - perhaps Emery - was in office on 30 Nov 1646 when the Committee for plundered ministers granted the minister here an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary (then) £50. Emery was in office in 1651.2 but was replaced on 14 Apr 1652. In early Jun 1660 he may not have been in an office. On 23 Aug 1662 he was (probably head) schoolmaster of Brewood Grammar School when he subscribed to the Act of uniformity (as a schoolmaster). By 3 Sep 1662 he was also in office as a stipendiary curate at Boningale, Salop. In Dec 1663 he was ordained deacon and priest and also licensed as a preacher (all by Lichfield). On 19 Oct 1664 after presentation by the dean of Lichfield qua prebendary of Lichfield Brewood then Thomas Wood c1607-1692 he was instituted vicar of Brewood. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Brewood constablewick and was probably assessed on 4 hearths. Still in both offices at Brewood he died, aged about 56, on 1 Jan 1677.8 and was buried there on 8 Jan. Emery married about 1656 to a woman (? Mary d 1682) by whom he had 2 sons and 1 daughter.

Endon, born about 1613, was a son of Thomas Endon of Rudyard in Leek "gentleman" c1583-.... and Margaret (?Sleigh). He studied at Oxford where on 9 Dec 1631 he was a student at Brasenose College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 5 Feb 1634.5. He was presumably ordained deacon and on 5 Mar 1636.7 ordained priest by Lichfield. By 1639 after probable presentation by the parochial curate of Stone then Barnabas Willatt e1560-1640 he had been licensed as parochial curate of Fulford and may have continued in office until (or after) 1641. By 1650 he was in office as compliant minister of Chellaston, Derbys when the Parliamentary Commissioners described him as "of noe good repute". Still in office he died, aged about 42, and was buried there on 15 Mar 1654.5. Endon may not have married.

Maud Erdington m John Lee (son of Thomas Lee) (grandson of Sir John Lee Knight)

Erdington made his career in the royal service and became one of the most distinguished of Henry III's judges. His legal skill is evident in the agreement he negotiated with the new Bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, Alexander Stavensby, immediately after the bishop's consecration in 1224. This formalized the traditional but unwritten privileges asserted earlier by Peter of Blois. It recognized the dean's right to appoint to the prebends in his church, institute his clergy, and correct them; it admitted the bishop's intervention only on neglect of correction and after an official admonition, and even then allowed him no right to procurations. On the other hand it recognized that the bishop was entitled to be received with honour, to celebrate, preach, and confirm in the church, and to hear difficult cases and appeals from the parish. From him it [the manor of Bighton] passed into the possession of Christopher Eyre, one of the prebendaries of Winchester Cathedral. Christopher died in 1743, and was succeeded by his eldest son Philip Eyre, who on his own petition presented himself to the living of Bighton in 1767. On his death without issue the manor went to his brother Joseph Eyre, who in 1770 settled it on himself and his son and heir John and their heirs and assigns for ever. [VCH]

It is with very great regret we announce the death of the Rev. Henry Stuart Fagan, rector of Great Cressingham, Norfolk, one of those Irish Protestant clergymen whose field of work lies beyond the Church, and who inherit the historical patriotism of the Protestants of the past, He was an ardent Nationalist, and did not hesitate for a moment to throw in his lot with the cause of Home Rule in England when Mr. Gladstone gave the word. The Primrose Boycotters attempted to punish him for this; but he was not to be intimidated. Since 1886 he had been one of the most ardent and effective workers in the cause of Ireland. It will be no surprise to his countrymen to find that his sympathy embraced the English worker as well as the Irish, "By the poor he was much beloved," say those who were witnesses of his work. That is the best of epitaphs. A correspondent of the Star writes of the deceased: "To me he bequeathed a trust to take up his interest in the matter of William Coll, and to push forward tbe agitation for repeal of that cruel sentence in season and out of season." Rev. Mr. Fagan was born in the year 1827, and was educated at Oxford. He passed through with distinction, and became a Fellow of Pembroke College. He was ordained in 1852, and was then appointed an assistant master of King Edwards Grammar School, Birmingham. He was subsequently head-master successively of Burton-on Trent, Market-Bosworth, and Bath Grammar Schools. In 1859 he became rector of Charlecombe, which living he held until 1870, when he went to a living in Cornwall. He was transferred to Great Cressingham in 1882, the living being in the gift of the Lord Chancellor. Thus he was a striking witness to the falsehood of tbe assertion that the Protestantism and educated intelligence of Ireland are altogether opposed to Home Rule. [Dublin Notes.

The sale catalogue of Farmer's library contained 8267 lots, some of them running to twenty titles. The sale took thirty-five days and realized £2210, not a princely sum, and one wonders why he did not leave all or some of his books to Emmanuel College or to the university library. He wrote of his library, 'it is believed that not many private Collections contain a greater Number of really curious and scarce Books; and perhaps no one so rich in the ancient Philological English literature' (Sherbo, 106). The large majority of the works cited or quoted in his Essay was in his library. He not only collected books; he read them. [ODNB]

The Rev, Thomas Feilde, who was vicar of Brewood, and Head Master of the Grammar School, is best known by his fondness for antiquarian and topographical research. He had made considerable progress in collecting materials for a general History of Staffordshire, which he intended to publish. After the death of Dr. Wilkes, he purchased from his executor (the Rev. T. Unett), for £200, the collections of that eminent antiquarian, consisting chiefly of copious extracts from Domesday, and from Hurdman's and Loxdale's additions to Erdeswick, which, together with portions of Walter

Chetwynd's valuable papers, were used by Shaw in his History of the county. The precise dates of Mr. Feilde's appointments at Brewood are not known, but there is evidence of his having lived there from 1762 to 1769, when, chiefly in consequence, as is generally understood, of being involved in pecuniary difficulties, he left England for America, and settled in Gloucester County, Virginia, where he died about the year 1775. It is believed Mr. Feilde was a native of Hertfordshire. [NOTES BREWOOD (1860) 105]

William L Feilden
CANON FEILDEN
Contributed by Arnold Burston.

Throughout his time in the parish, from 1884 to 1906, Canon Feilden kept a day-book in the back of an old (1781)Charities account book. It provides a fascinating insight into a late Victorian country parish.
He writes:
Rolleston -
William L. Feilden - rector
Instituted by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese Jany. 29th. 1884.
Inducted by the Revd. H. J. Peach, vicar of Tutbury and Rural Dean, Feby. 11th. 1884.
Appointed Rural Dean of Tutbury Novr. 1894
Resigned the Rural Deanery Decr. 31st. 1904
He gives an enthusiastic account of the two major restorations undertaken in his time.
1884 June 25th. A meeting of the Parishioners was called to take into consideration the advisability of making some effort in the direction of restoring the Parish Church. On Monday August 15th. the first steps were taken in demolishing the old Pews, and the work was carried on with so much spirit and so rapidly that the Church was reopened for Divine Service by the Lord Bishop of Lichfield, (who preached on that occasion), on Thursday October 16th.

On Monday October the 27th. A Public Tea Drinking was held in order to commemorate the successful accomplishment of the work of restoring the Parish Church, and our own thankfulness that this had been permitted and that we had again resumed Divine Service within the Church. About Two Hundred of the Parishioners sat down to Tea, and after the Tables were cleared, Addresses, interspersed with Glee Singing and other musical Varieties, were given by the rector, the Church Wardens, and the Revd. R.O.Assheton. A very agreeable evening was spent.
1892. On August 5th. The Church was reopened for Divine Service by the Lord Bishop of Lichfield

The Church, which had been closed for rather more than twelve months, had undergone very extensive alterations and extension since Service had last been held in it. It was filled to overflowing on the occasion of its re-opening, and the large amount of £128.3.1 was collected.

The opening services were continued on the following Sunday, Aug. 7th., when the Preachers were in the Morng. Archdeacon Rawstone, Archdn. of Blackburn, in the Evng. Archdeacon Salt, Archdn of Stafford.

The amount raised after the sermons produced an additional sum of £33.9.2, making in all £161.12.3, which was handed over to the Church restoration Fund.

It may be added that the musical portions of the Service on the Reopening Day were admirably rendered by a Choir from Liverpool Cathedral.

The work was most efficiently carried out by Mr. Thompson of Peterborough under the direction of Sir Arthur Blomfield. "Special Services" were frequently held. The Harvest Festival was used for fund raising as early as 1884, when Rev. R.O. Assheton of Bilston preached two Harvest Thanksgiving Services which raised £8.15.0 for the restoration fund. On 26th. July 1885, "The Bishop of Liverpool preached in Rolleston Church both Morning and Evening. The Church was very full on both occasions, more especially in the Eveng. when it was crowded to suffocation. The heat of the Weather was extreme. The Thermometer marking 90^0 in the Shade and 124^0 in the Sun." The first Carol Service was held on Christmas Eve 1885 at 3.30, when "after Shortened Evensong, the Choir sang a few Christmas Carols very effectively".
For Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee in 1887, Canon Feilden tells us that the men's wages were paid for the day by their employers. There was "a merry peal of bells" at 6 a.m., and at 10 o'clock the children gathered at the Girls' Schoolroom and marched to the Hall, where they were met by Sir Tonman Mosley and, after singing the National Anthem, were presented with a Jubilee medal. At the Church Service at 11.30, the National Anthem was followed by two extra Jubilee verses, and then the villagers went to "The Leys", where there were three tents. In the largest of these at 12.30, "200 men and youths sat down to a plentiful spread of beef, plum pudding etc., each being also allowed a quart of ale or its equivalent in non-alcoholic beverages", (Sir Tonman being keen on the Temperance Movement). A good dinner was sent to old people and invalids, then "at 3.30 the women were regaled with a substantial meat tea". A tea for 350 children followed in a tent "gay with flowers, evergreens and bunting", and an "efficient" band from Nottingham played. There were athletic sports in the afternoon with "liberal prizes" and dancing in the large tent, illuminated with Chinese lanterns, "until a late hour". At 10 p.m. "a Jubilee Bonfire was lighted on Beacon Hill. The proceeding was enlivened at intervals by the firing of cannon and flights of rockets."
On the evening of Monday 31st. December 1900, "it being the last Day of the Year, and likewise of the Nineteenth Century, a Service was held commencing at 11.30, to commemorate the occasion." A special order of service, issued by the Bishop, was used, and the Church was full. Note that the end of the 19th. Century, unlike the end of the 20th., was celebrated on the "proper" day.
On 19th. January 1901, a memorial service in memory of Queen Victoria was held. "It was largely attended and the congregation, all attired in black, appeared much impressed." On the last day of the year, there was again a special service, ending shortly after midnight. "The rain poured down in torrents, but notwithstanding there was a Congregation of some 70 persons present."
A new Accession Service was held on 22nd. January 1902 to mark the anniversary of the King's accession. "On Thursday June 26th., the Day fixed for the Coronation of the King and Queen, the Services which had been announced in connection with that Ceremony, in consequence of the serious illness of the King were not held, but intercessory Services for the King's recovery were substituted in their place ... On August 9th. by the Grace of God, The King having recovered from his serious illness, the Coronation was able to be carried out. At 11 a.m. a Service in Church was held in Celebration of the Event, and afterwards Mugs and Coins were presented by Miss Mosley representing Sir Oswald, to all the School children and Members of the Choir &c."
Various groups of Church workers were given treats. On Christmas Eve 1885 a substantial tea was given to the choir, bell-ringers, Sunday School teachers and Churchwardens, a total of sixty including wives. The rector "gave a short address of welcome, giving words of advice to all present." This was followed by singing, hand-bell ringing and "sundry other amusements." In 1897 they had slides on the Riviera and music by the Rolleston Temperance Band, and the following year Mr. and Mrs. Thornewill and their little girls gave an entertainment entitled "Blue Beard" with music by the Rolleston Band. Another tea party featured conjuring by "Professor Christo of Worcester".

The Sunday School were also given frequent treats. At their tea party on Christmas Day 1887, Mr. Knowles "exhibited a Magic Lantern which was much appreciated by the Young People." In 1891, their tea was combined with a temperance meeting with lantern slides of "Two Temperance Tales", and in 1903 "Mr. Simnett from Burton gave an excellent exhibition." Fund-raising took the form of concerts (including bones solos by Mr. H.M. Bell), a "Christmas Tree and Sale of Work", and rummage sales (presided over by The Hon. Mrs Feilden),
In Canon Feilden's time, there were choir trips each year to a variety of seaside destinations, Skegness, Llandudno, Rhyl, Liverpool, Blackpool, Scarborough and Yarmouth. In the early days, Sir Tonman's carriages took them to Burton station; in later years they went by train from Tutbury, and finally from Rolleston station. In 1893 there was a special trip to Alton Towers for school children, the choir, bell-ringers and Sunday School teachers. This excursion was arranged by Sir Oswald Mosley "in honour of the Marriage that Day of the Duke of York and Princess Mary".

$Deliverance Fennyhouse M.A. (compliant minister of Leigh) 1605-1672 (H38)
Fennyhouse, christened on 22 Dec 1605 at Dean, Beds, was a son of Richard Fennyhouse of Barby, Northants clergyman e1575-1618. He studied at Oxford where on 13 Dec 1622 he was a student at Exeter College and matriculated and then studied at Cambridge where on 30 Apr 1625 he was admitted as a pensioner at Queen's College. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1626.7 (M.A., 1634). On 19 Sep 1629 he was ordained deacon by Lichfield and had been appointed schoolmaster of Cannock parish school before 20 Feb 1629.30 when he was ordained priest by Lichfield. At some time he may have been a stipendiary curate at Shifnall vicarage, Salop. About 1638 he was styled "Deliverance Fennyhouse of Shaffal[sic] - minister of the gospel", when he testified to the honest life and conversation of a local preacher Humphrey Vincent ?1595-.... Perhaps in 1640 he was licensed as parochial curate of Stone. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister and on 10 Apr 1644 the Staffordshire parliamentary committee ordered that he receive an augmentation in kind to his annual salary of £13/6/8. He probably resigned at Stone before Dec 1646 when the Committee for plundered ministers, acting in the place of the delinquent Sir Harvey Bagot of Blithfield 1st baronet 1591-1660, appointed him compliant minister of Leigh rectory. Apparently a committed presbyterian, he signed the Staffordshire testimony of Jul 1648 as "Deliverance Phynihouse Minister of Gods Word at Leigh" and certified the fitness of many candidates for the ministry in 1658.9. In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de facto rector and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. About that year he was licensed as a preacher by Canterbury pro Lichfield. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of £1 and and on 23 Jul 1662 subscribed to the Act of uniformity . In 1665 the rectory was valued at £55. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Leigh constablewick and was assessed on 6 hearths. Still in office he died, aged 67, and was buried there on 7 Jul 1672. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 31 Oct 1672. His personalty was valued at £92/7/10 and included "Books in the Studdy £15". Fennyhouse married first about 1632 to a woman by whom he had 1 daughter. He married second about 1642 to Margaret by whom he had 2 daughters. He married third on 8 Jun 1663 at Cannock to Rebecca Wood (no known children). [NB: Fennyhouse's father Richard Fennyhouse was on 26 Aug 1616 preacher of Stone. It is not known if he had been ordained before 1605 when he had his son christened with the unusual christian name "Deliverance".]

(Minister in London)
Perhaps s. of John, of Hanbury, Worcs.; age 56 in 1682.

William Fincher (presbyterian minister of Wednesbury) c1628-1691

Fincher, born about 1628, was seventh son of John Fincher of Shell in Himbleton, Worcs "gentleman" c1583-c1663 and Elizabeth (Hanbury). He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 28 Feb 1654.5 when after presentation by ●Oliver Cromwell qua Protector he was approved by the Commission for approbation of public preachers as presbyterian minister of Wednesbury vicarage. In 1657 he certified the fitness of candidates for the ministry. About 25 Mar 1659 he received an augmentation of £37/10/0 (or £30) pa from the Trustees for maintenance (out of their tenths fund). In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto vicar. On 2 Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 6/8. On 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to the Act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. Subsequently he preached at Gornal in Sedgley. On 6 Sep 1665 Robert Greville 4th Baron Brooke of Beauchamps Court c1638-1677 (then Lord Lieutenant of Staffordshire) reported that he had "secured" four ejected ministers in Staffordshire - John Nott 1625-1702 QV, Richard Hincks e1622-1683 QV, Richard Hilton c1625-1706 QV and Fincher. That year Hilton and Fincher were both probably living at Walsall where "Richard Hilton" and "Mr Fincher" were both assessed on 3 hearths. In 1669 Fincher, Hilton and five other named ministers were preachers at a conventicle held at the houses of Mrs Pearson, Mr Fowler and Mr Eves in Walsall. (In 1665 Richard Hilton was a neighbour of George Pearson - 6 hearths- whilst Fincher was a neighbour of Edward Eames ?recte Eves - 4 hearths). Also in 1669 Fincher was a teacher of conventicles held at Darlaston and Wednesbury. Fincher then returned to live near his birthplace Himbleton where he preached at the home of his sister Sarah's husband Robert Mence. By 22 Jul 1672 he was living at Birmingham, Warwicks when he was licensed as a presbyterian teacher and his house was licensed as a meeting-place. On 6 Jul 1689 a chapel at Birmingham (later known as Birmingham Old Meeting House) was licensed in the names of (its first minister) William Turton (presbyterian minister of Rowley Regis) c1629-1716 QV, Thomas Baldwin (presbyterian minister of Clent) c1627-?1701 QV and Fincher. The Common Fund survey of dissenting ministers taken about 1690 has under Staffordshire the entry "Ministers that have a Competent Supply - Mr Wm Fincher - [ejected] Minister of Wednesbury- but the entry is scored out. In another entry Baldwin and Fincher are together recorded as ministers "Att Birmingham, of one Congregation well provided for each of them £30 per annum". Fincher died, aged about 63, and was buried on 27 Jul 1691 at Birmingham. His will made on 13 Jul 1691 was proved under PCC on 4 Dec 1691. His personalty was about £900. In his will he bequeathed his son Samuel "my house bible and pocket bible", his daughter Elizabeth "my bible which I com'only used in the Pulpit" and his daughter Catherine "my great bible". Fincher married first in 1655 at Kings Norton, Worcs to Elizabeth Cross of Staffs (d ?1684) by whom he had 2 sons and 2 daughters. He married second about 2 May 1688 to Honor (widow of ----- Marston) (no known children). Calamy records in 1702 that Fincher was "a Godly Man and a good Preacher" and in 1727 he was "an heavenly good Man and of a most sweet Temper very humble and never seen in a Passion". Two of Fincher's older brothers were clergymen. George Fincher B.A. (rector of Acton Beauchamp, Worcs) c1610-c1675 complied during the presbyterian intrusion and conformed thereafter whilst Richard Fincher B.A. (presbyterian minister of Worcester All Saints-cum-St Nicholas) c1626-1693 was to be deprived in 1662 and then served as a presbyterian minister. [NB: Richard Bell B.A. (presbyterian minister of Stafford St Chad) 1615-1686 QV, Fincher and Thomas Ford M.A. (presbyterian minister of Harlaston) c1633-1678 QV were married to three sisters - ?????, Elizabeth and Judith Cross - who were probably kinswomen of George Cross (presbyterian minister of Clifton Campville) c1610-1665 QV.]

Eleanor Fincher [3] m Francis Elvins of Hanbury
Sarah Fincher [4] m Robert Mence of Himbleton, Worcs ....-1645; (and had chn: Robert, Francis, Richard, Samuel, Rebecca and Sarah)
Elizabeth Fincher [5] m Philip Burlton of Kidderminster, Worcs

The college was surrendered to Henry VIII on 10 February 1544, (fn. 103) and its possessions, including the manor of Shell, were granted on 22 March to Sir Ralph Sadleir, (fn. 104) who sold the manor of Shell to Thomas and Richard Finch or Fincher in 1549–50. (fn. 105) The shares of these two brothers follow a different descent. (fn. 106) Thomas Fincher died in 1590, having previously, in 1567, settled the manor on his wife Joan, with remainder to his third son Robert. (fn. 107) The latter, dying in 1593, was followed by his sons Thomas and John in succession. (fn. 108) John was followed about 1663 by his grandson John Fincher, (fn. 109) who died before 1717, (fn. 110) when his son Philip and his five daughters were dealing with the manor. (fn. 111) Philip died in 1755, and the manor passed to co-heirs, Mary wife of Thomas Hornblower, Mary Fincher and Anne Fincher. (fn. 112) Thomas Hornblower conveyed a third of the manor in 1801–2 to William Humphreys, (fn. 113) and Anne wife of Nicholas Pearsall, who conveyed the manor of Shell in 1795–6 to Matthew Jefferys, (fn. 114) was perhaps Anne Fincher mentioned above. Later the whole manor passed to Henry Payton, who died in 1819, (fn. 115) when it was sold to Edward Bearcroft, (fn. 116) whose grandson, Colonel Edward Hugh Bearcroft, C.B., is now lord of the manor of Shell. (fn. 117)

The chapel of ease to Wolverhampton is dedicated to St Giles: the living is a perpetual curacy in the presentation of the lords of the manor but they cannot present it to any minister who has not first been approved by a majority of the inhabitants of the chapelry having lands of inheritance within it. The last election for a minister took place on the 5th and 6th August 1834 and was severely contested. The candidates were the Rev George Hutchinson Fisher, the Rev George William White and the Rev John Howells. The first named gentleman at prsesent officiates; but he has not yet been inducted, the election being disputed and it remains a subject of litigation in the court of chancery. [PIGOT (1835)]

St Giles Church, which formerly served the whole chapelry of Willenhall, is now the church of a district parish formed under Sir Robert Peel's act, and comprising Bentley and part of Willenhall township. It was rebuilt in 1748, and has about 620 sittings, and a good organ, erected in 1842. The living is a perpetual curacy valued at about £300 in the patronage of the resident freeholders of the township, and incumbency of the Rev. G H Fisher, MA. [WHITE (1851)]

A fervent royalist, on the outbreak of the rebellion Fleetwood attached himself as chaplain to the regiment of John, Earl Rivers, and his services at the battle of Edgehill (though their nature is not clear) caused Charles I to command the University of Oxford to confer upon him the degree of DD on 1 November 1642. [ODNB]

Roger Fleetwood M.A. (vicar of Hanbury) c1614-1646
Fleetwood, born about 1614 perhaps at Thrapston, Northants, was a younger son of Sir Miles Fleetwood of Aldwincle, Northants knight c1570-1641 [ODNB] and Ann Luke dau of Nicholas Luke of Woodend in Cople, Beds. He studied at Oxford where on 24 Oct 1628 he was a student at Lincoln College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. in 1631. He then studied at St Catharine's College, Cambridge where his B.A. degree was incorporated in 1632.3 (M.A., 1634). He was presumably ordained deacon and priest before about Aug 1639 when after presentation by the Crown (on 14 Aug) he was instituted rector of Broughton, Hants. Here a successor was appointed on 17 Sep 1642. That year he was probably collated by the bishop of Lichfield then Robert Wright c1560-1643 vicar of Hanbury and (? on 11 Oct) appointed prebendary of Lichfield Bobenhull. From 5 Feb 1643.4 his prebend was abolished but he continued in office as compliant minister of Hanbury. On 25 Jun 1646 the Committee for plundered ministers ordered him to be sequestered because he had "deserted the cure and taken himself to the forces raised against the Parliament." He is said to have died that year at Lichfield during its siege by the parliamentary forces. Fleetwood may not have married.

Sir Miles Fleetwood of Aldwincle, the eldest son of this marriage, succeeded his father as receiver of the Court of Wards. "St Leonard's Church, the original chapel of ease for Bilston township, was rebuilt in 1825, upon a large scale. It has a tower, eight bells and 2200 sittings, of which 750 are free. The interior was repaired, and partly remodelled, in 1846. The benefice is a perpetual curacy, in the patronage of the Inhabitants of Bilston, and incumbency of the Rev HS Fletcher, BA."

Thomas Fletcher B.A. (rector of Haughton) c1594-1684 H40
Fletcher, born about 1594, was a son of a Berks "gentleman". He studied at Oxford where on 22 Jun 1610 he was a student at Christ Church and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 21 Oct

1613. On 20 Mar 1613.4 he was ordained deacon and on 5 Mar 1614.5 ordained priest (both) by Oxford. On 26 Aug 1616 he was in office as a stipendiary curate at Bradley and on 18 Dec 1617 after presentation by the bishop of Chester he was instituted as vicar of Bradley where he was succeded in office by 27 Jan 1623.4. About May 1619 he may have been in office as a stipendiary curate at Haughton where on 11 Mar 1619.20 after presentation by Edward Bold of "Booden", Haughton "gentleman" 1548-1624 pro Sir Ralph Bourchier of Beningbrough, Yorks North Riding knight c1528-1598 he was instituted as rector. He may then have briefly been, plurally, in office. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued at Haughton as compliant minister. Still in office as minister in early Jun 1660 he was then reinstated as rector and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of £1. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 12 Aug 1662. On 18 Jan 1663.4 he was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 the rectory was valued at £42. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Haughton constablewick and was assessed on 3 hearths. Still in office he died, aged about 90, and was buried here on 20 Oct 1684. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 1 Jan 1685.6. His personalty was valued at £4/15/0 and consisted only of "one bede with the furniture their to belonging £2/5/0 [and] All his wareinge Apparell & money in his purse £2/10/0". Fletcher married on 1 Jun 1619 at Castle Church to Pheyles Bold by whom he had 2 sons and 5 daughters. His daughter Margaret was the wife of Thomas Reynolds (parochial curate of Gnosall) e1633-1674 QV. [NB: It is likely that Fletcher had disposed of much of his estate before his death resulting in his very low personalty. Fletcher's wife Pheyles Bold was not a daughter of Edward Bold (who had presented Fletcher) but may have been a kinswoman or perhaps the widow of a kinsman. In his 1623 will Bold does name his own three children and appoints Fletcher a "trusty friend" as an overseer. In 1595 the next turn to present at Haughton was granted by Sir Ralph Bourchier of Beningbrough, Yorks North Riding knight c1528-1598 to Philip Bold of London citizen and merchant c1518-1596. This turn passed to Edward Bold of "Booden", Haughton "gentleman" 1548-1624 who presented Thomas Fletcher c1594-1684 as rector of Haughton in 1620. Daniel Bayley believed erroneously that his wife Philippa (apparently Edward's heir) had inherited the advowson of Haughton. Daniel, Philippa and their heir apparent Bold mortgaged it in 1655 and then sold it in 1666.]

John Flower M.A. (presbyterian minister of Ellastone) c1624-?1667 [ODNB]
Flower, born about 1624, was a son of William Flower of Cubley, Derbys "gentleman". He studied at Oxford where on 17 Jul 1640 he was a student at New Inn Hall and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 2 Apr 1647 and was created M.A. by the Parliamentary visitors on 14 Apr 1648. On 28 Sep 1648 the Westminster assembly of divines examined and approved for the ministry one "Mr Flower". It is said that soon after John was a "preacher of God's word at Ilmington in Warwickshire". (Ilmington was a rectory in Worcester diocese but lying sometimes in Warwickshire and sometimes in Gloucestershire). In 1652 he published The free and honourable servant, set forth in his privileges and prerogatives. On 17 Nov 1653 the Council of state appointed Flower presbyterian minister of Ellastone vicarage. He may have served here until 15 Feb 1655.6 when he was appointed presbyterian minister of Staunton rectory, Notts. In 1658 as "John Flowre M.A. preacher at Staunton in the county of Nottingham" he published Severall queries concerning the church of Jesus Christ upon earth, briefly explained and resolved ... Here he may have resigned shortly before 23 Jul 1660 when a successor was appointed. On 28 Mar 1661 he was ordained deacon and priest by Galloway. On 11 Jan 1661.2 after presentation by Charles Rich 4th Earl of Warwick 1616-1678 he was instituted rector of Leigh-on-Sea, Essex and subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 20 Aug 1662. He was still in office in Sep 1664 but likely died, aged about 43, shortly before 30 Aug 1667 when he was replaced in office. Flower may not have married.

What preferment he had conferr'd upon him by the visitors I know not: sure I am that he was soon after preacher of God's word at Ilmington in Warwickshire, and afterwards at Staunton in the county of Nottingham, where I find him in 1658, and that he was author of (1) The free and honourable Servant, set forth in his Privileges and Prerogatives, &c. On 15 February that year Flower was instituted to the sequestered rectory of Staunton, Nottinghamshire, perhaps on the presentation or through the influence of Colonel Edward Whalley, a moderate Independent and major-general in the east midlands. Several Queries Concerning the Church of Christ upon Earth, issued by 'John Flowre MA, preacher at Staunton in the County of Nottingham', was hostile to the gathering of churches in England and sympathetic to the reformed churches of Europe. Its preface to Whalley, dated 2 February 1658, recalls 'the countenance and many respects I have received from you'; a second preface is directed to 'my much esteemed friends and neighbours the inhabitants of the town and parish of Staunton'. On 23 July 1660 a successor was instituted at Staunton on presentation of the crown.

John Folkingham M.A. (parochial curate of Burton-upon-Trent) 1578-1656
Folkingham, christened on 7 Feb 1577.8 at Helpringham, was a son of Edmund Folkingham of Helpringham, Lincs c1543-.... He studied at Cambridge where he was a student at St John's College and matriculated about 1597. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1600.1 (M.A., 1604). During 1603 and 1604 he was a schoolmaster and stipendiary curate at St Ives, Hunts. On 12 Jul 1604 after presentation by the Crown he was instituted vicar of Weston, Lincs and on 17 Nov 1604 was licensed as a preacher throughout the diocese of Lincoln. At Weston a successor was instituted on 5 Nov 1607. He may have held an office at St Ives until 7 Jul 1611 when he was appointed parochial curate of Burton-upon-Trent. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister but appears to have left office by 25 Dec 1651. Folkingham died, aged 78, on 12 Jun 1656 and was buried at Burton. An inscribed monument read ... "Heere lyeth the body of John Folkington[?], who departed this lyfe, the 12th of June, 1656, in the 79th yeare of his age, having been minister of Burton 40 yeares and upwards. His wyfe Katherine lyes by him, who had nyneteen children." Folkingham married first about 1614 to Mary (d 1616) by whom he had 1 son. He married second about 15 Sep 1617 to Catherine Newlove of Stamford St Mary, Lincs by whom he had (at least) 7 sons and 5 daughters. William Folkingham M.A. (rector of North Piddle, Worcs) 1623-.... and Thomas Folkingham B.A. (? rector of Trusley, Derbys) 1630-.... were two of his sons. [NOTE: Folkingham had a younger brother William Folkingham of Stamford Baron, Northants gentleman 1583-1629 and is mentioned in William's will. In 1607 William was the general surveyor for Lincoln diocese, was sometime landlord of the Exeter Inn at Stamford and later the postmaster for Stamford. He was a considerable scholar and author of Feudigraphia. the synopsis or epitome of surveying methodized ... (1610); Brachigraphy, post-writ, or, the art of short-writing ... (1620); and Panala; ala catholica, or a compound ale ... (1623). In the latter book he writes "But let a neat huswife, or canny Alewright haue the handling of good Ingredients ... For you shall then have a neat Cup of nappie Ale (right Darbie, not Dagger Ale, though effectually animating) ..."]

WILLIAM FOLKINGHAM (1575-1629) belonged to a family which took its name from the small Lincolnshire town of Folkingham or Falkingham. One of three sons of Edmund Folkingham of Helpringham, a village near Folkingham, he was baptised on 15 January 1575 at Helpringham, and was apparently living there when he wrote his first book: "Feudigraphia: The Synopsis or Epitome of Surveying methodized". It was published in London with a dedication to William Lord Compton, afterwards Earl of Northampton, dated 6 June 1610. On 4 December 1613 he was married at Helpringham to Anne Newlove, of that parish, a widow. For some years after this he appears to have been the tenant of Exeter Inn, Stamford, and on 10 January 1615 was admitted to the freedom of the borough of Stamford. In 1620 he is found installed as postmaster of that town, his emoluments consisting of 25. a day. Folkingham was in the enjoyment of this office when his shorthand textbook was published, and a perusal of it shows that the range of his studies embraced mathematics, medicine and music. His tenure of the postmastership was probably of short duration, as the reference to "his Maiesties Post of on the title - page of the 1620 edition is omitted from that of the edition printed two years later. The book abounds in postal metaphors redolent of the king's highway, and the second edition is divided into "postages" and "stages". His next work, printed in 1623, was entitled "Panala, ala catholica, or A compound Ale: which is a generall Pvrge and generous... .... [INTERNET]

Thomas Ford M.A. (presbyterian minister of Harlaston) c1633-1678
Ford, born about 1633 at Willington, Derbys, is of unknown parentage. He was educated at Repton School. He studied at Cambridge where on 24 Jun 1651 he was admitted a sizar at Trinity College under "Dr. Hill" and matriculated that year. In 1652 he was a scholar. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1654 (M.A., 1658). Probably late in 1654, aged 21, he moved to Staffordshire where he appears to have trained to become presbyterian minister of Harlaston parochial curacy then (apparently) in the patronage of George Cross c1610-1665 (as presbyterian minister of Clifton Campville). On 21 Mar 1654.5 (although not aged 24) he was classically ordained as a presbyterian clergyman by the Derbyshire Wirksworth Classis at Wirksworth. His thesis was entitled An Christi obedientia tollat obedientiam Christianam. He may have been presbyterian minister at Harlaston for a short period but is then said to have "never settled in any Parsonage or Vicaridge, but preach'd under other Ministers for the space of Seven or Eight Years". In 1660 he was living at Netherseal, Leics. He may then have been appointed parochial curate of Church Gresley, Derbys but, if so, on 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to the Act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. In 1663 Thomas Bakewell c1619-p1677 and Ford preached at a conventicle at Burton-upon-Trent. For this offence they were both successfully prosecuted on 22 Oct 1663 at Lichfield Consistory Court. Bakewell was suspended from officiating in the diocese and Ford was excommunicated. Both then had to appear before a local J.P. - Sir Brian Broughton of Broughton in Eccleshall 1st Baronet 1618-1708 - to whom they both refused to give a security for their better behaviour. In a letter dated Nov 1663 Broughton wrote that when before the bishop "they were so saucy with him that the old priest told him he hoped one day to stand upon even ground with him. To prevent their meeting so numerously we convened them before me and demanded securities of the two parsons for their better behaviour for the future which they both refused to do, for which contempt they are committed to-day to the common gaol". On 9 Mar 1663.4 they were imprisoned at Stafford Gaol but released on 30 Sep 1664 without further imposition. Continuing to preach he was again committed to gaol at Derby together with another minister Timothy Staniforth c1629-1684. He may be the man of this name assessed on two hearths at Tutbury in 1665 and who in 1668 together with his wife as "sectaries not comeing to church" was presented by the churchwardens as excommunicated. In 1669 he was preaching at Burton-upon-Trent and Hanbury also at Mickleover and Stenson in Derbyshire. In May 1672, as of Horninglow in Burton-upon-Trent, he was licensed as a presbyterian teacher at the house of Richard Clarke in Burton-upon-Trent. On 3 Jul 1677 Thomas Minors of Lichfield mercer 1609-1677, a wealthy presbyterian, wrote his will and bequeathed " to Mr [blank] Ford (who was formerly imprisoned together with the said Mr Bakewell of Stafford[sic]) the summe of Tenn pounds ". Then living at Wetmore in Burton - Ford died, aged about 55, in late 1678.

Calamy records in 1713 the circumstances surrounding his death "by his extraordinary Pains upon a Day of Fasting and Prayer he broke a Vein, which brought him into a Consumption whereof he dy'd in a little Village, near Burton upon Trent." Ford was buried on 1 Dec 1678 at Burton-upon-Trent. His funeral sermon was preached by Richard Swinfen B.A. (presbyterian minister of Mavesyn Ridware) 1630-1691 on [St John 5:35] "he was a burning and a shining Light". His will made on 16 Oct 1678 was proved under Lichfield on 2 Mar 1678.9. The will makes mention of his property at Donisthorpe, Leics.
Ford married on 29 Sep 1658 at Polesworth, Warwicks to Judith Cross by whom he had 2 sons and 4 daughters. (1713) Griesly: Mr Thomas Ford: He was born at Willington in this County, and brought up at Repton-School where he profited in Learning beyond most of his Years. From thence he was sent to Cambridge and there settled in Trinity-College under the Care and Tuition of Dr. Hill. He was earlier than ordinary in Piety, in Learning, and in Preaching, upon which Work he entred at the Age of Twenty one; and that with the full Approbation both of judicious Divines and understanding Christians. The first Exercise of his Ministry was in the capacity of an Assistant to Mr George Cross of Clifton in Staffordshire, whose Sister he marry'd. He was a very lively, weighty, pertinent, and methodical Preacher. He was never settled in any Parsonage or Vicaridge, but preach'd under other Ministers for the space of Seven or Eight Years. He was at Seale in Liecestersire when King Charles came in, and there he was mention'd p. 367 of my former Edition; but he was Preaching at Griesly when the Bartholomew Act slew him, with so many others of his Brethren. But being civilly dead, and yet continuing to Speak both to God and Men in a Way forbidden by Human Laws tho' as he conceiv'd allow'd and approv'd of God, he together with another Minister, Mr Thomas Bakewel, was sent to Stafford Goal where they continu'd Prisoners for the time appointed. After which he ceased not by Day or by Night to Preach the Gospel, for which he was again apprehended, and committed Prisoner to Derby Goal in the Company of another Minister, Mr Timothy Staniforth. And fulfilling his time of Suffering there also, he still went on in his MASTER's Work as long as he was able. But as he began betimes so his Work was ended betimes: For by his extraordinary Pains upon a Day of Fasting and Prayer he broke a Vein, which brought him into a Consumption whereof he dy'd in a little Village, near Burton upon Trent, about the Year 1677. He was not allow'd to be bury'd in consecrated Ground. He was a hard Student, and a celebrated Preacher. His Memory is very precious to the Inhabitants of Burton and the Neighbouring Villages. (1727) Pag. 628 Burton upon Trent: Mr THOMAS BAKEWELL ... Being silenc'd he rented an House in the same Parish where he preach'd after Bartholomew Day In about half a Year's Time he was cited before Bishop Hacket and upon his appearing it was charg'd upon him as a Thing highly Criminal that he should preach in his own hired House and admit others to hear him there For this (notwithstanding his former Ejectment) the Bishop in open Court suspended him ab Officio and gave Order to one of the Clerks to send a Letter of Complaint to the Justices and Deputy Lieutenants In a little Time a Warrant was issu'd out from the Magistrates and sent by the Bishops Apparitor to the Constable at Burton extra He came with the Constable upon the Lord's Day while Mr Bakewell was preaching to see the Warrant executed upon him The Constable not only took him but also Mr Thomas Ford (an ejected Minister who fometimes preach'd in his own House at Winsell but was then an Auditor at Burton) and carried them before Sir Edward B----- who presently told them that they must either be bound to their good Behaviour or go to Prison Mr Bakewell desir'd to know whether preaching in his own House would be reckon'd a Breach of good Behaviour The Justice answer'd that it was Whereupon Mr Bakewell replied he would give no Bond to tie himself from preaching and Mr Ford concurr'd with him and they were both sent to the Jail where they were detain'd ten Weeks before the first Act pass'd against Conventicles [17 May 1664] and were then releas'd without having any Thing impos'd upon them ... [15 Mar 1672.3] Then he was earnestly desir'd to go to London [recte Longdon] to preach to a People who had been great Sufferers leaving Mr Ford to preach at Burton. [Calamy (1727) p775-7]

Anthony Fowke M.A. (rector of Enville) 1595-1658
Fowke, christened on 8 Mar 1594.5 at Codsall, was 3rd son of John Fowke of Gunstone in Brewood gentleman c1555-a1642 and Dorothy Cupper dau of John Cupper of Glympton, Oxon c1520-a1585.

He studied at Oxford where on he was a student at Queen's College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 7 Nov 1615 (M.A., 9 Jul 1618). He was presumably ordained deacon and priest before 23 Jul 1619 when, after presentation by (? his father) John Fowke on 3 Jul, he was instituted rector of Enville. By 1628 he was seriously mentally ill and in Jan 1633 was "begged for a lunatic" by his wife probably after a petition to the Court of Wards. During 1633 Edward Archer ?1614-1672 was appointed as a stipendiary curate at Enville to assist Fowke. In Jun 1638 he was appointed by the bishop of Lichfield as stipendiary curate-in-charge in loco Fowke. About a year later Archer had not received his salary of £40 pa and the Enville parishioners petitioned William Laud (archbishop of Canterbury) to arrange payment. Archer was probably still in office at Enville on 15 Feb 1641.2 but had left before 20 Jun 1643. From 5 Feb 1643.4 Fowke continued here as compliant minister probably still a lunatic. (In 1644 the rectory was valued at £160.) In 1651.2 Josiah Rock e1620-.... was in office as presbyterian assistant minister-in-charge (presumably) in loco Fowke. He was succeded in 1656 by Lancelot Bromwich 1627-1681 who succeded Fowke as presbyterian minister. Still in office Fowke died, aged 63, and was buried at Enville on 13 Nov 1658. He married perhaps about 1626 Frances Banbury (d 1653) by whom he had 1 daughter.

(?Jun 1639) 102. Petition of the parishioners of Envield [Enville], co. Stafford, to Archbishop Laud. Mr. Edward Archer, M.A., was, a year since, appointed by the Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry to officiate the cure of Envield, under Anthony Fowke, now rector, and has approved himself a painful minister and every way conformable, but has received nothing for his pains. Petitioners, understanding that Mrs. Frances Fowke, wife of the rector, has lately begged her husband for a lunatic (who has been so accounted these five years), beseech you to appoint Edward Archer coadjutor to the present incumbent. Petitioners fear that if Mr. Archer should leave them they should be as ill-served as before, the choice of the curate remaining in Mrs. Fowke. The last time the place was void she opposed Mr. Archer against the Bishop, Mr. Chancellor, and the parish, and sought to have brought in an unworthy man. Pray the Archbishop to assign Mr. Archer competent means out of the rectory, the parish being large and the living £160 per annum, which is not so well employed as it ought to be. Signed by thirteen petitioners. [SPD Charles I CCCCXXIV p357]

In a sermon preached on 26 November 1661 in Stafford, the Anglican clergyman Matthew Fowler held forth upon Proverbs 24:21, "My Son fear thou the LORD and the King: and meddle not with them that are given to change," and explained to his listeners and readers 155 385 Fowler, 10. 386 Ibid., 14. 387 Ibid., 14-16. their duty to show the proper reverence and obedience to the monarch. As the foundation of his submission argument, Fowler explained that duty to the prince was intrinsically connected to man’s relationship with God; refusing God’s choice for earthly rulers was tantamount to rejecting God himself: For all obedience to Magistrates, supreme or subordinate, is to be performed propter Deum, for Gods sake, 1 Pet. 2.13. So that not to reverence that Authority which God hath set over us, is not only an act of incivility and disloyalty, but of irreligion and Atheism; because in the contempt of that Authority, there is included a contempt of God, who did establish it.385

Robert Fowler (?presbyterian minister of Biddulph) e1618-....
Fowler, born perhaps about 1618, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He is not known to have been ordained as a deacon or priest before 1644 but was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 1649 when he was in office as ? presbyterian minister of Leek and was still there in 1653. By 10 Oct 1654 he was ?presbyterian minister of Biddulph and was still there on 6 Mar 1658.9. A successor was in office on 28 Feb 1660.1. (He is probably the man of this name who after presentation by Francis Newport 1st Earl of Bradford 1620-1708 was instituted as rector of Harley, Salop on 2 Sep 1662 - having subscribed to the Act of Uniformity on 15 Aug - but resigned before 5 Aug 1663.) On 24 Mar 1667.8 when his two sons were both admitted to St John's College, Cambridge Fowler was described as "of Leek Frith clerk". No further record has been discovered. Fowler married perhaps about 1648 to Elizabeth by whom he had 2 sons and 1 daughter. Elisha Fowler B.A. (rector of Shelve, Salop) c1649-1710 was his first son whilst his second son John Fowler B.A. c1651-.... was ordained deacon by Hereford on 22 Sep 1672.

Timothy Fox (presbyterian minister of Drayton Bassett) 1628-1710 G19

Fox, born on 12 Oct 1628 and christened the same day at Birmingham, was 5th son of Edward Fox of Birmingham, Warwicks mercer c1573-1640 and Elizabeth Greisbrooke dau and heir of Hugh Greisbrooke of Hints c1546-1617. He was educated at Aston, Warwicks under John Bryan and at Birmingham under Mr Billingsley. He studied at Cambridge where he was admitted as a pensioner at Christ's College on 23 Mar 1646.7 and matriculated in 1647.8 but did not graduate. About 1650 (although not aged 24) he was (apparently) classically ordained as a presbyterian minister by the Shropshire 4th (or Bradford North) Classis at Whitchurch. On 6 Jul 1650 he was presented by the Commissioners of the great seal as presbyterian minister of Drayton Bassett rectory in succession to John Buckberry M.A. ?1595-1649 whose daughter he married at Drayton Bassett on 26 Aug 1650. About 1650 he is said to have refused the Engagement but does not appear to have been removed from office. On 24 Feb 1651 when he compounded for first fruits his security was Thomas Fox of Tamworth doubtless his brother Thomas Fox 1623-1666 (sometime Colonel of the Parliamentary Army and M.P. for Tamworth). In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto rector. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of £1. On 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to The act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. Shortly afterwards he moved to Tamworth. Calamy records in 1702 "[He] was put upon a New way to maintain his Wife, and Five small Children, and upon the Advice of Friends, he was encourag'd to settle in a Corporation near to him, where by his Pen, and help of Relations, he had a comfortable Livelihood". Under The five mile act (31 Oct 1665), which prohibited nonconformist clergy from entering within five miles of parliamentary corporations such as Tamworth, he was forced to move. Fox then rented a farm in Derbyshire perhaps at Ticknall where he was living by 1672 when, as a presbyterian, he was licensed to preach at his own house and at any other licensed place and his house was licensed as a presbyterian meeting place. Many years later in May 1684 Fox visited Derby and under The five mile act was imprisoned there. Calamy records in 1713 "Yet afterwards he was imprison'd in Derby Goal upon that Act, being Apprehended, not in any Exercise of Religion, but only coming to see his Son an Apprentice in that Town: He was taken up immediately ... and continu'd a Prisoner till the November following. He was Confin'd a second time [about Feb 1684.5] in Chester Goal, (with several other neighbouring Ministers and Gentlemen) being carry'd thither without any Cause of their Imprisonment assign'd. After a Months Confinement he was discharg'd, giving £600 Security for his good Behaviour; that is, being himself bound in £200 and his two Sureties each of them in the like Sum." Fox had moved to Caldwell, Derbys by 1689 when his house was certified at Derbyshire Quarter Sessions as a place of worship. The Common Fund survey of dissenting ministers taken about 1690 has under Staffordshire the entry "Ministers that have a Competent Supply - Mr Tim: Fox - [ejected Minister] Of Drayton Bassett - able to goe abroad every Lords day 4. 5. or 6 miles for 9/0 or 7/0 pr day and horse hire paid out of it" and under Derbyshire two entries: (1) Ministers that have a competent supply - Mr Tim: Fox ... An aged Ejected minister preaches at Severall places and (2) Ministers that [?have] a Supply - Mr Tim: Fox ... An aged ejected minister, preaches once a mo at Hartshorn ... At Hartshorn he had a quarter part of a payment made to Richard Chantry QV. On 4 May 1691 he was reported as preaching at Appleby, Leics "one Sabbath in the month". Fox died, aged 82, on 30 May 1710 probably at Caldwell. His will made on 2 Apr 1707 was proved under Lichfield on 17 Nov 1710. His personalty was valued at £312/6/6 and included "Item Books in Study £10". Fox married first on 26 Aug 1650 at Drayton Bassett to Lettice Buckberry 1634-1665 dau of John Buckberry M.A. (rector of Drayton Bassett) ?1595-1649 QV by whom he had 4 sons and 3 daughters. He married second about 1670 to Frances Richardson c1642-1712 dau of John Richardson and widow of Francis Ward (parochial curate of Ticknall, Derbys) c1638-?1667 by whom he had 1 son and 2 daughters.

(1778) DRAYTON {rector} Mr Timothy Fox. Of Christ College, Cambridge when Dr S. Bolton was Master. He was born in Birmingham, in 1628, and had his school-learning there under Mr Billingsley. After some years spent at Cambridge, he was admitted by the then Commissioners of the Great Seal to the rectory of Drayton, in the room of Mr John Buckbury, deceased, and was ordained by Mr Thomas Porter, at Whitchurch in Shropshire. He was beloved in his parish, and though he refused the engagement, he continued till he was ejected by the Bartholomew act after which he was put upon a new way to maintain his wife and 5 small children. By the advice of friends he was encouraged to settle in a neighbouring corporation, where by his pen, and help of relations, he had a comfortable livelihood, till the Oxford act [The five mile act (31 Oct 1665)] forced him to remove and rent a farm in Derbyshire. But afterwards he was imprisoned in Derby jail upon that act, being apprehended, not in any exercise of religion, but only coming to see his son, an apprentice in that town. He was taken up immediately, before he sat down, and committed in May, 1684, and continued a prisoner till the November following. He was confined a second time, when Monmouth was in the West, in Chester jail, (with several other neighbouring ministers and gentlemen) without any cause of their imprisonment assigned. After a month's confinement he was dischargcd, he and his 2 sureties giving £600 security for his good behaviour. From the time of his ejectment he preached in private, as he had opportunity; and after public liberty was granted, he opened a meeting in his own house at Caldwell in Derbyshire where he preached twice a day gratis, besides catechising, &c. He died in a good old age, in May, 1710. [Calamy (1778) p394]

John Freckleton (parochial curate of Cheddleton) e1598-....
Freckleton, born perhaps about 1598, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was (presumably) ordained deacon and on 7 Apr 1623 ordained priest by Lichfield. That year after probable presentation by Lawrence Brandreth (vicar of Leek) e1589-1634 he was licensed parochial curate of Rushton and was still in office in 1634. By 1639 he had left and after probable presentation by Francis Bowyer (vicar of Leek) 1605-1648 had been licensed as parochial curate of Cheddleton and may have continued in office until (or after) 1641. No further record has been discovered.

Aug. 11. At Bishopstone, aged 56, Richard Lane Freer, D.D., Archdeacon of Hereford, Prelector of Hereford Cathedral, and rector of Bishopstone-cum-Yazor. He was the only surviving son of the Rev. Thomas Lane Freer, from 1835 till 1843 rector of Handsworth, near Birmingham. He was educated at Westminster School, to which he was always warmly attached, officiating as steward of the Old Westminsters' dinner in 1845, and signing the memorial (1847) to Dean Buckland in favour of the continuance of the Westminster Play, his constant attendance at which was the signal for a hearty welcome. In 1829 he was ordained deacon to his father's curacy at Handsworth, and in 1830 priest. In 1852 Bishop Hampden appointed him Archdeacon of Hereford, on the resignation of his aged relative, the Ven. Henry Wetherell, B.D., Canon of Gloucester, and rector of Thruston and Kentworth, Herefordshire. In 1861 he became Prelector of the Cathedral, vice the Rev. W. E. Evans, appointed a Canon Residentiary. He married, in 1848, Harriet, dau. of the Rev. J. Clutton, D.D., Canon of Hereford. Beside his first Charge, which was published, Archdeacon Freer published a volume of hymns, a sermon preached at the consecration of St. John's, Perry-bar (Handsworth), in 1833, and a farewell sermon at Handsworth in 1835. Richard Furnivall (parochial curate of Gayton) e1622-1672 H41
Furnivall, born perhaps about 1639, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably ordained deacon and priest before 1 Sep 1662 when he was in office as parochial curate of Cauldon. He appears to have resigned here before 1 Aug 1665 when he was in office as parochial curate of Gayton. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Gayton constablewick and was assessed on 2 hearths. Still in office he died, perhaps aged about 50, about Jul 1672 with burial requested at Gayton. His will made on 27 Jun 1672 was proved under Lichfield on 2 Aug 1672. His personalty was valued at £20/17/2. Furnivall married about 1652 to Sarah by whom he had 2 sons and 1 daughter.

Gilbert Gallamore M.A. (vicar of Colwich) c1585-1655
Gallamore, born about 1585 in Cheshire, is of unknown parentage. He studied at Oxford where on 3 Jun 1603 he was a student at Brasenose College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 7 Jul 1608 (M.A., 6 Jul 1615).
On 25 Sep 1608 he was ordained deacon and in 1610 ordained priest (both) by Chester. From about 1610 to 1614 he was parochial curate of Maer, on 26 Aug 1616 parochial curate of Burslem, in 1620 a stipendiary curate at Checkley and from 1622 to 1624 parochial curate of Stowe. On 11 Mar 1624.5, (? after presentation by the prebendary of Lichfield Colwich then Lewis Bayly (Bishop of Bangor) c1575-1631), he was instituted vicar of Colwich. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. From 1646 he sometimes received an augmentation of about £20 or £50 to his annual salary of £26. He likely resigned here - perhaps due to poor health - before 31 May 1654 when his successor was appointed. He died, aged about 70, and was buried at Colwich in Jan 1654.5. His will made on 8 Jan 1654.5 was proved under PCC on 20 Jun 1655. Gallamore married on 16 Feb 1625 at Weston-upon-Trent to Ann Litton dau of Rowland Litton of Litton, Derbys gentleman and widow of Thomas Whitby of Brine Pits in Weston-upon-Trent yeoman 1590-1623 (no known children). William Whitby of Lichfield gentleman 1616-1688 was Gallamore's stepson and the executor of his will; on his matriculation at Oxford on 4 Nov 1636 Whitby was described as son of "Gilbert, of Colwich, co. Stafford, sac.".

(1915) 7 Galamore, Gallimore. M.A. 1615 Brasenose College, Oxford, born in co. Ches. (Foster). Probably minister at Maer 1610-14, at Checkley c1620, at Stowe by Chartley 1622-4. On 7 Oct 1646 the committee for plundered ministers found that this vicarage was but worth £26 pa, so it granted him an augmentation of £21 pa out of this impropriate rectory, i.e. the prebend of Colwich. Further orders for the payment of this augmentation were made in 1648. (BodlMS 323 p359; 325 p221a, 221b). In 1649 he was paid at the rate of £22 pa (Shaw II p543). On 28 May 1651 the committee (? for the reformation of the universities) states that on 7 Oct 1646 the aforenamed committee had granted him an augmentation of £50 pa and orders that this £50 augmentation should be continued. (SionMS p495; cf LMS 976 p325). On 3 Mar 1653 a further increase of £20 was granted to Galamore by the trustees. (LMS 975 p352) . [SHC 1915 p76-7]

Henry Gilbert B.A., B.C.L. (rector of Clifton Campville) 1608-1664
Gilbert, christened on 6 Mar 1607.8 at Alrewas was 5th son of Thomas Gilbert of Fradley in Alrewas gentleman c1554-.... and Elizabeth Wilson dau of Thomas Wilson of Alrewas. He studied at Oxford where on 8 Jul 1625 he was admitted as a commoner at Oriel College and on 3 Feb 1625.6 matriculated. On 24 Dec 1627 he was admitted to the Middle Temple. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 10 Feb 1628.9 and B.C.L. on 14 Mar 1631.2. On 6 Aug 1632 he was ordained deacon and priest by Oxford in University College chapel. On 1 Sep 1632 - after presentation by Thomas Coventry 1st Baron Coventry c1578-1640, Sir Richard Shilton and Hugh Dashfeild - he was insituted rector of Clifton Campville and on 7 Nov paid first fruits. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. On or before 7 Aug 1646 the Committee for plundered ministers sequestered him - presumably as a committed anglican and on 20 Jan 1646.7 his wife Elizabeth was granted a fifth. On 22 Apr 1647 George Cross M.A. c1610-1665 was appointed presbyterian minister of Clifton Campville. Shortly afterwards Gilbert wrote a letter "Neighbours of Clifton, If you are resolved to pay your Tithes to Crosse, who hath no Right unto them by the known Laws of the Kingdom, and who hath by Violence and the Committee's Power thrust me out of my own Freehold and Rectory; I desire you, more for your own Security than my own Advantage, to be careful to tie him unto such Conditions, and upon so good Bail, that, when the Laws shall once again recover their Force, you may come to no Damage for your own Particulars, nor I may be moved to use such Extremities against you which the Law of the Kingdom (I doubt not) will One Day afford me: And, possessing myself with Hope and Patience, I rest "Your loving Friend and Parson, Henry Gilbert." On 24 Sep 1647 the letter was read to the House of Lords who ordered that Gilbert "shall be brought before this House, as a Delinquent, to answer the same." On 4 Mar 1647.8 he was be cleared of delinquency and in 1649 as of Whatley, Warwicks compounded for delinquency "for going into Lichfield garrison" and was fined a sixth of £110 on land in Montgomeryshire. His son John later stated that his father "gave some hundreds to the King & several trunks of linen to the Queen, £700 towards raising Lord Loughborough's regiment, £1,500 to Lichfield garrison" and that his mother said that he "lost above £10,000.". Walker recorded in 1714 "His Temporal Estate ... of £200 a Year, was put under Sequestration. He was also several times Plundered, and underwent divers Imprisonments; once more particularly, in Covenery-Jayl, where the Plague then was; which he had, but by the Providence of God, surviv'd it. He was moreover oftentimes Assaulted, and in continual Danger of his Life. He had then a Wife and Eight or Nine Children. The Whole of his Losses were computed at £10,000. In 1660 in a petition to the House of Lords for restoration to Clifton Campville he stated that he was plundered, imprisoned in several prisons, paid great sums for his release and that Cross did not pay the fifth. About Sep 1660 he was restored in office and thus displaced Cross. On 9 Jan 1661.2 he paid a subsidy of £1 and subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 11 Aug 1662. In Nov 1663 he was licensed as a preacher. Still in office Gilbert, died aged 56, and was buried at Clifton Campville on 22 Sep 1664. Gilbert married first about 1634 to Mary Sanders 4th dau of Thomas Sanders of Lullington, Derbys c1545-.... gentleman by whom he had 1 son. He married second about 1644 to Elizabeth Halse by whom he had 5 sons and 3 daughters.

Thomas Gilpin M.A. (independent curate of Willenhall) c1608-1691 H42
Gilpin, born about 1608, was a son of John Gilpin of Stony Stratford, Bucks "gentleman". He studied at Oxford where on 20 Oct 1626 he was a student at Magdalen Hall and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 3 Feb 1629.30 (M.A., 25 Oct 1632). On 20 Sep 1635 he was ordained deacon by Lincoln and on 4 Jun 1637 ordained priest by Peterborough. On 21 Apr 1637 after presentation by Sir Thomas Hyde of Aldbury, Herts 2nd Baronet c1594-1665 he was instituted rector of Albury, Herts. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister but was ejected before 14 Jun 1645. By 1650 Gilpin had moved to the Wolverhampton area and appears to have lived there for the rest of his life. In early Jun 1660 he was not in an office. He was, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660) restored as rector of Albury in 1660 and subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 21 Jul 1662. At Albury he may have resigned before 1665 when after probable presentation by the lords of the manor of Stow Heath he was in office as independent curate of Willenhall. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Willenhall constablewick but was not assessed there. On 18 Nov 1674, apparently after his parishioners complained of his non-residence and other misbehaviour, he was removed by the lords of the manor of Stow Heath. Gilpin died, aged about 83, and was buried on 12 Sep 1691 at Tettenhall. He married on 14 May 1650 at Tettenhall to Elizabeth Lee (d 1681) by whom he had 5 sons and 2 daughters. Bernard Gilpin (vicar of Bushbury) 1668-1726 was one of his sons. [NB: In 1642 William Gilpin of Albury, Herts gentleman made a will in which he mentions his land in Wednesbury and both a brother Thomas Gilpin and a cousin Thomas Gilpin.]

An old book in the Registry at Windsor (without date) contains this entry:— ... The curacy of Willenhall is endowed with land to the value of £35. The lords of Stow Heath have, in the last two vacancies, usurped upon the Dean and Chapter, and have nominated to it. ... Shaw, the county historian, writing in 1798, after stating that whoever holds the Curacy of Willenhall must have a licence from the Dean of Wolverhampton, proceeds to say:—... of a curate. .... The gift of the living (says the same authority), or nomination of the minister or curate, is in the principal inhabitants that have lands of inheritance here. He is to be approved of by the lords of the manor, and admonished by them when he does amiss; and if he does not amend in half a year, they may turn him out and nominate another. .... This practice is believed to have existed in Willenhall since the time of James I. [INTERNET]

The Free grammar school was founded in 1557, by Geoffrey Glynn, LL.D., advocate of the court of Arches, and brother to Dr. William Glynn, Bishop of Bangor. He bequeathed the friary house, with its appurtenances, and all his lands in North Wales and elsewhere, in trust to the Bishops of Bangor and Rochester, and their successors, for its foundation and endowment; also £400 in money, to be invested in the purchase of land, of the yearly value of £20, to be divided equally among ten poor scholars on the foundation. Henry Goche D.D. (rector of Cheadle, Staffs) 1581-....
Goche, christened on 17 Dec 1581 at Lamberhurst, Kent, was a younger son of Barnaby Goche of Alvingham, Lincs gentleman c1540-1594 and Mary Darrell dau of Thomas Darrell of Scotney Castle by Lamberhurst, Kent. He studied at Cambridge where about 1596 he was a pensioner at Trinity College and matriculated. In 1599 he was a scholar. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1600.1 (M.A., 1604) (B.D.) 1620 (D.D., lit. reg.) cMar 1626.7. In 1602 he was elected a fellow and in 1618 appointed senior proctor. On 4 Mar 1609.10 he was ordained deacon and priest by London at the bishop's palace. On 23 Dec 1612 after presentation by Magdalen College, Cambridge he was instituted rector of Longstanton St Michael, Cambs but probably resigned in 1626. In Mar 1626.7 he accompanied Sir Dodmore Cotton c1590-1628 on an embassy to Persia. Cotton died on 23 Jul 1628 at Cazbyn and "Doctor Gech his Lordship's Chaplain buried him". Goche returned to England in 1629. On 24 Sep 1630 after presentation by Trinity College, Cambridge he was instituted rector of Cheadle. About Jul 1638 after a dispensation for plurality (for three years) and presentation by the Crown (both 3 Jul) he was, plurally, instituted rector of Pulham, Dorset. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued as compliant minister in both parishes ~~but under An act against the enjoying of pluralities ... (16 Jan 1642.3) was required to resign one of them.~~ He was probably then living at Pulham and is said to have "wholly deserted" Cheadle about Dec 1644. Here he was sequestered by the Committee for compounding before 5 Jun 1645 and his wife was subsequently granted a fifth. A later writer states "He was promised some Allowance out of his Living, but could never get it.". At Pulham he appears to have been sequestered before 10 Feb 1646.7 when his wife and children having been "left by him" were granted a fifth which was paid until 20 Apr 1649. Goche married perhaps about 1630 to Elizabeth by whom he had some children. A parliamentary news-sheet of Jul 1645 mentions him as "a Gentleman Subject to mistakes; when he took the Manciples [an officer's] daughter of Trinity-Colledge in Cambridge, instead of a Wife; but made it good afterward in taking her to Wife". No further record (of him or his family) has been discovered. Barnabe Goche LL.D. of Exeter gentleman c1566-1626 sometime master of Magadalene College and chancellor of Worcester and Exeter dioceses was an older brother who wrote in his will of 1624 "my brother Henry Goche is indebted unto me in the somme of £150 I forgive him the debt".

[ODNB, as Barnabe Googe] The two were married on 5 February 1564 only after Googe had enlisted Cecil and Archbishop Parker to overcome opposition from the Darrell family. In the same thirteenth-century psalter (now in Magdalene College, Cambridge) as he notes his own birth date, Googe also notes that of his wife (5 September 1545) and the baptism dates of three of their nine children: Robert, 2 January 1567, Barnabe, 18 September 1569, and Anne, 4 November 1573. From 1564 on Googe lived in Kent with his family, but in 1582 he wrote of his daily attendance on Cecil.

Barnabe GOOCHE or GOOGE. Matric. pens. from CHRIST'S, May, 1555. B. at Alvingham, Lincs., c. 1540. S. of Robert, recorder of Lincoln. Migrated to New College, Oxford. Removed thence to Staple Inn. A kinsman and retainer of of Sir William Cecil, who employed him in Ireland. Appointed Provost Marshal of the Presidency Court of Connaught, 1582-5. Of Lamberhurst, Kent. Poet and scholar. His works include a translation of Heresbach's Four Books of Husbandrie. Died Feb. 1593-4. Father of Barnabas (1582) and Henry (1596). (Peile, I. 56; D.N.B.) [VENN]
Googe married Mary Darrell, one of the nine children of Thomas Darrell, esquire, of Scotney Castle, Kent, by his second wife, Mary Roydon, daughter of Thomas Roydon, esquire, of Roydon Hall (or Fortune) in East Peckham, Kent.[21] Correspondence survives on the subject of Googe's marriage with Mary Darrell, whose father, Thomas Darrell, refused Googe's suit on the ground that she was bound by a previous contract to Sampson Lennard (1545 – 20 September 1615), son of John Lennard of Chevening, Kent. More to the point, recent research has shown that Thomas Darrell was a recusant who harboured Jesuit priests in his manor house of Scotney, near Lamberhurst in Kent. When Googe found his suit discouraged by Thomas Darrell, he appealed to his powerful contacts, and after intervention by his 'near kinsman', Sir William Cecil,[20] the marriage duly took place in 1564 or 1565; Googe took his wife to live in Lamberhurst at the manor house of Chingley. They had seven sons, Matthew (c.1566-c.1624), Thomas (b.c.1568), Barnabe, William, Henry, Robert and Francis, and a daughter, Mary. [WIKIPEDIA]

Barnabe and Ann Gooche (chn of brother Thomas) ... my brother Henry Goche is indebted unto me in the somme of £150 I forgive him the debt ... nephew Barnabe Goche son of Mathew ... wife Elizabeth [executor] Following the adjournment, in November 1624, Gooch filed a complaint in Chancery concerning an annuity of £40 which had been granted to him by a late kinsman and was being withheld.80 He was not elected to the 1625 Parliament. In April 1625 he surrendered his possession of the house he held of the dean and chapter of Exeter, but having spent £400 on its repair he retained an interest in the property.81 He died childless at Louth, in Lincolnshire, on 29 Jan. 1626. In his will, which was drawn up on 29 Oct. 1624, he left the place of his burial to his widow, Elizabeth, and bequeathed a total of £680 to his six nephews. Some of the lands which he had recently purchased in and around Alvingham were to be set aside for his step-daughter, Pascha, while the rest of his Lincolnshire properties were to be conferred on his widow for her lifetime. Gooch further instructed that, after Elizabeth’s death, the income from her share of the Lincolnshire lands, amounting to £24 p.a., was to be used to maintain two fellowships at Magdalene College, whose holders were to read civil law, even though the college statutes permitted fellows to study only divinity. After Elizabeth’s death, the fellowships were established in accordance with Gooch’s wishes, but the revenues to sustain them were paid for only one year. Thereafter, as one modern authority has observed, Dr. Gooch’s fellows proved to be ‘an embarrassment to Magdalene’.82

Goulden, born perhaps about 1639, was probably of Irish parentage. He claimed to have studied at Dublin where perhaps about 1658 he would have been a student at Trinity College but did not graduate. Goulden had been appointed lay reader at Ipstones by 1 Aug 1665 when he was "noted as excommunicated". In Sep 1665 as a literate he was ordained deacon and licensed as a preacher (both) by Lichfield and also after probable presentation by the vicar of Leek then George Roades c1627-1695 QV licensed parochial curate of Ipstones. In 1665 he did not certify the hearth tax for Ipstones and was not assessed there. He had been replaced in office by 23 Nov 1676. Goulden may not have married.

Grace, born about 1639, was ?1st son of William Grace M.A. (vicar of Shenstone, Staffs) c1609-1699 and Joan. He studied at Cambridge where on 13 Jun 1660 he was admitted a sizar at Trinity College and matriculated. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. 1663.4 (M.A., 1668). On 16 Dec 1664 he was ordained deacon and on 21 May 1665 ordained priest (both) by Lichfield. On 3 Oct 1665 after presentation by the Crown he was instituted vicar of Shenstone. He succeded Michael Walford c1603-1665 QV who died Sep 1665. He in turn had succeded Robert's father William Grace who was ejected in 1662 but lived on at Shenstone. Still in office Robert died, aged 88, and was buried here on 14 Sep 1727. His will made on 12 Feb ?1726.7 was proved under Lichfield on 4 Nov 1727. His personalty was valued under £20. Grace married 4 Jan 1672.3 at Shenstone to Elizabeth Silvester (d 1728) dau and coheir of Rowland Silvester of Shenstone, Staffs yeoman by whom he had 2 sons and 4 daughters. In Jun 1697 Robert called his father "the most conformable person in his parish at prayers and receiving the sacrament". Job Grace M.A. (Treasurer of Lichfield) c1644-1719 was a younger brother.

(16 Dec 1736 Conveyance for a year from Silvester Grace of Birmingham, brassfounder, and Robert Grace his son, to Samuel Wollaston of Lichfield, gent., of a tenement and land at Shenston. - ref. - date: 16 December 1736 [Birmingham City Archives MS 3071/Acc 1904-008/183846])
It is recorded of the Reverend Robert Grace, that he was the incumbent at this place 58 years ; and that Rowland Smith, his clerk, held his office upwards of 57 years ; the present clerk has had it 30 years ... Robert Grace is called the vicar of this parish at the time of his marriage, January 4, 1672-3 ; which, no question, his father resigning for that purpose, the benefice was by the crown conferred upon him ; and if he had possession of it before the death of archbishop Sheldon, which happened in 1667, in all likelihood he would, when the tenderness of his father's conscience would not allow him to keep it, procure it for him . In 1692, the reverend Robert Grace paid 4s. poll-tax for himself, his wife, and two children . He or his children sold lands, and a messuage, to the late John Dolphyn, esq. To him also belonged the estate called the Ashcrofts, near the village of Shenstone, by Elizabeth Sylvester his wife, daughter and coheir of Rowland Sylvester, of Shenstone. He had six children, Sylvester, Samuel, Elizabeth, Sarah, Hannah, and Mary, who died unmarried October 23, 1718, aged 20 . Hannah was wife of Christopher Colier, gent. and, besides the children aforesaid, had a son, Christopher Samuel, baptized January 18, 1726-7, who died in the February following. Sarah was wife of John Carteret, of Sutton Coldfield, and had an only child, Mary, living in 1768, who married thrice ; I. to John Broohall, of Tilstock in Salop, and had issue Mary, deceased, Anne, and Martha; 2. to Vincent, brother of John Broomhall, by whom she had John, Vincent, and William ; 3. to William Chetel . Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Robert Grace, was wife of Thomas Hayward, of Alkington hall in Salop, by whom she had four daughters, Grace, Elizabeth, Mary, and Sarah . Samuel, second son of Robert, died about 1714, aged 27, unmarried . Sylvester was of Birmingham, had many children, who all died young, except as follows; 1. Robert, who married and settled in America ; 2 . Sarah, wife of Henry Churchill, brother to John Churchill, of Hintz in Staffordshire, by whom she had one son, James ; 3 Anne, wife of Edward Pool, who had three children ; all dead. Sylvester Grace died in January 1757 . Elizabeth died August 23, 1728, buried 31, surviving her husband, the reverend Robert Grace, somewhat more than a year ; for he died September 25, 1727, aged 88, with the character of good man, and a truly worthy divine. His tomb-stone hath an inscription upon it, which confirms his being vicar 58 years. [Sanders "History and Antiquities of Shenstone, Staffordshire"]
GRACE, WILLIAM. vicar of Shenstone, Staffs. 1662. ... Son Robert, V. of Shenstone, called his father, June 1697, 'the most conformable person in his parish at prayers and receiving the sacrament' : [Calamy Rev. p231]

William Grace M.A. (compliant minister of Shenstone) ?1609-1699 G20
Grace, born about 1609 (? and christened on 29 Feb 1608.9 at Desford), was probably 3rd son of Thomas Grace of Desford, Leics c1561-.... and Joan (Greene). He studied at Cambridge where at Easter 1627 he was a sizar at Clare College and matriculated. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1629.30 (M.A., 1633). He was presumably ordained deacon and priest before 11 or 20 May 1635 when after presentation by the Crown (on 15 Apr) he was instituted vicar of Shenstone. Shortly after 5 Feb 1643.4 he was appointed compliant minister of Rearsby rectory, Leics in succession to the rector Cadwallader Jones c1618-?1676 who had refused to sign the Solemn league and covenant and was consequently removed. At Shenstone he may have jointly continued as compliant minister but Arthur Walker e1614-.... QV is said to have been in office here cJan 1651.2 and on 20 Jul 1655 Gamaliel Tunstall ?1629-1668 QV was admitted as presbyterian minister. Whilst at Rearsby Grace was on 3 Jun 1658 an Assistant Commissioner for the ejection of scandalous ministers in Leicestershire and in 1658 and 1659 signed the Leicestershire Addresses to Richard Cromwell. Here he was described as "a serious humble grave Person well esteemed of by his Parish but especially by Major Hubbart and his Family for the Holiness of his Life and his edifying Preaching." In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto rector of Rearsby but was displaced from office when by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660) Jones was restored as rector in 1660 and (again) instituted on 2 Nov 1660. At about the same time, probably by the same act, Grace was restored as vicar of Shenstone and may have displaced Tunstall who was still in office in 1659. However Calamy records in 1713 that " [Tunstall] was not a Non conformist but Ejected for a scandalous Life." At Shenstone Grace paid a clerical subsidy of 5/0 in Jan 1661.2 but on 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to the Act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. Pearse writes in 1683:

> "Mr. Grace, upon his Ejectment from his Living, on which he lived comfortably, was with his Wife and eleven Children reduced to Straits. Hoping to get some Supplies of Maintenance, he took a Farm of about Thirty Pounds per an. ... He was in a short time after his other Troubles, apprehended by Justices, and, with many of his Hearers, bound over, which was very chargeable. Not long after, he was sent for by a Party of Horse, called out of his Bed, and carried Prisoner to Stafford, for what he knew not, nor was ever told. He being unable to bear the Charge of his imprisonment, made application to the Deputy-Lieutenants, was forced to give in Bond of a hundred Pounds, to appear when called. He was dismissed, after many hard Speeches, but no Charge laid against him."

In 1665 he was assessed on 4 hearths at Footherly in Shenstone. That year he was presented by the churchwardens for holding conventicles in his house. Under The five mile act (31 Oct 1665), which prohibited nonconformist clergy from entering within five miles of parliamentary corporations such as Lichfield (which Shenstone bordered) he was forced to move "five Miles from the Corporation, to a Place where he lived at great Costs and Charges, separated from his dear Relations, and his Farm left to the management of Servants, which proved exceedingly to his Loss. He moved to Syston, Leics where he paid hearth tax in 1666. About this time he paid a visit to Lichfield "but the Zeal of some [at Lichfield] growing so hot, that one Mr. Grace, an aged worthy Minister, coming to Town, they made search for him, which he escaped, leaving his Horse in his Inn, and escaping on foot ..." In 1669 he was a teacher of a presbyterian conventicle held at Rearsby, Leics which attracted about 20 worshippers and on 10 Jun 1672 was licensed as a presbyterian teacher at the house of John Panell of Rugeley. He then returned to Shenstone. In his will written on 3 Jul 1677 Thomas Minors of Lichfield mercer bequeathed £10 to "Mr William Grace senior of Shenston". The Common Fund survey of dissenting ministers taken about 1690 has under Staffordshire the entry " Ministers that have a Competent Supply - Mr Wm Grace - [ejected Minister] Of Shenston - but the entry is scored out. A second entry reads "Ministers that may want a Supply - mr Grace ejected - At Shenston, is blind and Indigent, can goe noe where to preach." Whilst at Shenstone he did receive (1690-9) £5 pa from the Common Fund. In Jun 1697 his son Robert (then vicar of Shenstone) called his father "the most conformable person in his parish at prayers and receiving the sacrament". Grace died, aged about 90, on 6 Nov 1699 and was buried at Shenstone on 10 Nov. His son Job erected a monument to his parents in the church (below). Grace married on 23 Jun 1635 at Newton Regis, Warwicks to Joan Wolley c1617-1669 dau of Thomas Wolley of Newton Regis/Newton in the Thistles, Warwicks "gentleman" c1587-1635 (and Joyce Purefoy dau of Francis Purefoy of Caldecote, Warwicks gentleman c1564-1613) by whom he probably had 8 sons and 3 daughters. Joan's family had influential relations. Her father Thomas was a kinsman (probably a first cousin) of Gilbert Sheldon (archbishop of Canterbury) 1588-1677. Her mother Joyce was a sister of William Purefoy of Caldecote, Warwicks gentleman c1584-1659 who was a prominent parliamentarian and a regicide and also a cousin of both Henry Grey 10th Earl of Kent 1594-1651 and his sister "Lady" Magdalen Grey (wife of John Browne of Stretton-en-le-Field, Leics c1581-1669) who were the children of her aunt Joyce Purefoy (wife of Anthony Grey 9th Earl of Kent 1557-1643). Calamy records in 1727 "[Grace] was nearly related to Archbishop Sheldon to whom Applications were made for his poor distress'd Family but no Relief could be obtained there unless Mr Grace would conform which if he would yield to great Things were promis'd But this mov'd him not to act against his Conscience Some time after (I am inform'd) the Bishop recover'd so much Humanity as to take some Care o' two of the Children". A later writer records "[Grace's sons] Job and Robert were educated at the expence of [? the family of] Henry Grey, earl: of Kent, their relation on the mother's side, who also sent them to the university of Cambridge, and supported them there seven years, till they had taken their degrees of Master of Arts. ... The reverend William Grace had also three daughters, who fell, likewise into good hands, for lady Magdalen, sister of Henry earl of Kent, ... in the time of their father's distress, took them under her protection either till her death, or till some provision was made for them, and [they] married ...". Two of Grace's sons became anglican clergymen: Robert Grace M.A. (vicar of Shenstone) c1639-1727 and Job Grace M.A. (treasurer of Lichfield) c1641-1719.

He being unable to bear the Charge of his imprisonment, made application to the Deputy-Lieutenants, was forced to give in Bond of a hundred Pounds, to appear when called. He was dismissed, after many hard Speeches, but no Charge laid against him. After these Troubles, he was by the Five-Mile-Act necessitated to remove five Miles from the Corporation, to a Place where he lived at great Costs and Charges, separated from his dear Relations, and his Farm left to the management of Servants, which proved exceedingly to his Loss. (1778) [SHENSTONE] SHENSTON {vicar} Mr William Grace. {This is evidently the person mentioned before at Reresby in Leicestershire, of whom Dr C. gives this further account from the Conformists 4th Plea, page 61} An aged worthy minister. Upon his ejectment, having a wife and 11 children, he was reduced to straits, and for a maintenance took a farm of about £30 per annum, preaching in his own house, for which he was soon apprehended by 2 justices, and with many of his hearers bound over, which was very chargeable. Not long after he was sent for by a party of horse, called out of his bed, and sent prisoner to Stafford; for what, he knew not. Being unable to bear the charge of his imprisonment, he made his application to the Deputy Lieutenant, and was forced to give in bonds of £100 to appear when called. He was dismissed after many hard speeches, but no charge laid against him. After all which he was necessitated, by the 5-mile-act [Five-Mile Act OR Oxford Act (1665)], to remove to a place where he lived at great charges, separated from his dear relations, and his farm left to the management of servants, to his unspeakable loss; yet this person was a near relation of Archbishop Sheldon of Canterbury. [Calamy (1778) p402-3]

(1778) [REARSBY, LEICS] REARESBY {Rector, £140} Mr William Grace. He was a serious, humble, grave person; well esteemed by his parish, especially by Major Hubbart and family, for the holiness of his life and his edifying preaching. He had a great many children, who, with their parents, were reduced to great want. He was nearly related to Archbishop Sheldon, to whom applications were made for his poor distressed family; but no relief could be obtained there, unless Mr Grace would conform; which if he would yield to, great things were promised: but this moved him not to act against his conscience. Some time after the Bishop recovered so much humanity, as to take some care of two of his children. [Calamy (1778) p128]

(1794) T~~he family of the Graces long resided in Shenstone and Wood- end ; the first I find of this branch was John, who, in the reign of James 1. married Patience, daughter of John Meynel, a royalist captain of foot, whose son I take to be~~ William Grace, A. M. who was ejected from the rectory of Reresby in Leicestershire. He was nearly related to Sheldon, bishop of London, afterwards archbishop of Canterbury, to whom applications were made for him, but no relief could be obtained there, unless Mr. Grace would conform ; which if he would yield to, great matters were promised, but this moved him not to act against his conscience. Some time after, it is said by Dr. Calamy, that "the archbishop recovered so much humanity as to take some care of two of his children" .The reverend Michael Walford, vicar of Shenstone, died in September 1665 ; and, as I do not find Mr. Grace mentioned before this period, I conclude he succeeded him as vicar, especially as the present Mr. Colier, who is descended from him,. agree agrees with me, that he succeeded Mr. Walford . If so, Mr. Grace must either have been favoured, or have conformed. Besides the tradition of the family, we are assured from the inscription upon his monument, that he was vicar of Shenstone, In 1662 was passed the Act of Uniformity of Public Prayers, and the Administration of the Sacrament ; by which every minister was obliged, on pain of lofing all his ecclesiastical pre er ments, to conform to the worship of the Church of England, according to the new book of Common Prayer, before the Feast of St. Bartholomew next, from whence it was called the Bar tholomew Act. Every clergyman was also compelled to sign a declaration of his unfeigned assent and consent to all, and every thing contained and prescribed in and by the Book of Common Prayer ; and all were obliged to sign a declaration, in which. they promised to conform to the Liturgy of the Church of England, but likewise to renounce the folemn league and co venant, declaring it to be an unlawful. oath, and imposed upon the subjects against the known. laws and liberties of the king dom .. None, must presume to consecrate and administer the holy sacrament of the Lord's -Supper before they were ordained priests by: episcopal ordination, on the penalty of one hundred pounds for every ossence. Not submitting to this act of parliament Mr. William Grace was, with about twº thousand other ministers, outed of his preferments. Bishop Sheldon pressed strongly the execution of this law, and therefore it may be imagined he would hear nothing in behalf of this his kinsman ; yet it seems, from Dr. Calamy's account, something was done for his children, if he did not also procure for him this benefice . This William; A. M. married Joanna, daughter of Woolley, esq. of Newton hall in the. Thistles, Leicestershire, nearly related to the Sheldons, and had issue seven sons and three daughters ; 1. Job ; 2. Robert ; 3. Jonathan ; 4. Joseph ; 5. Thomas ; 6. Benjamin, born ' 1650-1 ; 7. William : the daughters were, 1. Joan, or Joanna, married the 27th of February, 1665, to Thomas Potte of Weeford Hall, son of Charles Potte, who died at Weeford, 1716, aged 93, by Elizabeth his wife, who died there in 1693 ; which Charles was descended from John Potte, witness to a deed ofRobert Le Lynns in Shenstone, conveying lands in Aldershaw to William New port, esq. in 1430, 8 Henry VI. Joanna Potte died March 4, and was buried the 6th, 1728-9, aged 91 . Elizabeth, her daughter, married Scott, and was buried here October 29, 1729, aged 64 ; 2. Priscilla, wife of Thomas Colier, of Lynne, who had several children ; 3. Jemima Elizabeth, wife of Robert Greisbrook, of Shenstone, gentleman, had issue Thomas t, son of Mr. Wiliam Grace by Mary his wife, who had a son, Wil liam, born 1683-4, who died 1685, and two daughters ; Eliza beth, born 1681, and died in

1691 ; and Mary, who died in 1691, August 5. Mary, wife of Thomas, died in 1691, in which year he was churchwarden ; he died at Wood - end in March 1728, leaving Sarah, wife of Samuel Jackson of Austrey in Warwickshire ; which Sarah survived her husband, and came to Wood -end, where the died about 1753. They had three daughters ; Mary, Frances, and Jane, who all died unmarried. William or Jonathan, and Joseph, were eminent tradesmen in London (one of them, besides other children, had Thomas, living in 1767, in Leicestershire, ģent.). These were the two * Thomas Potte in 1667, then of Shenstone, paid 15. 2d . to the royal aid quar terly. And, indeed, Archbishop Sheldon took more than ordinary care of them, giving them a good education, and providing not a maintenance only for them, but trades in which, with his farther aid,, they acquired fortunes. Job and Robert were educated at the expence of Henry Grey, earl: of Kent, their relation on the mother's side, who also sent them to the university of Cambridge, and supported them there seven years, till they had taken their degrees of Master of Arts. Job was afterwards vicar of Watford in Northamptonshire, and treasurer of the cathedral church af Lichfield . He married; and had issue two daughters ; Anne; who died unmarried, and Penelope, who married 1. to - Vyse, of Mulnameeze in Stassordshire ; gent, but had no child by him ; 2. to Thomas, second brother of Sir Robert Clerk, knight, of Watford, by whom the had two, sons and one daughter ; Frances; wife of Booker, of the city of Perterborough in Northamptonshire . The sons were George, and Job, who was in trade, and died young. George was in holy orders; became chaplain to Sir Thomas Cave, bart. and died. at Watford . Penelope Clerk, their mother, died at Peter borough in 1763. The reverend William Grace had also three daughters, who fell, likewise into good hands, for lady Magdalen, sister of Henry earl of Kent, {fn. Wife of John Brown, of Stretton in the Fields, co. Leic. and Derby} in the time of their father's distress, took them under her protection either till her death, or till some provision was made for them, and married as aforesaid.This William, the vicar, was buried in this church November 10, 1699, in a good old age, being upwards of ninety, as ap pears from the inscription upon his tomb- ftone, fet up in me *. mor mory of him by the reverend Job Grace, his son, vicar of Watford . Charles Caspar Graves was born in Mickleton, Gloucestershire, a son of an antiquary. He was educated at Magdalen College Oxford and became friendly with the Wesleys, spending three months with Charles Wesley at Stanton Harcourt. However, two years after the Wesleys left for Georgia, Graves was removed from College on the grounds of insanity and in 1740 he was persuaded by his friends to sign a paper denouncing the Methodists. Regardless of the denunciation, Graves maintained contact with the Wesleys and commenced an open-air preaching ministry. In 1742 he accompanied Charles Wesley to Donnington Park and later contributed to the spread of the revival in West Yorkshire. Graves became vicar of Ocbrook in Derbyshire [COX has a William Greaves appointed vicar in 1734] and John Wesley preached in his church in 1746 and 1747. However, he turned against the Wesleys soon after and vanished from the evangelical scene. John Greensmith M.A. (presbyterian minister of Colwich) ?1629-1666 G21
Greensmith, born about 1629 (? and christened on 23 Aug 1629 at Birmingham) was probably son of Thomas Greensmith of Birmingham, Warwicks skinner c1599-1649 and Jane. He studied at Oxford where on 29 Jan 1648.9 he was a student at Magdalen Hall and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 16 Nov 1651 (M.A., 30 Jun 1654). He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 31 May 1654 when after presentation by Oliver Cromwell (Lord Protector) he was approved by the Commission for approbation of public preachers as presbyterian minister of Colwich vicarage. Apparently the same day the Trustees for maintenance granted him an augmentation of £80 to his annual salary of £20 which was paid for about five years. On 28 Aug 1654 he was appointed an Assistant Commissioner for the ejection of scandalous ministers in Staffordshire. On 22 Aug 1655 it was ordered that he be classically ordained as a presbyterian clergyman by the Derbyshire Wirksworth Classis at Kniveton. (The previous day he had preached a sermon and defended his thesis "An detur peccatum regnans in eternatis".) On 27 Jul 1659 Augustine Schoolecroft 1633-1700 is noted as his assistant minister. About 1657 to 1660 Greensmith was a lecturer at Stafford St Mary. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto vicar of of Colwich. On 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to the Act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. He probably lived on at Colwich until he died, aged about 37, and was buried here on 22 Aug 1666. His nuncupative will was made on 25 Jun 1666 and proved under Lichfield on 17 Jul 1667. He bequeathed his books to Schoolecroft (above) who had been instituted vicar of Colwich in Feb 1662.3 and on 6 Dec 1666 at Colwich married Sarah Greensmith ?1633-1687 (likely John's sister). Greensmith may not have married.

John Greenwood M.A. (rector of Ingestre) c1563-?1648
Greenwood, born perhaps about 1563, is of unknown parentage. He studied at Cambridge where at Michaelmas 1581 he was a pensioner at St John's College, Cambridge and matriculated. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1584.5 (M.A., 1588). On 25 Mar 1587 he was ordained deacon and priest by Peterborough at Peterborough. On 9 Dec 1597 after probable presentation by (Sir) William Chetwynd of Ingestre c1551-1612 he was instituted rector of Ingestre. On 30 Oct 1604 he received a faculty office dispensation for plurality and on 9 Nov 1604 - after presentation by Thomas Lea clerk, John Aston gentleman and William Morton "agricole"- was, plurally, instituted rector of Standon (some 10 miles north-west). From 5 Feb 1643.4 he probably continued in both parishes as compliant minister. Perhaps still in both offices he likely died, aged about 85, in 1648. Greenwood may not have married.

William Greenwood (vicar of High Offley) e1611-1680 H45
Greenwood, born perhaps about 1611, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade and was likely ordained deacon and priest before 1643. On 5 Feb 1643.4 he may not have been in an office. In the winter of 1651/2 he was in office as compliant minister of High Offley vicarage. On 16 Mar 1652.3 the Committee for plundered ministers granted him an augmentation of £22 to his annual salary of £35. In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de facto vicar and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 10/0 and subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 18 Aug 1662. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for High Offley constablewick and was assessed on 4 hearths. Still in office he died, perhaps aged about 69, and was buried probably here on 10 Apr 1680. Greenwood may not have married.

Anthony Gretton (parochial curate of Longnor) e1609-1661
Gretton, born perhaps about 1609, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. On 18 Dec 1630 and then in office as parochial curate of Croxden he was ordained deacon by Lichfield at Eccleshall.
On 22 Dec 1633 he was ordained priest by Lichfield. By 1639 he was in office as parochial curate of Longnor. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. On 12 Aug 1644 the Staffordshire parliamentary committee ordered that "the Solicitors for Sequestration shall pay the petitioner [Gretton] his wages of £5 per annum since the time they entred upon Sir John Harpurs estate there and tooke the proffits thereof". About 1650 Gretton was appointed compliant minister of Boylestone rectory, Derbys. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto rector. Still in office he died, aged about 52, in Feb 1660.1. His will made on 9 Feb 1660.1 was proved under Lichfield on 12 Apr 1661. His personalty was valued at £91/12/4 and included "His Library £3". Gretton married about 1650 to Dorothy (d 1684) by whom he had 1 son and 3 daughters. George Gretton (vicar of Marston-upon-Dove, Derbys) c1658-1750 was his only son.

(Bishop, Dax in France) 1380

Was probably a Spaniard who was Dean of Degovia. He was a diplomat who worked for John of Gaunt when he was trying to conquer the Spanish Kingdom of Castile for himself. Eventually he resigned the rectory of Stoke when he was given a Bishopric of Southern France. It seems that neither Stoke nor his French Bishopric, to say nothing of his Spanish Deanery, saw much of him.

[ODNB]

Gwent's health deteriorated sadly in 1543 and on 21 July that year he made his will, which was proved on 11 February 1544. In it he commended his soul unto 'Almighty God and his holy hands' and made no provision for masses or prayers. He left his best gelding to Thomas Cranmer, noting that the archbishop owed him £40, but his most pressing concern seems to have been that his estate should not be unduly burdened with dilapidations. Gwent died in London and at his own request was buried in the middle of St Paul's Cathedral before the high altar. As 'Richardus Ventanus juridicus' he was eulogized for his virtues and learning in John Leland's 'Encomia'. [ODNB]

(Brewood) In Memory of THE REV. ALEXANDER BUNN HADEN, M.A. VICAR OF BREWOOD, WHO DEPARTED THIS LIFE AUGUST 16, 1868, AGED 80 YEARS. For nearly forty years, as Curate and vicar, he preached In this Church the Gospel of Salvation through Faith in Christ alone with great fidelity and earnestness, and enforced the truths which he taught as a Divine by the example of his consistent and useful life. During his incumbency Two District Churches and Three Schools were added to this Parish chiefly by his zeal in promoting their erection. He was remarkable for the cheerfulness of his piety, and the kindness of his disposition, and all through his life he endeavoured to promote "Righteousness, Faith, Charity, Peace, with them that call upon the Lord out of a pure heart." This tablet is erected by some of his friends and parishioners as a memorial of their affection and esteem.

On 27 Sep 1629 he was ordained deacon by Lichfield and (presumably) later ordained priest. On 26 Oct 1632 after presentation by Thomas Brograve of Rolleston "gentleman" c1595-1650 he was instituted vicar of Ilam. Here he resigned before 25 Jun 1639. On 11 Jul 1639 after presentation by Anthony Topham D.D. (dean of Lincoln) c1589-1655 he was instituted rector of Fenny Bentley, Derbys but left office before 10 Apr 1642 when William Bott c1617-1701 QV was instituted. John Hall (?presbyterian minister of Gnosall) e1620-?1659
Hall, born perhaps about 1620, is of unknown parentage. He was in office as ?presbyterian minister of High Offley vicarage on 12 Apr 1648 when the Committee for plundered ministers granted him an augmentation of £22 pa to his annual salary of £35 (which was said to have last been paid about Sep 1651). However by 30 Aug 1650 he had been appointed ?presbyterian minister of Gnosall. Here he received an augmentation of £37 pa to his annual salary of either £20 or £13/13/4 until about 1659 or 1660. Hall may have died (or left office) about this time. By Jan 1661.2 a successor was in office (who may have been appointed in 1659). Hall may not have married. A namesake was John Hall (vicar of Ilam) e1600-....

(BodlMS 325 p220) Payment of this sum was made by the trustees and confirmed by the committee for the reformation of the universities as late as 26 Sep 1651, though Hall seems to have gone to Gnosall QV, in 1650. ("... at the instigation of his cousin Samuel Burton, archdeacon of Gloucester, [Hall] ... became a prebend of the collegiate church of Wolverhampton in order to conduct the legal battle for the recovery of its income from Sir Walter Leveson, who held its estates in perpetual fee-farm. After a lengthy period of litigation, and the discovery of manifest fraud on the opposing side, the suit ended in victory, but Hall immediately resigned his prebend in favour of a minister "who should constantly reside there") [DNB] ... interested in this church by his kinsman Samuel Burton, who "was very desirous to engage me in so difficult and noble a service as the redemption of that captivated church." ... The value of this prebend was then nine nobles a year, and after the successful termination of the suit this was raised to £40, and the others to £30 while the lease lasted. An order in the House of Lords in Feb 1640.1, on the appeal of Thomas Leveson, apparently stopped these payments pending an action of ejectment at the Common Law. Hall gives full details of the matter in his autobiography, and the findings and dates are given in Chancery Decrees 1615 A ff 243-4, the Bill and Answer in Hall and Cragge v. Leveson-being lost. Ralph Hall (parochial curate of Maer) e1604-1685 G22

Hall, born perhaps about 1604, is of unknown parentage. He and his first wife were probably living in Cheshire about 1635 when their son was born. Hall was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 6 Jun 1648 when as presbyterian minister of Knutsford in Rostherne, Cheshire he signed the Cheshire Attestation. On 29 Jul 1648 he petitioned the House of Commons. About 1650 he is said to have refused the Engagement but does not appear to have been removed from office. On 14 Nov 1654 as "late of Knottesford in the Countie of Chester, Clerke" he was appointed by Newcastle corporation presbyterian minister of Newcastle independent parochial chapelry in succession to Joseph Sonde ?1598-1672 QV. He was to have an annual salary of £60 and free accommodation (or an extra £5 pa). In addition he might procure an augmentation. On 7 Mar 1654.5 he was appointed a burgess of Newcastle for his life and on 19 Jun 1655 he was given the "the Fees belonging to the church". On 26 Oct 1655 he was approved by the Commission for approbation of public preachers and about this time the Trustees for maintenance granted him an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary which was paid for about five years. On 5 Nov 1656 he was to rent (a piece of land) "Parsons Flatt" for three years. About 25 Mar 1659 he received an augmentation of £25 from the Trustees for maintenance (out of their tenths fund). Earlier about Jun 1658 a serious disagreement apparently about tithes and augmentations arose between the corporation and Hall. The minutes read "20 July, 1659. That it is propounded to this Companie that they shouid declare their minds whether Mr. Hall might be fit to do God and this place service by reason of his actings. It is agreed that he is not fit by reason he hath made himself incapable of doing good in this place either to God or the Town." On 29 Sep 1659 the corporation decided to remove him. The minutes read "Propounded a second tyme whether Mr Hall were unfitt to stay in this place by reason of his actings. It was agreed that he is unfitt and that he should remove and have his money payd him that is due unto him". He likely left soon after but on 4 Apr 1660, as a life burgess, was still a Newcastle elector. About Jan 1661.2 he succeded William Dicken c1620-1682 as parochial curate of Maer and that month paid a clerical subsidy of 5/0. On 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to the Act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. Shortly afterwards he moved to Chester "where he was Pastor of that Congregation of Dissenters who afterwards invited Mr Matthew Henry, to be their Pastor". Under The five mile act (31 Oct 1665) which prohibited nonconformist clergy from entering within five miles of parliamentary corporations such as Chester he was imprisoned in Chester City or Northgate Prison. Whilst in prison he converted a convicted murderer. An account of this event was written in 1716:

> The Soldier's Name was Spooner, one that had been a very loose and profligate Man and was concerned with others in a drunken Riot, in which a poor Man lost his Life. Mr Hall ... was sent a Prisoner ... for six Months, for no other Fault than preaching the Gos[p]el; but God sent him thither for good to this poor Criminal, who lay in the Gall of Bitterness and Bond of Iniquity. Mr Hall found him very ignorant and stupid but God was pleased to bless the serious Discourse he had with him, and the fervent Prayers he put up to God with him and for him; Conscience was awakened to purpose, and God sealed his Instruction; a wonderful Change was wrought in him in a little time, and he made such a Declaration of the Manner of God's Working upon his Soul when he came to die, and of the Benefit he had received by Mr Hall's Instruction and Prayers, as very much affected all that heard him, and indeed filled the whole City with wonder, every one looking upon him as such another Monument of Freegrace as the Thief on the Cross, and glorifying God on his Behalf; that good old Minister thought his six Months Imprisonment abundantly compensated by being an Instrument of so much Good to a precious Soul, that was in so much danger of perishing for ever.

In 1672 he was licensed to be a presbyterian teacher at his own house at Weaverham, Cheshire and his houses there and at Grange Lane, Chester were licensed as meeting-places. By 1681 Hall had moved to Little Budworth, Cheshire where he died, aged about 81, and was buried on 21 Dec 1685. His will made on 7 Jun 1681 was proved under Chester on 13 Feb 1685.6. In his will his wife is "to take ten of my English bookes" and he mentions his grandson Samuel Hall who he hoped "would make an emin't instrument of his [God's] glory ". This was Samuel Hall (?presbyterian minister of Tiverton, Devon) 1662-1730 who was the younger son of Ralph's son Samuel Hall (presbyterian minister of Barlaston) c1635-1665 QV who predeceased his father. Hall married first about 1634 to a woman by whom he had 1 son (Samuel). He married second on 22 Oct 1661 at Swynnerton to Susan Beard (d 1679) (no known children) and married third about 1681 to Hester (no known children). Hall was most probably the author of Quakers principles quaking ... (1656) which had a preface written by Zachariah Crofton (then presbyterian minister of London St Botolph's Aldgate) c1626-1672. A reply to the book was written by William Anderson of Liverpool later the same year.

(1716) If I may be allowed to make my Conjecture, I cannot but think he [Henry] was the more encouraged to undertake a Task of this Nature, from an Instance that was fresh in the memory of good People in Chester, when Mr Henry came among them I mean the Conversion of a Soldier, condemned for Murther [in Castle Lane, Chester] , which under God was owing to the great Pains that Mr Hall, then a Prisoner for Nonconformity, took with him: The Soldier's Name was Spooner, one that had been a very loose and profligate Man and was concerned with others in a drunken Riot, in which a poor Man lost his Life. Mr Hall, who was Pastor to that People in Chester that invited Mr Henry, was sent a Prisoner to the Castle [recte Chester City or Northgate Prison] for six Months, for no other Fault than preaching the Gos[p]el; but God sent him thither for good to this poor Criminal. who lay in the Gall of Bitterness and Bond of Iniquity. Mr Hall found him very ignorant and stupid but God was pleased to bless the serious Discourse he had with him, and the fervent Prayers he put up to God with him and for him; Conscience was awakened to purpose, and God sealed his Instruction; a wonderful Change was wrought in him in a little time, and he made such a Declaration of the Manner of God's Working upon his Soul when he came to die, and of the Benefit he had received by Mr Hall's Instruction and Prayers, as very much affected all that heard him, and indeed filled the whole City with wonder, every one looking upon him as such another Monument of Freegrace as the Thief on the Cross, and glorifying God on his Behalf; that good old Minister thought his six Months Imprisonment abundantly compensated by being an Instrument of so much Good to a precious Soul, that was in so much danger of perishing for ever. It is rational to think this happy Precedent encouraged Mr Henry and excited him to this Service it is certain he was not ignorant of it for I find him taking notice of it in one of his Papers as a Service done by that worthy, pious Mr Hall (so he justly calls him) but a little before he died. (1727) Ibid [p631] Mayr: Mr RALPH HALL I am informed by his Grandson that he refus'd the Ingagement, and thrice endeavour'd to shew his People the Unlawfulness of it, on the Lords Day before it was to be administer'd in his Parish: Once in his Exposition of the Scripture, and in both his Sermons. After his being cast out of this Living, he liv'd in the City of Chester, where he was Pastor of that Congregation of Dissenters who afterwards invited Mr Matthew Henry, to be their Pastor. Mr Hall was committed to Prison in Chester upon the Five Mile Act; and during his Imprisonment was an Instrument in the Hand of GOD, for the Conversion of a Soldier who had been a very loose profligate Man, and was concern'd with others in a drunken Riot, in which a poor Man lost his Life. This Soldier was Mr Hall's Fellow-Prisoner, and Mr Tong who particularly relates the Story, in his Account of the Life of Mr Matthew Henry, pag. ~~238~~, observes that GOD sent this good Man to Jail, for good to this poor Criminal, who lay in the Gall of Bitterness and Bond of Iniquity. The Good Man thought his six Months Imprisonment abundantly compensated by being an Instrument os so much Good to a precious Soul, that was in so much Danger of perishing for ever. The Grandson of this Mr Hall was so kind as to certify me by a Letter, that the Relation Mr Tong gave of this Matter was exactly true in every Thing, except the Prison in which Mr Hall and this Soldier were confin'd, which was not the Castle of Chester. but the North-Gate which is the City Prison; and the Murder mention'd was committed in the City, viz. in the Castle lane. Mr. Tong (who particularly relates the story, in his Life of Mr. M. (1852) [Henry Newcome] The autobiography of Henry Newcome ... Edited by Richard Parkinson Chetham Society (1852) ... (24 Jun 1658) I made a shift, with much difficulty to go to Newcastle, to take up, if I could their differences there between Mr Hall and the town. How strangely the Lord ordered things here! He came thither about three years since. It was by my motion that he went thither. Some time after he gave me solemn thanks in a letter, that I had motioned him to Newcastle. Michaelmas I went thither, and lay at Mr Bagnall's; and the mayor and aldermen came to give me a visit, and it was to give me thanks especially for being an instrument in bringing Mr Hall unto them, in whom they took such high content. And now at this time, the mayor came and appeared against him; and very sad I found their differences to my admiration and great sorrow, and to my after trouble. For the year after, I was forced to meet there again and spent two days together, in my journey into my own country; and could do no good. The jealousy was so high on both parts, and the devil had rooted such deep prejudices that they lived in no comfort whilst they were together; and were then forced to part. I could not but admire at the Lord's goodness, that spared me in this respect. And though attempts were made to have raised factions, as in Mr Clayton's business at first, and after about the morning lecture; yet the Lord did but exercise me at present, with the fears of such things, and he prevented the effect and issue of them. [Newcome p92] ...

(7 Jun 1659) Blessed be God that we are not as at Newcastle, which, as before said was now in a very sad and broken condition; whence I received a sad letter this night. This present notable benefit I had of this trouble, - that it made me more earnest in duty. For June 29th Wednesday Mr Sond, Mr Hall, Mr Martindale, and Mr Hunter came to me, and it much grieved me to hear how they sought to disgrace and search out the weakness one of another. And Mr Sond was so vexed with his old business towards that town that he professed it took him quite off his study and all his desirable things and makes his life unprofitable and uncomfortable. [Newcome p106] ... (21 Sep 1660) [At Manchester] Mr Hall of Newcastle, was with me this day, who is outed as well as I; yet I thought there was difference in my being outed and his, - in that the people desired his going, and my people generally desired my stay. (1931) On 14th November, 1654, Mr. Ralph Hall became the Newcastle minister. When Randall Silletoe was elected to serve the office of clerk within the borough and also to be "Register" he was appointed by the Corporation and Mr. Hall. This minister left Newcastle soon after the following record appeared in the borough minutes: "20 July, 1659. (1938) MR. RALPH HALL When Mr. Ralph Hall was appointed the minister of the congregation of Newcastle-under-Lyme on 14 November 1654 it is stated that the choice was made by "the Companie [of capital burgesses] and divers others of the Burgesses and Inhabitants of this Burrough ". At the same time also articles of agreement between the mayor, bailiffs and burgesses of Newcastle and Raphe Hall, late of Knutsford in the county of Chester, clerk, were entered up. Here is a summary of the agreement: First. Raphe Hall agreed to take upon himself from henceforth the pastoral charge of the congregation of Newcastle-under-Lyme for life. Second. The borough officials agreed to pay Raphe Hall £6o per annum, quarterly, as well as allow him rent free the house in Newcastle late in the holding of Mr. Sond, the preceding minister. Also if any augmentation could be procured in addition to the old settled maintenance of £14, then Raphe Hall could have £20 over and above the said £60, he paying all expenses connected with procuring such augmentation. Third. If a new lease of the said house at the end of the term might not be taken, then the corporation should allow Raphe Hall £5 yearly, beyond the £60, to provide himself a habitation within the borough. Fourth. Raphe Hall was to keep and maintain the said house in good repair. On 7 March 1655 Mr. Hall was given his burgess rights for the term of his life. On 19 June 1655 It was agreed that Mr. Hall should have the fees belonging to the church paid to him and that he should repair his house at his own cost. Mr. Hall was successful in procuring a certificate of approbation from the commissioner's on 26 October 1655 along with the augmentation of £50. [SHC 1915 p257] On 5 November 1656 the following three entries were recorded in the borough minutes: (a) That Mr. Hall should hold the Parson's Flat after three years next ensuing at the same rent as the present holder; (b) That Edward Bromley should hold the tithes at £30 a year for three years and 20/0 from Mr. Sneyd; (c) That a suit should be commenced against Mr. Sond to regain from him the money in his hands due to the town. At the next recorded meeting, on 21 January 1657, Randall Sillitoe was elected to serve the office of parish clerk within the borough and also to be " Regester " by the consent of the company and Mr. Hall. At the same meeting it was agreed that Dr. Mainwaring [rector of Stoke-on-Trent] should have his tenths paid him from this borough. From the Calendar of Domestic State Papers 1656-57, page 279, we learn that on 12 February 1657 the council approved of the augmentation of £50 to Ralph Hall, minister of Newcastle-under-Lyme. During Mr. Hall's ministry a new roof was put on the church, several lunes or rates for repair of the church were levied and arrangements for keeping good bell-ropes were made. At a borough council meeting on 20 August 1657 it was agreed that the lead over the chancel should be sold and a roof of timber be bought and laid over the same. At the meeting on 7 November 1657 Isack Harrison was chosen clerk for the borough by the consent of the company and Mr. Hall and he was to pay to widow Silleto (Randle Silleto was buried on 3 November) £2 and to enter office at Christmas next. Also bell-ropes were to be provided by the town, and £1/13/4 deducted out of the clerk's wages for provision thereof yearly. In the parish register after the baptismal entries for 1657 there are two sentences inserted: "A new rope made by Thomas Whitell the sixteenth of August 1664 for the Chymes". "A set of ropes caused [? provided] by Mr. Deyntrey for the 5 bells were put to St. Mark's Day being the 25 of April 1665 ". The following lunes for the repair of the church were levied: on 7 November 1657, £10; on 29 April 1658, 20 nobles; on 1 April 1659, £5, and £10 on 8 February 1662. In 1659 there was trouble between Mr. Hall and the corporation. On 16 April in that year it was agreed that counsel's advice should be taken about Mr. Hall's attitude towards the town and to proceed accordingly. On 20 July 1659 we learn that the trouble was about the tithes and the augmentation. The capital burgesses agreed after discussion that Mr. Hall should be made to keep his promise thereon given at Mr. Walter Bagnall's house. Then they discussed whether Mr. Hall, by reason of his actings, was fit to do God and this place service. They decided that he had made himself incapable of doing good in this place either; to God or the town. Edward Bromley affirmed that when he was sent by the mayor to Mr. Hall to know whether he would take the tithe and augmentation according to his promise, Mr Hall answered that he had no hand in the tithe and he would not have any if he could help it. Therefore it was agreed that the tithes should remain in Edward Bromley's hand until the case between Mr. Hall and the Town might be decided. It must be remembered that in November 1656 Edward Bromley had leased the tithes for three years from the town, and evidently the borough authorities had got Mr. Hall to promise to take the tithes into his own hands when the lease was up in 1659, but now he would not keep his word. At the next assembly, 29 September 1659, after a discussion about Mr. Hall's conduct it was agreed that he was unfit, that he should remove and have the money due to him forthwith paid. There is no other information about Mr. Hall to be gleaned from the corporation minutes. He went to Maer soon afterwards, where he paid a subsidy of 5/0 in January 1662. According to Calamy [Calamy (1803) p238] Hall when at Maer refused to comply with the Act of Uniformity passed in 1662, so he was ejected and went to Chester to preside over that congregation, which was served later by Matthew Henry. In 1672 he was a licensed Presbyterian teacher at his own house at Weaverham, and he died in 1684. [T. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 19 Sep 1656 when he was nominated by the Trustees for the maintenance of preaching ministers as presbyterian minister of Barlaston parochial chapelry and admitted on 25

Sep. On 16 Sep 1657 he was classically ordained as a presbyterian minister by Shropshire 4th (or Bradford North) Classis at Prees together with Philip Henry (presbyterian minister of Worthenbury, Flints) c1630-1696. Whilst at Barlaston he received an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary that had been paid to his predecessor. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto parochial curate. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 3/0. On 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to The act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. His house at Barlaston had been assessed on one hearth but in 1665 it was recorded "but now the house puld downe". By that year Hall was living at Olton in Stone where he died, aged about 32, and was buried on 12 Apr 1665 (perhaps as requested in the chancel) at Stone. His will made on 6 Apr 1665 was proved under Lichfield on 1 Aug 1665. Hall married on 26 Oct 1656 at Newcastle to Alice Smith by whom he had 2 sons. Both these sons - Jonathan and Samuel - are mentioned in his will and also in his father's will where it is hoped Samuel "would make an emin't instrument of his [God's] glory ". This was Samuel Hall (?presbyterian minister of Tiverton, Devon) 1662-1730. Calamy records in 1727 that Hall "had the Reputation of a very pious Person, and an excellent Preacher, as well as of a good Scholar; the latter of which is justif'd by some Manuscripts in the Hands of his Son ..." In his will Hall asked that he "be carried to my place of buriall by my worthy friends Mr Goddard Mr Swynfen Mr Mott & Mr Davenport". The latter three men are probably Richard Swinfen (presbyterian minister of Mavesyn Ridware) 1630-1691 QV, John Mott (presbyterian minister of Kings Bromley) e1623-1671 QV and ----- Davenport (minister of Newchapel) QV.

Samuel Hall (presbyterian minister of Barlaston) c1635-1665
Hall, born about 1635 in Cheshire, was a son of Ralph Hall (later presbyterian minister of Newcastle) c1605-1685 QV. He studied at Cambridge where on 14 May 1652 he was admitted sizar at Jesus College and matriculated the same year. He was tutored by Thomas Woodcock. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1655.6. On 25 Sep 1656 after nomination (19 Sep) by the Trustees for the maintenance of preaching ministers he was admitted presbyterian minister of Barlaston. He was presumably ordained deacon (? and priest) before 26 Aug 1616 when he was in office as parochial curate of Warslow. He was still in office there in 1620. By 1639 he was in office as parochial curate of Butterton. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. On 26 Sep 1646 the Committee for plundered ministers granted (the minister here) an augmentation of £20 to his annual salary of £4/10/0. Hambleton was still in office in 1651.2. Hambleton may not have married. No further record has been discovered. William Hambleton (parochial curate of Butterton) e1621-1669 was probably a kinsman. [NOTE: The Hambleton family of Butterton - earlier called Hambledon, Homoldon, Homolton and Hamilton - were settled in the village by 1465.]

William Hambleton (parochial curate of Butterton) e1621-1669 D46
Hambleton, born perhaps about 1621 (? in Staffordshire), was probably a son of Thomas Hambleton of Butterton c1591-.... He was only educated to literate grade. About Jun 1664 he was ordained deacon by Lichfield. By 1665 after probable presentation by the vicar of Mayfield then John Kelsall c1634-1698 QV he was in office as parochial curate of Butterton. In 1665 a man of his name was assessed on 1 hearth at Butterton. Still in office he died, perhaps aged about 48, and was buried here (perhaps as requested in the churchyard near the chancel door) on 23 Apr 1669. His will made on 20 Jul 1668 was proved under Lichfield on 15 Oct 1669. His personalty was valued at £46/12/6. His books - which he mentions in his will as being in latin, greek and english - were valued at £1.

Hambleton married perhaps about 1651 to a woman by whom he had 1 son and ?2 daughters.

$Gawin Hamilton M.A. (compliant minister of Alstonfield) c1594-1676 (H47)
Hamilton, born about 1594, was possibly of Scottish parentage. He may have studied at a Scottish university and graduated both B.A. and M.A. (M.A., c1615). He was presumably ordained deacon and on 19 Sep 1619 ordained priest by Lichfield. On 16 Apr 1638 after presentation by (the lord of the manor) Sir John Harpur of Swarkeston, Derbys knight 1612-1679 he was instituted vicar of Alstonfield. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. Here he sometimes received an augmentation of up to £50 to his salary. Apparently a committed presbyterian, he signed the Staffordshire testimony of Jul 1648 as "Gawin Hamilton Minister of Alstonfield". Still in office as minister in early Jun 1660 he was then reinstated as vicar and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 10/0. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 12 Aug 1662. In 1665 "Robert Tayler, Curat." certified the hearth tax for Alstonfield constablewick where Hamilton was not assessed. He had perhaps been placed in care for that year it was said that he was "old and unwell". A successor was instituted on 19 Mar 1674.5. Hamilton moved to "Hill House" in Ipstones where he died, aged about 82, in Dec 1676 with burial requested "in the parish Church or Chancel of Ipstones". His will made on 20 Dec 1676 was proved under Lichfield on 1 Jan 1676.7. Hamilton married perhaps about 1630 to a woman by whom he had 1 son and 2 daughters. Alexander Hamilton (rector of Thorpe, Derbys) c1634-1713 was his son. Alexander Hamilton M.A. (Glasgow) (rector of Eyam, Derbys) c1673-.... may have been his grandson. His daughter Mary was the wife of William Fearne (rector of Eyam, Derbys) c1641-.... Hamilton qua vicar of Alstonfield was patron of the dependent parochial chapelries of Elkstone, Longnor and Warslow. When these parishes were vacant he may have served them himself.

(Stafford) A building on the south side of the churchyard known as the College House occurs from the early 17th century as part of the corporation's property. By 1615 it was occupied by the master of the grammar school, and part of it was normally let to the masters until 1725 when John Dearle left it after a dispute with the corporation over the rent; William Hammersley, usher at the school and curate at St Mary's from 1666 until his death in 1716, lived in the other part. (Wolverhampton St John) Henry Hampton found the school buildings in a deplorable condition and put in hand an immediate restoration at a considerable cost. When finished they were said to be superior to any in the neighbourhood. This human dynamo then established a Mission Church in Steelhouse Lane which backed on to Rough Hills, at that time a brickfield and colliery. Here he founded both church and schools. The Rev. Hampton then took into his care the major restoration work carried out on the church in 1869. He next turned his attention to his Steelhouse Lane work and in 1877 commenced the new Church of All Saints. After many trials and much anxiety All Saints was opened on 1st November 1879. [INTERNET]

James Hancox B.A. (parochial curate of Stone) 1637-1707 H48
Hancox, born 15 Jul 1637, was a son of an unknown "gentleman". He studied at Cambridge where on 1 Jul 1654 he was admitted as a sizar at Clare College. He next studied at Oxford where on 21 Apr 1655 he was a student at Magdalen Hall and matriculated. At ?Oxford he graduated B.A. on 23 Mar 1657.8. On 28 May 1661 he was ordained deacon and on 30 May 1661 ordained priest (both) by Lincoln pro Lichfield at London Aldersgate. After possible presentation by the Crown he was in office as parochial curate of Stone on 18 Jul 1662 when he subscribed to the Act of uniformity. In Oct 1663 he was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Aston & Burston, Darlaston, Kibblestone, Stone & members, Tittensor and Walton & Aston constablewicks and was assessed on 5 hearths at Walton township "Mr Crompton, now Mr Hancockes". He probably resigned at Stone before 6 Jul 1667 when after presentation by by Richard Shallcross of Shallcross, Salop gentleman he was instituted as vicar of Worfield, Salop. He may then also have been appointed parochial curate of Bridgnorth. Still in office at Worfield (and probably at Bridgnorth) he died, aged 70, on 22 Jan 1706.7 and was buried at Worfield on 25 Jan. An inscribed monument was placed in the church (below) which records his charitable gift of £100 to the church and poor of Worfield. Hancox married first to a woman by whom he had 1 son and 1 daughter. He married second about 1677 to Ann Swinfen c1636-1719 dau of John Swinfen of Swinfen in Weeford esquire 1613-1694 and widow of Joseph Baker of Prestwood in Kingswinford presbyterian minister c1622-1669 by whom he had 1 daughter. Hancox qua parochial curate of Stone was patron of the parochial chapelry of Fulford (where he had probably presented Charles Norwood e1614-.... QV about 1662).

Francis Hanslape (presbyterian minister of Hints) c1622-....
Hanslape, born about 1622, was the younger son of Richard Hanslape of Drayton Beauchamp, Bucks "gentleman" c1581-?1637 and Ann. He studied at Oxford where on 18 Apr 1637 he was a student at Oriel College and matriculated. He is sometimes styled M.A. but no record has been found of his graduation. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 23 Oct 1656 when he was apparently appointed by the Commission for approbation of public preachers as presbyterian minister of Hints parochial chapelry where he received an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary. By Sep 1657 he had been appointed master of St Albans Free School, Herts on a salary of about £40 (shared with his usher). About Nov 1660 he was paid £1 by the churchwardens of St Albans St Peter for "three sermons one whereof was preached ... for the King's most happy return to England". He was presumably ordained deacon and priest before about 25 Feb 1661.2 when after presentation by the Crown by lapse he was instituted vicar of Gloucester St Mary de Lode and subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 9 Aug 1662. By 1663 he was also precentor of Gloucester. On 22 Dec 1667 he was appointed a minor canon of Bristol. He resigned at Gloucester St Mary de Lode before 6 Jun 1668 and on 20 Jul 1668 was collated by the bishop of Bristol as vicar of Elberton, Glos. About 21 Feb 1669.70 he was instituted rector of Littleton-upon-Severn, Glos. Hanslape was alive on 20 Jun 1685 when he executed the will of his older brother Richard Hanslape of Up Hatherley, Glos 1614-?1685 who in 1650 had "his estate ... sequestered for his refusal to take the oath of Abjuration". No further record (of him or his family) has been discovered. Hanslape's father made a bequest to the poor of Southam, Warwicks and Francis may may be the man of this name living there in 1648 who had married about 1647 to Ann by whom he had 1 son (christened and buried here that year). Francis's unnamed wife is mentioned in his brother's will of 1684.

(1657) At Michaelmas, 1657, Mr. Francis Hanslope came as master [St Albans, Herts]. His disappearance after being paid 1s. for providing '6 extinguishers' at Michaelmas, 1661, may probably be accounted for by Restoration persecution. [VCH]
(1659) Alsoe payde to Mr Francis Hanslape now Mr. of the said Free Schoole for one yeare and a quarters Stipend for himself and Usher ensinge at Michmas 1659 the summe of £50 [Home counties magazine]
(?1660) All these changes fell far short of restoring a Laudian church. Even the £1 paid to Francis Hanslape, schoolmaster of St Albans School from 1657 to 1661, by St Peter's churchwardens for "three sermons one whereof was preached upon the thanksgiving day for the King's most happy return to England" may not be quite the hint of triumphalism it appears, for Hanslape was almost certainly a puritan lecturer. His disappearance after Michaelmas 1661 was no doubt due to Restoration persecution. [St Albans 1650-1700]
(21 Feb 1663) On 21 February 1663 Gregory made a formal statement to Bishop [of Gloucester] Nicholson during his first visitation of the Cathedral. He was required, together with the Precentor, Francis Hanslape, to answer 17 questions concerning the duties of the members of the College and their observance. [The King's School, Gloucester]

Hanson, born about 1610, was a son of Richard Hanson (rector of Himley) c1571-a1629 and Joan. He studied at Oxford where 25 Jun 1630 he was a student at Pembroke College and matriculated but is not known to have graduated. As a literate on 5 Jun 1631 he was ordained deacon by Oxford and presumably later ordained priest. On 11 Mar 1633.4 after presentation by his mother Joan Hanson pro Edward Dudley 5th Baron Dudley 1567-1643 he was instituted rector of Himley. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. Still in office as minister in early Jun 1660 he was then reinstated as rector and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 29 Jul 1662. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Himley constablewick and was assessed on ? hearths. Still in office he died, aged about 59, and was buried here on 4 Jan 1668.9. His will made on 22 Dec 1668 was proved under Lichfield on 18 Feb 1668.9. His personalty was valued at about £380 and included "his liberary of books £15". Hanson married perhaps about 1641 to Margaret by whom he had 1 son and 2 daughters.

Robert Harding b c1707 Newcastle; (matriculated from Balliol, Oxford) 2 Mar 1725; (B.A.) 1728

(At Newcastle) The appointment of Egerton Harding in 1698 witnessed an attempt to raise the spiritual and moral life of Newcastle and its neighbourhood. He was a local correspondent of the newly established S.P.C.K. and he reported in 1700 that he, with about sixteen of the neighbouring clergy, held a monthly lecture in Newcastle for suppressing immorality and profaneness and that the magistrates and gentry had promised their constant attendance. This promise seems to have been fulfilled, for in the following year Harding reported that there was a 'visible increase of piety and morality amongst them'. At the same time he stated that there was a well-stocked library, that the poor were well inclined, and that they attended the sacraments, which were administered monthly. It is not known for how long or to what extent the religious fervour initiated by Harding was maintained, as his later correspondence with the S.P.C.K. cannot be traced. Again, in 1705, another rector attempted to replace Egerton Harding, the then curate, by his own nominee, but this attempt evidently failed as Harding remained curate until his death in 1717. [VCH (STAFFS)]

George Harding (independent curate of Whittington) e1620-1682 H50

Harding, born perhaps about 1620, is of unknown parentage. [A man of his name studied at Cambridge where in 1637.8 he was a sizar at Trinity College and matriculated. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1640.1.] Probably as a literate Harding was likely ordained deacon before 5 Feb 1643.4 when he may not have been in an office. By 1651.2 he is said to have been in office as ? compliant minister of Whittington. In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de facto independent curate and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 6/8. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 19 Aug 1662. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Whittington constablewick and was assessed on 5 hearths. Still in office he died, perhaps aged about 62, and was buried here on 30 Jan 1681.2. His will made on 8 Oct 1681 was proved under Lichfield on 3 ?Feb 1681.2. His personalty was valued at £120/12/8 and included "In his studye... one deske to laye books on... All his bookes £20". Harding married ?first about 1647 to a woman by whom he probably had 2 sons and 1 daughter. He probably married second on 10 Jun 1658 at Codsall to Mary Southall (no known children).

(Shareshill) memo:- Hamlet Harrison Fellow of Brasenose Coll: succeded Dr Croft Sept. 29 1792 [PR]

At Pontesbury, Salop, in the 80th year of his age, the Rev. Hamlet Harrison, B.D. rector of the first portion of Pontesbury, and of Stratford-le-Bow, Middlesex, and a magistrate for the county of Salop. He was a native of Lancashire, and was the son of respectable parents, though in a humble station of life, who at the time of his birth lived on a farm in the township of Cuerdley, which is in the parish of Prescot, where he has at this time a brother and other relatives resident. Owing to the preference which, on account of his birth in the before-mentioned parish, he would be entitled to at Brazennose college, and being a lad of quick parts, he was sent at an early age to the University. He took the degree of M.A. in 1789; was soon after elected a Fellow of Brazennose College, and was presented by that Society in 1809 to the rectory of Stratford-le-Bow. He held for some years the appointment of Head Master of Brewood Grammar School, the duties of which office he discharged with credit and satisfaction. Mr. Harrison took the degree of B.D. 1808. The rectory of Pontesbury he acquired by purchase some years ago. He has died a bachelor, and it is believed has left a large property to be divided amongst his relatives. [Gent. Mag.]

Maurice Harrison (vicar of Biddulph, Staffs) c1636-1689
Harrison was born about 1636 son of John Harrison of Hindley, Lancs clerk. He was educated at Manchester under Mr Wickins. He studied at Cambridge where on 2 Aug 1654 he was admitted as a pensioner at St John's College and matriculated. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. 1658.9 (M.A., 1664). He was (presumably) anglicanly ordained deacon and priest. On 12 Jul 1665 after presentation by Sir John Bowyer of Knypersley in Biddulph, Staffs 1st Baronet 1623-1666 he was instituted as vicar of Biddulph and licensed as a preacher. [In 1665 his predecessor certfied the hearth tax for Biddulph & Knypersley constablewick]. Probably in 1669 he was (plurally) appointed parochial curate of Shrewsbury St Julian. Still in office at Biddulph and Shrewsbury he died, aged about 53, on 26 Dec 1689 and was buried on 28 Dec at Shrewsbury St Julian perhaps under the communion table. His gravestone records "Exuviae Reverendi Mauritij | Harrison viri bene morali | Christiani admodum spectabilis | et hujus Ecclesiae nuper | pastoris seduli dignique | quas deposuit Decembris 26 | 1689". His will made on 9 Dec 1689 was proved at Lichfield on 18 Mar 1689.90. His personalty was valued at £271/18.0 and included "The Study of Books £20". Harrison married in Feb 1666.7 to Ann Ridley (d 1711) but may not have had any children.

Richard Harrison M.A. (rector of Blithfield & vicar of Lichfield St Mary) c1611-1676 H52
Harrison, born about 1611, was a son of Richard Harrison of Minshull Vernon, Cheshire "gentleman" (? and Ellen Venables). He studied at Oxford where on 10 Jun 1630 he was a student at Brasenose College and matriculated. At Oxford he subscribed as an anglican on 22 Jan 1629.30 and graduated B.A. on 28 Jan 1629.30 (M.A., 3 Oct 1632). In 1633 his M.A. was incorporated at Cambridge (where he had entered on 10 Jun 1630). He was ordained deacon and on 18 Feb 1637.8 ordained priest by Lichfield. A man of his name was said to be "minister of Warmingham, Cheshire" in 1641. On 5 Feb 1643.4 he may not have been in an office. In Sep 1645 he was appointed compliant minister of Lichfield St Mary vicarage but removed about 1647 when it is said that "He was sent to Jayl, his House was Plunder'd, all his Books burnt, his Wife and Children were thrown out of Doors, and himself forced to Fly and Abscond for Two Years". On 4 Feb 1648.9 he was appointed compliant assistant minister of Tettenhall parochial chapelry. Here Thomas Beiston c1586-1652 QV was compliant minister. On 27 May 1653, following Beistons' death, after presentation by the Commissioners of the great seal Harrison was appointed here as compliant minister and by 12 Sep 1653 had also been appointed parish register. In 1655 some of his parishioners petitioned for his ejection alleging that he had officiated at Lichfield whilst it was a royal garrison and on deserting Lichfield had been articled against for delinquency. On 25 Jul 1655 his successor Thomas Buxton 1625-?1685 QV was appointed as presbyterian minister but on 23 Oct 1655 the Committee for plundered ministers withheld an augmentation to his annual salary on Harrison's petition. On 1 Dec 1656 Buxton was also appointed as parish register. The next month on 24 Jan 1656.7 Harrison delivered the register books to the churchwarden and wrote a note in the christening register "Ric. Harrisson legally chosen Register of Tettenhall, haveing used h[is] endeavor to learne the names, & register the birthes, burialls, & marriages [within] the parish, & failing therein, not only in regard of his enforced absence, but thr[ough] the neglect or wilfulness of persons concerned doth ~~voluntarily~~ (?coacte [? by force]) deliver up [the] Register Bookes to the lawfull church warden". On 4 Aug 1658 after presentation by (the lord of the manor) Sir Edward Bagot of Blithfield 2nd Baronet 1616-1673 he was approved by the Commission for approbation of public preachers as compliant minister of Blithfield rectory. Here on 18 Aug the churchwardens gave him possession of the rectory and on 13 Dec John Middleton c1616-1681 (the former compliant assistant minister-in-charge) gave him possession of the rectory house. In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de facto rector. By 19 Jul 1660 after a further presentation by Sir Edward Bagot he was instituted rector and on 7 Aug inducted by John Sanders [John Saunders B.A. (rector of Colton) c1619-1682]. On 6 Sep 1660 he was by mandate of the bishop installed as chancellor of Lichfield (and thus prebendary of Lichfield Alrewas) and on 7 Dec 1660 formally presented by the Crown. By An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660) Harrison was plurally "restored" as de facto vicar of Lichfield St Mary and thus displaced John Butler c1621-1671 QV. On 18 Jun 1661 after presentation by the Crown he was also admitted as a canon residentiary at Lichfield. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Blithfield & Admaston and Newton constablewicks and was assessed on 4 hearths at Blithfield township and 1 hearth at Lichfield Close constablewick. It is said that his house, "The Choristers' House", on the south side of The Close had been leased to him on 24 Jun 1661. About 1670 he moved from Blithfield to live in Bore Street, Lichfield. Still in office at Blithfield and Lichfield and as chancellor he died, aged about 65, on 31 Mar 1676 and was buried on 3 Apr 1676 at Lichfield St Mary. His will made on 15 Jan 1675.6 was proved under Lichfield on 22 Apr 1676. His personalty was valued at £400/13/4 and included " In the Hall "a bible & stand & booke of Martyrs 14/0 ... a table Form 2 leather chairs and other wooden ware 12/0 ... a grate 4/0 ... mapps and pictures 2/6" ... "In the study "Bookes £50" ... a table shelvs & boxes £1/6/8" "In Money due by bond & other debts £140" "of the house in Bore Street £100" . Harrison married about 1641 Elizabeth (probably Elizabeth Beardsley (b 1620) daughter of Richard Beardsley of Lichfield) by whom he had 7 sons and 6 daughters. His oldest daughter Sarah married on 1 Jan 1665.6 at Blithfield to Isaac Sympson M.A. (vicar of Alrewas) c1641-1684 QV who had been presented by Harrison in 1662 and who succeded him at Lichfield St Mary. Another daughter Mary married about 1680 John Inett 1647-1718 (chanter of Lincoln cathedral) . In 1695 Harrison's widow was living in Bore Street, Lichfield with two widowed daughters and some grandchildren. Harrison qua vicar of Lichfield St Mary was patron of the parochial chapelries of Lichfield St Chad (where he had probably presented Hugh Braddocke QV in 1663) and Lichfield St Michael. Also Harrison qua prebendary of Alrewas was patron of the vicarage of Alrewas (where he had presented Isaac Sympson QV in 1662) and of the parochial chapelries of Edingale (~~where he had probably presented Thomas Wilson QV in 1663~~), Kings Bromley (where he had probably presented Brutus Ottey QV in 1662) and Pipe Ridware (where he had probably presented Josias Deane QV about 1663). Elias Ashmole of Lichfield esquire 1617-1692 who was a freemason styles Richard Harrison "brother" in the years 1646 and 1676 perhaps because Harrison was a fellow freemason.

(1915) It is uncertain how long he remained vicar here [Lichfield St Mary], but in 1650 he was acting as curate at Tettenhall and in 1652 became "vicar" there. On 13 Apr 1655 the inhabitants of Tettenhall petitioned the Council of State for the removal of Harrison from the ministry there and stated that he had been articled against for malignancy at Lichfield after its reduction on 10 Jul 1646; and that he had not been approved by the commissioners on 24 Nov 1654, notwithstanding which the malignants of Tettenhall had kept him in possession of the cure which he had served for 5 years. The petitioners succeeded in getting him removed, but in August 1658 he obtained the rectory of Blithfield. In 1660 he was made chancellor of Lichfield and soon after was restored to the vicarage of S. Mary's, in which church he was buried. [1915 178]

HARRISON, RICHARD (41). vicar of St Mary, Lichfield, 1645. According to Walker he was imprisoned. curate of Tettenhall, presented under Great Seal, 27 May 1653, on death of predecessor, to whom he was curate from 4 Feb 1648.9. 'Well-affected' parishioners petitioned Council for his ejection, 1655; alleged he officiated at Lichfeld, then a royal garrison; on deserting Lichfeld was articled against for delinquency ; the Triers would not approve him. Council left petitioners to proceed in ordinary course of law. T. Buxton (C.R.) admitted 25 July 1655. P.R. shows Harrison resigned registrarship, 24 Jan. 1656/7, having failed to get particulars 'not only in regard of his enforced absence, but through the neglect or wilfulness of persons concerned'. rector of Blithfield, admitted by Triers, 1658. Canon of Lichfeld (not earlier, pace W.), 1660-76 d. Children by wife Elizabeth, 2 sons & 2 daus., bap. at Tettenhall, 1649-56. See W. Langley & Gr. Higgs: A.M. 36792. 67: P.R.: Calendar of State Papers Domestic 1655: Lambeth MS 999. 78: 46 R. [Walker Rev.]
(1919) On Aug. 4th 1658 Richard Harrison, M.A., was instituted rector on the presentation of Edward Bagot, Esq. [fn3 So Lambeth MSS. 999, fol. 78. He may possibly have acted in the matter as being resident at Blithfield, but he was not the lawful patron, unless indeed his father, Sir Hervey, who was still living at Field, had in his lifetime made over the property to him.] ~~The entry relating to this in the Parish Register is as follows : —Richard Harrison Mr of Arts & clerk was approved & admitted rector of Blithfield within the County of Stafford the fourth day of August 1658, & had peaceable possession of the said rectory given him by the Churchwardens Walter Proctor & William Brookes upon Wednesday the 18th day of the fores'd August and quiett and peaceable possession of the Parsonage house by Mr John Middleton late Curate there upon Monday the 13th day of December in the presence of Mr ... Glen of Dovebridge Clerke, & Mr Thomas Launder of Ridgley. - Walter Proctor William Brookes- church wardens. After hee was instituted by Accepted Lord Bishop of Lich : & Coventric inducted by M' John Sanders Aug 7. 1660.~~ [see corrected entry, above] His previous career during the time of the Great Rebellion had been a stormy one. He had been instituted vicar of S. Mary's, Lichfield, Sep. 29th 1645 ; but was soon after ousted, for in 1649 we find Tallent and Cleyton the joint ministers there. Butler succeeded Tallent, and Langley Cleyton ; and Langley was succeeded by Miles, both Miles and Butler being ejected in 1661, when Harrison was restored. On being driven out of S. Mary's about the year 1649 he became minister of Tettenhall. On April 13th 1655 the inhabitants of that place petitioned the Council of State for his removal, stating that he was of Lichfield, and on its reduction was articled against for malignancy, that he had been disapproved by "the Commissioners for the approbation of ministers " on Nov. 24th 1654, and yet was still kept by the malignants of Tettenhall, though they (the petitioners) had provided a substitute. [fn1 S.P. Dom. Inter., xcvi, p30] The Council made no order, but left the petitioners to proceed in the ordinary way. The result seems to have been that Harrison was ejected from Tettenhall about June 1655. It is doubtful whether he was ever legally instituted as vicar, but for the first two years of his ministrations there he seems to have acted as Curate to Thomas Beeston the vicar. At Lichfield he was not only vicar of S. Mary's but also Canon and chancellor of the Cathedral, and though his duties as such would have mainly kept him there, yet he was resident at Blithfield, at least sometimes, for Isaac Sympson, vicar of Alrewas, was married here to his eldest daughter, Sarah, in Jan. 1665/6, and their daughter, Sarah, was baptized here on Dec. 13th of that year.1 He was buried at St. Mary's Lichneld, as stated in the following entry in the Register of that Parish, "April 1676 Mr. Richard Harrison vicar of St. Mary's was buried the 3rd day."[SHC 1919 p115-7]

James Haydock (?presbyterian minister of Newchapel) e1628-....
Haydock, born perhaps about 1628 is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by about Jan 1657.8 when he was probably appointed ?presbyterian minister of Newchapel dependent parochial chapelry. Here he received an augmentation of £19. On 23 Mar 1657.8 (after approval by the Protector) the Trustees for maintenance granted him an additional augmentation of £21. Payment of the £40 is mentioned about 1658/9. No further record has been discovered.

It is expected that the church will be erected in 1851, and for the present divine service is performed by the vicar of St Luke's District Parish, in a temporary wooden church, in Coseley Street. 1195. HENRY BROWN was indicted for stealing, on the 27th of April, 1 handkerchief, value 1s. 6d., the goods of William James Heale, from his person. WILLIAM JAMES HEALE. I am a student of Wadham college, Oxford. On the 27th of April, between twelve and one o'clock, I was on Holborn-hill, by Field-lane - I felt something at my coat pocket; I turned round, and saw the prisoner in the hands of a gentleman, who had stopped him, and charged with having my handkerchief; I drew his hand out of his pocket, with my handkerchief in it. [The Proceedings of the Old Bailey 17th May, 1832]

James Hean (parochial curate of Pelsall) e1640-1678 H53
Hean, born perhaps about 1640, is of unknown parentage. He was only educated to literate grade. On 7 Aug 1663, apparently before ordination, after probable presentation by the dean of Wolverhampton then Bruno Ryves c1595-1677 he was licensed parochial curate of Pelsall and also appointed schoolmaster of Pelsall parish school. In Sep 1664 he was ordained deacon by Lichfield. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Pelsall constablewick and was assessed on 1 hearth. In Feb 1668 he was licensed as a preacher and in Sep 1669 ordained priest (both) by Lichfield. He probably resigned at Pelsall before 13 Sep 1671 when after probable presentation by the Crown he was instituted vicar of Shustoke, Warwicks. On 14 Dec 1676 he was also, jointly, in office as parochial curate of Over Whitacre, Warwicks. Still in office at Shustoke he died, aged about 38, and was buried here in May 1678. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 24 Oct 1678. His personalty was valued at £92 and included "all his bookes in his study & other things £8/6/8". Hean married on 5 Sep 1668 at Wolverhampton to Mary Bullock by whom he had 1 son and 2 daughters.

HELMORE, Rev. THOMAS (b Kidderminster, May 7,1811; d. London, July 6,1890), was educated at Magdalen Hall, Oxford. In 1840 he became curate of St. Michael's, Lich-field, and a priest-vicar of Lichfield Cathedral. In 1842 he was appointed Vice-Principal and Precentor of St. Mark's College, Chelsea, and in 1846 succeeded William Hawes as Master of the Choristers of the Chapel Royal, of which in 1847 he was admitted as one of the Priests in Ordinary. He was author or editor of The Psalter noted, The Canticles noted, A Manual of Plain-Song, A Brief Directory of Plain Song, The Hymnal noted, Carols for Christmas, Carols for Easter, St. Mark's College Chaunt Book and The Canticles accented; and translator of Fetis's Treatise on Chorus Singing. He composed music for some of Neale's translations of Hymns for the Eastern Church. See CHANT. [GROVE 1928]

Joseph Hemings M.A. (presbyterian minister of Rolleston) 1623-1670
Hemings, christened on 14 Sep 1623, was a son of John Heminge of Lacock, Wilts c1589-.... He studied at Oxford where on 13 May 1642 he was a "commoner" at Magdalen Hall and matriculated but is not known to have graduated. However in 1668 his "Oxford M.A." was incorporated at Cambridge. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 1648 when he was apparently presbyterian assistant minister to Thomas Lightfoot (vicar of Uttoxeter) c1572-1653 QV. On 19 Dec 1648 he published Certain quaeries touching the rise and observation of Christmas propounded to such as are zealously, but blindly, affected towards the observation of it which was perhaps reprinted in Apr 1649 as Sixteen queries touching the rise and observation of Christmas. Edward Fisher published a reply in 1651. In 1649 Heming published Judas excommunicated, or a vindication of the communion of saints. Being a brief examination and clear refutation of Mr Peter Lightfoots arguments for proof of Judas his receiving the sacrament of the lords supper, (which, could he prove, makes nothing at all for a mixt communion). In this book, in which he attacks the practice of admitting all baptized persons to communion, Hemings speaks of the vicar "I should superabundantly wrong him, if I should not rank him among the vilest in the kingdom ..." Later that year Peter Lightfoot (son of the vicar) made a reply in A battle with a wasp's nest; or, a reply to an angry and railing pamphlet, written by Mr. Joseph Heming, ... wherein his arguments are answered, his abuses whipt and stript: the question, 'whether Judas received the sacrament,' debated, and the affirmative proved. He writes "till Uttoxeter knew Mr. Heming, peace, amity, and charity, dwelt amongst us, in few towns more; but now nothing but dissension, biting, and backbiting". On 7 Aug 1651 his appointment at Uttoxeter was approved by the Westminster assembly of divines. By 1654 Hemings was in office as presbyterian minister of Rolleston rectory when he certified the fitness of candidates for the ministry. He was replaced in office on 13 May 1657. About that time he was appointed presbyterian minister of Lydd vicarage, Kent. In Jun 1660 he likely continued in office as de facto vicar but was displaced from office by Edward Wilsford who was instituted vicar on 25 Jul 1660. In his petition for presentation Wilsford called Hemings "a fanatic who was formerly chaplain to Colonel Pride". This was Thomas Pride c1608-1658 [ODNB] who was a parliamentary army officer and regicide. It is not known when Hemings served as an army chaplain. Hemings was presumably ordained deacon and priest before 28 Aug 1666 when after presentation by Edward Montagu 2nd Earl of Manchester 1602-1671 he was instituted rector of Swineshead, Hunts. Still in office he died, aged 47, in 1670. His will made on 22 Aug 1670 was proved under PCC on 3 Nov 1670. Hemings married first perhaps about 1653 to Ann (d 1659) by whom he probably had two sons. He married second on 27 Nov 1659 at Lydd to Dorothy (widow of ----- Etherick) (no known children).

(1915) oc. 1654 Joseph Heming 6- 6 Heming, Hemming. Probably had been a virulent anabaptist? preacher at Uttoxeter in 1649, who fell out with the vicar there and wrote some controversial pamphlets. (Simms, Redfern's Uttoxeter, 2nd ed. p208-11) He certified the fitness of candidates for the ministry in 1654. (LMS 997 pt.1 n0.52) One of this name was the son of John Hemming of Lacock, Wilts, matriculated at Magdalen Hall, Oxford, in 1642, aged 18, and became rector of Swineshead, Hunts, in 1666 (Foster). [1915 p 216-7]

(1924) MR. HEMING OF UTTOXETER. About 1648 there was resident at Uttoxeter a certain Joseph Heming.{fn: S.,217} He seems first to have come to the town as Curate to Thomas Lightfoot, father of the famous Dr. John, who had been vicar there for more than forty years. Heming had not been long in Uttoxeter before he began to give utterance by word of mouth and by pen to views of a violently controversial order. In 1648 he issued a tract entitled "Certain Queries touching the Rise and Observance of Christmas propounded to the Consideration of all such as are zealously (but blindly) affected towards the Observation of it". He followed this up a year later with a deliverance on the terms of admission to communion. Thomas Lightfoot, who belonged to the old days before the Commonwealth and had been episcopally ordained, gave sacrament to all baptised persons who sought it. On this practice Heming poured forth all the poison of his bile. "He often times in the pulpit, though I must tell you that I believe he is no more a lawful minister than yourself, declaimed against the sacrament calling it 'a communion of dogs and devils; a rotten twopenny communion; if they did believe that Judas did receive the sacrament they might do as Judas did; that is go and receive and then go and hang themselves.' {fn: Redfern Uttoxter 208) So we learn from Peter Lightfoot, son of the vicar, and a doctor in the town, who drew up some notes on this question of Judas and the sacrament, which he privately circulated. They fell, however, into the hands of Heming, who returned to the attack with another pamphlet dedicated to "all the saints of the Most High God in and about Uttoxeter," and entitled "Judas Excommunicated or a Vindication of the Communion of Saints." The closing passage will serve to illustrate the writer's style. "I should superabundantly wrong him, if I should not rank him among the vilest in the kingdom, for with them he will have communion, as a member of the same external visible body, by virtue of which relation they are all his brethren and sisters, so that he hath his brother drunkard, brother thief, brother murderer, brother liar, sister whore, sister witch, etc., yea all that have been hanged at Tyburn and all other gallows ever since he was born and baptised into that fellowship he pleads for, have been his brethren and sisters; let him or anyone else, upon good grounds deny it if he can." The reply to this pharisaical piece of scurrility was aptly styled "A Battle with a Wasps Nest". Though published under the name of Peter Lightfoot it was probably the work of his more eminent brother, and is included as such in the edition of his works issued in 1825. Whoever the author, he dealt trenchantly with his opponent. "Some of them," he writes, "have pretended to holiness and precision in religion above other men, many years before Mr. Heming came here or his name was known . ... and I hope these ancient professors have not changed their charity though they have changed their light." "What is it to come out of Babylon? It is to withdraw from the communion, to refrain from singing of psalms, vilify the Lord's prayer (a carnal fleshly ordinance) and infant baptism." He bewails the bitterness which Heming had stirred up. "Poor Uttoxeter torn in pieces with dissension since he came amongst us, nothing but dissensions, biting and back biting in no town the like." "I believe he is no more a lawful minister than I am." For the rest the pamphlet is mainly concerned with proving that Judas did take the sacrament and thereby showing the justification of a mixed communion. [Matthews (1924) p24-5]

The hon. and learned Member then read from a local newspaper an account of what occurred in the case of John Alcock, a parishioner of Cauldon, a rural parish in the centre of England. This man, who was a Dissenter, died on the 25th September, 1863, of age and paralysis. On the following Sunday the corpse was taken to the parish church for interment, in the usual way; but the incumbent, the Rev. Rowland Henniker, refused to perform the service - conduct for which he assigned no reason. Appeal being made to the Bishop of Lichfield, he wrote an expostulatory letter to Mr. Henniker; who thereon gave permission to the parish clerk to put the body in the grave, but refusing himself to read the burial service. This was communicated to the Bishop, who wrote requesting the parish clerk and churchwarden to get the nearest clergyman to bury the body, and promising to indemnify him. The Rev. Mr. Ward undertook the duty; but Mr. Henniker got possession of the keys of the church, and refused to permit him to do so. The relatives of the deceased, fearing that the corpse might be clandestinely put into a grave by night, kept watch and ward; and for some time the churchyard was more like the scene of a not than consecrated ground. At length Mr. Ward determined to perform the service without the incumbent's consent; they accordingly proceeded to the church with the relatives, and took possession of the corpse; but Mr. Henniker quickly arrived, stripped the surplice off Mr. Ward, and locked himself into the church. Mr. Ward then performed the service in the churchyard, and the poor man was buried, having been kept above ground fourteen days.

John Hill (compliant minister of Rocester) c1581-....
Hill, born about 1581, is of of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably ordained deacon and priest before 23 May 1611 when after presentation by [Sir] Richard Fleetwood of Calwich in Ellastone [1st baronet] c1577-1649 he was instituted vicar of Ellastone. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. On 4 Oct 1645 the Committee for plundered ministers ordered Hill to appear before the Staffordshire parliamentary committee to answer complaints that "in contempt of the Parl. [he had] removed the Communion Table altarwise after it hath beene by authority of Parl. removed from the East End of the Church and hath used the booke of Common Prayer since the Directory was appoynted to be observed, and otherwise expressed very great malignancy against Parl." Hill refused to appear and on 23 Dec 1645 the same Committee sequestered him and appointed William Langley 1618-1689 QV as minister. By 16 May 1647 Hill was in office as compliant minister of Rocester (immediately south of Ellastone) where he was still in office on 11 Aug 1650 (when his second wife was buried here) and perhaps in 1651.2. No further record has been discovered but he is said to have died before 1 Sep 1662 when his next known successor was in office. Hill married first on 18 Oct 1611 at Ellastone to Elizabeth Salt 1593-1634 dau of William Salt of ?Wootton in Ellastone c1554-.... by whom he had 3 sons and 1 daughter. Hill married second on 1 Nov 1634 at Ellastone to Marie Parker (d 1650) (no known children). His daughter Elizabeth was the first wife of - his predecessor at Rocester - Thomas Bentley (parochial curate of Rocester) 1619-1647 QV.

Matthias Hill (parochial curate of Maer) c1622-.... H54
Hill, born perhaps about 1622, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably ordained deacon (? and priest) before 1 Sep 1662 when he was in office as parochial curate of Rocester. Here he probably resigned before about 25 Mar 1664 when he was in office as parochial curate of Maer. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Maer and Aston constablewick and was assessed on 2 hearths at Maer township. He was still in office on 23 Nov 1676 but had been succeded by 1681. Maer married perhaps about 1652 to Mary (d 1675) (no known children).

John Hilton M.A. (parochial curate of Great Barr) c1611-1684 H55
Hilton, born about 1611, was a son of Richard Hilton of Bloxham, Oxon "gentleman" c1581-?1657. He studied at Oxford where on 20 Nov 1629 he was a student at St John's College and subscribed as an anglican. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 19 Feb 1630.1 (M.A., Hart Hall, 19 May 1637). On 18 Dec 1636 he was ordained deacon by Oxford and in Sep 1637 ordained priest by Oxford pro Lichfield. It is possible that about 1640 after presentation by the rector of Aldridge then Richard Pretty c1611-1682 QV he was licensed parochial curate of Great Barr and from 5 Feb 1643.4 continued here as compliant minister. Still in office as minister in early Jun 1660 he was then reinstated as parochial curate and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. About Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 6/8. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 14 Aug 1662. Perhaps at this period he was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Great Barr constablewick and was assessed on 10 hearths. Still in office he died, aged about 73, with burial here on 8 Oct 1684. His undated will was proved under Lichfield on 4 Nov 1684. His personalty was valued at about £300 and included "Bookes and other things £10". Hilton writes in his will "I give unto my brother Mr Richard Hilton of Walsall (if he shall be living after me) all my Latin books and all my papers & wrightings which doe not concern my estate". Hilton married on 2 Jun 1659 at Great Barr to Ann Scott c1624-?1676 dau of William Scott of Great Barr gentleman c1584-1644 and Eleanor (Frith) by whom he had 6 sons and 1 daughter. Richard Hilton (presbyterian minister of West Bromwich) c1625-1706 QV was a younger brother.

Richard Hilton B.A. (presbyterian minister of West Bromwich) c1625-1706 G24
Hilton, born about 1625, was a son of Richard Hilton of Bloxham, Oxon "gentleman" c1581-?1657. He studied at Oxford where on 9 Apr 1641 he was a "commoner" at Christ Church College and matriculated. At Oxford he was created B.A. "by virtue of the chancellor's letter" on 17 Dec 1644. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 30 Jul 1648 when he was in office as presbyterian minister of West Bromwich independent parochial chapelry. Whilst here the Trustees for maintenance sometimes granted him an augmentation of £20 (out of their tenths fund) to his annual salary of £80. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto parochial curate. On 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to the Act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. On 6 Sep 1665 Robert Greville 4th Baron Brooke of Beauchamps Court c1638-1677 (then Lord Lieutenant of Staffordshire) reported that he had "secured" four ejected ministers in Staffordshire - John Nott 1625-1702 QV, Richard Hincks e1622-1683 QV, Hilton and William Fincher c1628-1691 QV. That year Hilton and Fincher were both probably living at Walsall where "Richard Hilton" and "Mr Fincher" were both assessed on 3 hearths. In 1669 Fincher, Hilton and five other named ministers were preachers at a conventicle held at the houses of Mrs Pearson, Mr Fowler and Mr Eves in Walsall. (In 1665 Richard Hilton was a neighbour of George Pearson - 6 hearths- whilst Fincher was a neighbour of Edward Eames ?recte Eves - 4 hearths). On 18 Nov 1672 Hilton was licensed as a presbyterian teacher at West Bromwich. Hilton is said to have been sometime chaplain to Philip Foley of Prestwood in Kingswinford esquire 1648-1716 (who married in 1670 Penelope Paget dau of William Paget 6th Baron Paget of Beaudesert 1609-1678). The Common Fund survey of dissenting ministers taken about 1690 has under Staffordshire the entry "Ministers that have a Competent Supply - Mr Richd Hilton ejected - Maintaines a Lecture att Wassall, hath little assistance though many able men in the towne is minister of ~~Bromwich~~ Bromwich[sic]". By 1693 he was living at Walsall where his house was licensed for worship in 1693. On 4 Mar 1705.6 he was reported to the Fund Board as "old above 80" and having an assistant John Godly to whom a grant of £6 was paid until 1729. Hilton died, aged about 81, and was buried on 16 Sep 1706 at Walsall. His will made on 1 Oct 1705 was proved under Lichfield on 9 Oct 1706. In his will he bequeathed various books (below). His personalty was valued at £51 and included "Item the Books in the Studdy £10". Hilton married at an unknown date (perhaps about 1665) to Hannah (no known children). She survived him. Calamy records in 1713 that Hilton "was a good Scholar, a judicious Divine ... A Man of great simplicity and plain heartedness; and a very profitable substantial Preacher. ... He was generally respected, even by the worst of Men; being retir'd, and charitable, and inoffensive in his whole Carriage. In the close of his Days, being ask'd about his Nonconformity, he profess'd an intire Satisfaction in it; hop'd GOD would enable him to do the same again, if it were then to be done. He liv'd in Self-denial among a poor People, doing good both to their Souls and Bodies; and when dying, shew'd his great concern for their future Provision and spiritual Welfare." Hilton had an older brother John Hilton M.A. (parochial curate of Great Barr) c1611-1684 QV who was ordained as an anglican and subscribed to the Act of uniformity. John states in his will "I give unto my brother Mr Richard Hilton of Walsall (if he shall be living after me) all my Latin books and all my papers & wrightings which doe not concern my estate". Richard Hilton states in his will "I give Mr Baxters Christiane Directory, & Mr Clarks Annotations on the Bible to my Cosen Richard Hilton. Likewise I give to my cosen Georg Bret ten books or volumes set down in a scedule hereunto annexed if he doe demand them within a year after my decease. All the rest of my Books I leave and give to Samuel Hunt of Coventry the younger, if he be bred up to the Ministry, or otherwise to be disposed of ... " As mentioned above his books were valued at £10. The two named books in his will

were likely: Richard Baxter A christian directory: Or, a summ of practical theologie, and cases of conscience ... (1673) and Samuel Clark The holy bible, containing the old testament and the new: With annotations and parallel Scriptures ... (1690). The "scedule" lists the following ten volumes:

Robert Hilton B.A. (vicar of Lapley) 1607-1667 H56

Hilton, christened on 15 May 1607 at Warrington, was a son of Robert Hilton of Warrington, Lancs "gentleman". He studied at Oxford where on 20 Oct 1626 he was a student at Brasenose College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 10 Jun 1630. On 5 Mar 1630.1 he was ordained deacon and on 26 May 1632 ordained priest (both) by Lichfield. On 24 May 1638 after presentation by Richard Congreve of Stretton esquire c1610-1689 he was instituted vicar of Lapley. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister but was removed in 1648. About 1650 Hilton was appointed compliant minister of Tong parochial chapelry, Salop - where he was also a schoolmaster. In early Jun 1660 he probably continued here as de facto parochial curate but resigned when he was, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660) restored as vicar of Lapley where in Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 5/0. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 5 Aug 1662. In Jan 1663.4 he was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 the vicarage was valued at £26/3/4. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Lapley constablewick and was assessed on 2 hearths at Lapley township. Still in office he died, aged about 60, and was buried here on 17 Apr 1667. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 1 May 1667. His personalty was valued at £196/19/11 and included "In the studdy one frame for books and his liberary of books, one joyned chare and one round table £10". Hilton married about 1640 to Martha (d 1668) by whom he had 2 daughters. [NB: From 1648 to 1659 John Jackson c1605-.... was compliant minister at Lapley. He objected to an order to pay Hilton's wife Martha a fifth since "her husband is minister of Tonge, in Shropshire, where he keeps a school, and has Sutton chapelry, co. Stafford. "]

Hinckley, born perhaps about 1628, is of unknown parentage (but may have been a son of Thomas Hinckley e1598-.... who was parochial curate of Croxden in 1639). He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably anglicanly ordained deacon before 1 Sep 1662 when he was in office as parochial curate of Croxden. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Greatgate & Musden constablewick (which included Croxden township) but was not assessed there. On 1 Aug 1665 he was "noted as excommunicated" and on 4 Aug "was noted as having been deprived of the benefice of Croxden on account of various clandestine [lost]". On 23 Nov 1693 he was in office at Croxden and also, jointly, at Bradley-in-the-Moors. Probably still in both offices he died, aged about 66, and was buried on 23 Apr 1694 (perhaps as requested in the chancel) at Croxden. His will made on 25 Feb 1689.90 was proved under Lichfield on 4 May 1694. His personalty was valued at £77/6/4 and included "his books £4". Hinckley married about 1657 to a woman by whom he had 3 sons and 2 daughters. He may have married second to Margaret by whom he had 1 daughter.

Richard Hincks (presbyterian minister of Tipton) e1622-1683 B25

Hincks, born perhaps about 1622, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade.

He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 1650 when he was in office as presbyterian ?assistant minister of Pensax, Worcs. On 25 Jun 1651 he was appointed presbyterian assistant minister of Wolverhampton. In 1651.2 he was presbyterian minister of Bilston independent parochial chapelry and (?jointly) in 1652 presbyterian minister of Tipton independent parochial chapelry. In 1648 the royalist ironmaster Dud Dudley ALIAS Tomlinson of Tipton gentleman c1599-1684 absconded and his estates were probably sequestered. Perhaps after 1652 Hincks purchased one of these estates but at the restoration in 1660 the purchase was declared fraudulent rendering Hincks insolvent. By late 1656 as "Minister at Tipton" he was a member of the Worcestershire Association. In 1656 the Trustees for maintenance sometimes granted him an augmentation of £10 to his annual salary. The augmentation had been increased to £20 by 1658. About 25 Mar 1659 he received an augmentation of £2/10/0 (£10 pa) from the Trustees for ministers' maintenance (out of their tenths fund). In Oct 1659 he is said to have assisted in raising soldiers for the army of parliamentary general John Lambert 1619-1684 who attempted (unsuccessfully) to stop George Monck (later 1st Duke of Albemarle) 1608-1670 - then in favour of the restoration of the monarchy - marching on London. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto parochial curate of (? Bilston and) Tipton. In a petition from Tipton to the Crown dated 7 Jan 1660.1 he is described "as a person notoriously disaffected to His Majesty and his government". Subsequent proceedings at Stafford Assizes continued until 21 Jul 1662 when he was acquitted as not guilty. On 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to The act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived from (? Bilston and) Tipton. On 20 Jan 1662.3 John Taylor e1623-1673 was licensed as parochial curate of Tipton. He probably also served as parochial curate of Bilston. At Tipton Taylor is said to have allowed Hincks "to live in the parsonage-house, upon easy terms". In fact as a parochial chapelry Tipton would not have had a parsonage (as such) so that the house involved may have been Taylor's personal property. In 1665 Hincks was assessed on 4 hearths at Tipton. On 6 Sep 1665 Robert Greville 4th Baron Brooke of Beauchamps Court c1638-1677 (then Lord Lieutenant of Staffordshire) reported that he had "secured" four ejected ministers in Staffordshire - John Nott 1625-1702 QV, Hincks, Richard Hilton c1625-1706 QV and William Fincher c1628-1691 QV. In 1669 Hincks was probably a teacher of conventicles held at Darlaston and at Sedgley (where he is called William). On 5 Sep 1672 he was licensed as a congregational teacher and his house at Tipton was licensed for congregational worship. After Taylor's death in 1673 Hincks moved to the parish of Old Swinford, Worcs where he likely lived in the township of Stourbridge. Hincks died, probably aged about 61, and was buried on 22 Dec 1683 at Old Swinford. He married on 29 Nov 1652 at Tipton to Elizabeth Clare (d 1684) by whom he had 7 sons. Calamy records in 1727 "And tho before the Change of the Times he was warm and hot yet he then became very cool and moderate and ... died in great Amity with Christians of various Denominations in the County of Stafford".

In a book entitled "The Life of Elias Ashmole, Esq., [Elias Ashmole of Lichfield, Staffs esquire 1617-1692]" occurs the following entry in his diary : "Mr. Henry Hinde, Organist of the Cathedral [Lichfield], who died the 6th of August, 1641, taught me the virginels and organ." There is an Anthem by him, "Sing Praises," in Barnard's Collection. [West CATHEDRAL ORGANISTS (1921)]

$Nathaniel Hinde M.A. (presbyterian minister of Penkridge) ?1605-1673 (H58)
Hinde, (? christened on 14 Apr 1605 at Bunbury), was probably a son of ●William Hinde M.A. (preacher of Bunbury, Cheshire) c1569-1629 and Margaret (?Foxe). He studied at Cambridge where on 29 Jun 1622 he was admitted as a sizar at Emmanuel College and matriculated. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1626.7 (M.A., 1630).
He was presumably qualified as a presbyterian clergyman when the Committee for plundered ministers appointed him presbyterian minister of Penkridge vicarage and on 26 Sep 1646 granted him an augmentation (from the rectorial revenue which had been sequestered from Sir Edward Littleton of Pillaton in Penkridge 1st baronet c1599-1657) of £50 to his annual salary of £24. Apparently a committed presbyterian, he signed the Staffordshire testimony of Jul 1648 as "Nathaniel Hinde Minister of Gods Word at Penckridg". On 22 Sep 1652 he was granted a second augmentation of £26 (out of the tithes of the Wolverhampton prebends of Hilton and Featherstone). He was chosen parish register on 25 Sep 1653. A new register book - presumably with entries written by Hinde - principally records baptisms (rather than births) from 6 Oct 1653 through to the end of the prebysterian intrusion and beyond. Hinde frequently certified the fitness of candidates for the ministry in 1658. In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de facto vicar. On ?10 Mar 1660.1 he was ordained deacon and priest by Lincoln at London. About Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 10/0. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Dunston & Drayton, Levedale, Otherton & Rodbaston, Stretton & Water Eaton and Penkridge constablewicks and was assessed on 3 hearths at Penkridge township. Still in office he died, aged about 68, and was buried here on 5 Nov 1673. His will made on 6 Oct 1673 was proved under Lichfield on 28 Jan 1673.4. His personalty was valued at £200/16/0 and included "Bookes in the studdy £30". In his will Hinde bequeathed his books to his two sons Nathaniel Hinde 1637-.... (? vicar of Banstead, Surrey) and Benjamin Hinde 1654-.... (? rector of East Blatchington, Sussex). Hinde married on 21 Jun 1636 at Penkridge to Isabel Hathersich by whom he had 5 sons and 3 daughters. Hinde's probable father William Hinde M.A. (preacher of Bunbury, Cheshire) c1569-1629 was author of several books and is said to have been "an active and outspoken puritan". Hinde qua minister or vicar of Penkridge was patron of the parochial chapelries of Dunston and Stretton and, whilst in office at Penkridge, may have served these chapelries as acting minister or acting parochial curate when they were vacant.

(1915) oc. 1646 bur. 5 Nov 1673 Nathaniel Hinde M.A.? 36 - 36 Hinde. Probably M.A. 1630 Emmanuel College, Cambridge (Venn). Appointed by the committee for plundered ministers, who had deprived his unknown predecessor (Compounding p2484-5). On 26 Sep 1646 this committee granted him £50 pa out of this impropriate rectory, sequestered from Sir Edward Littleton bart. delinquent, as his salary was but £24 pa (SPDI F1 p196, 209, F2 p180; Bodl MS 323 p359; cf325 p277) On 22 Sep 1652 his salary was made up to £100 pa out of the tithes of the prebends of Hilton and Featherstone (Compounding p2484-5). He signed the testimony in 1648 and frequently certified the fitness of candidates for the ministry in 1658 (LMS 999), so perhaps it is noteworthy that he baptized his own and other children here throughout the Interregnum. In 1661 he paid a subsidy of 10/0 and in 1666 a tax on 3 hearths. In this last year he certified the number of hearths at Stretton and Dunston, so it is probable that there were no curates there in 1666. [1915 p205 210]

Ralph Hodges (compliant assistant minister of Birmingham, Warwicks) 1616-....
Hodges, christened on 2 Nov 1616 Butlers Marston, was a son of William Hodges of Butlers Marston, Warwicks c1586-.... [? and (his 1st wife) Ann]. He studied at Oxford where on 10 Oct 1634 he was a "commoner" at Pembroke College and matriculated but is not known to have graduated. He was presumably ordained deacon before 12 Oct 1637 when he was licensed as schoolmaster of Stockton, Warwicks and subscribed. By 1639 he was in office as a stipendiary curate at Birdingbury, Warwicks. He then moved to Birmingham where he appears to have been a compliant assistant minister. Here Mary Smith, widow of the late rector Luke Smith, presented Hodges as rector and on 15 Jun 1646 the House of Lords ordered Robert Aylett LL.D. ?1583-1655 to institute and induct him. On 7 Jul 1646 the order was revoked and the presentation declared illegal. Of Hodges it is said he was "late Curate there, against whom the Parishioners are ready to article for divers Misdemeanors which render him unfit for the Ministry. Another man was admitted as rector on 24 Jul 1646. A record of uncertain date states that on 29 Jun 1646 Hodges was instituted by York as rector of Birmingham - the same record states that on 27 Jun 1646 after presentation by Sir Simon Archer of Umberslade in Tanworth, Warwicks knight 1581-1662 Hodges was instituted vicar of Tanworth

(15 Jun 1646) Application for an order for Dr. Aylett to institute and induct Ralph Hodges to the rectory of Birmingham. Lords Journals, VIII. 374. [Robert Aylett LL.D. ?1583-1655]
(7 Jul 1646) Order to settle the Right of Presentation to the Parson age of Birmingham in L. Say, as Committee of Marrow; and to revoke Hodges's Order for Institution. Whereas the Right of Presentation to the Parsonage of Bermingham, in the County of Warwick, is of Right in the Lord Viscount Say & Seale, as Committee of Edward Marrow esquire, His Majesty's Ward, who is Patron thereof, and yet in his Minority, the said Church being void by reason of the Death of Luke Smith deceased, the last Incumbent there, who died about Eight or Nine Months since, and, by reason of the Garrisons of the Enemies at Dudly Castle and at Lytchfeild, being both near the said Town of Bermingham, no godly honest Minister durst come thither to preach, to be approved of by the Parishioners, or to exercise his Ministry amongst them; whereupon one Ralph Hodges, late Curate there, against whom the Parishioners are ready to article for divers Misdemeanors which render him unfit for the Ministry, hath, by indirect Means, procured a colourable Presentation from the Widow of the said Luke Smith, who hath no Manner of Right thereto, or, if she had any, did not present the said Raph Hodges within Six Months after the last Incumbent's Death, and so was a void Presentation; and the said Mr. Hodges, concealing the said undue and illegal Presentation, and pretending he had a good and rightful Presentation to the said Church, surreptitiously procured an Order from this House, to authorize Doctor Aylett, or his lawful Deputy, to give Institution and Induction to the said Mr. Hodges; all which is offered to be made plainly to appear to this House; and the Petitioners having now offered, together with their Petition one Mr. Samuell Wills, an orthodox, godly, and learned Divine, to the said Viscount: It is therefore now Ordered, by the Lords assembled in Parliament, That the Authority given to Doctor Aylett, or his Deputy, bearing Date the 15th Day of June last, be utterly revoked and made void: And the Lord Viscount Say is left at his Liberty to present to the said Parsonage the said Wills, or whom else be shall please." [House of Lords Journal]
In Tanworth-in-Arden another intruded puritan minister, Ralph Hodges, had been approved by patron and parishioners in 1646 but was summoned before the bishop in 1663 about his 'sins', and in 1667 had to make excuses for using the wrong prayer book.44 When a parishioner challenged Hodges' title to the living he claimed his ordination papers had been lost when the bishop's palace was 'taken by the enemy', an explanation that may have been true and must have been accepted since he remained till his death in 1675, though his weakened authority led to numerous tithe disputes.45 As Ian Green has argued, it was several years before post-Restoration ecclesiastical officials, unfamiliar with men intruded by the parliamentary regime, knew from ecclesiastical visitations which ministers were true conformists and which puritan-leaning clergy, like Hodges, favoured unorthodox modes of worship and pastoral care.46

Randulph Hodgkin (parochial curate of Maer) c1596-1642

Hodgkin, born about 1596, is of unknown parentage. He was only educated to literate grade. On 24 Sep 1620 he was ordained deacon by Peterborough and by Apr 1622 was in office as parochial curate of Maer. On 22 Sep 1622 he was ordained priest by Peterborough. In his will dated 8 Nov 1625 William Cleyton of Radwood in Maer gentleman bequeathed him £1 pa. Still in office at Maer Hodgkin died, aged about 46, and was buried here, probably in the church, on 22 Dec 1642. He may have died intestate. In a later inventory his personalty was valued at £55 and included " his Bookes £10 ". Hodgkin married about 1620 to Alice (d 1656) by whom he had 1 son and 2 daughters. His daughter Mary was the wife of (his successor at Maer) Robert Marchenton e1614-1654 QV. On 20 Sep 1641 Hodgkin was appointed as executor to the will of Randall Hodgkin of Maer yeoman ....-1648. On 15 Jun 1648 the will was executed by Randulph's widow Alice - with the will is an inventory of Randulph's property dated 14 Jun 1648.

THE Rev. George Hodson, M.A., late Archdeacon of Stafford, Canon Residentiary of Lichfield, and vicar of St. Mary's, in that city, was the youngest son of — Hudson, Esq., of Carlisle. At the usual age he entered at Trinity College, Cambridge, where he greatly distinguished himself, graduating in 1810 as seventh wrangler, and obtaining in the same year the second gold medal. Upon taking his degree he was elected a Fellow of Magdalen, of which College he subsequently became tutor. After his marriage he was associated for a short time with his friend, the Rev. James Hensman, in the discharge of clerical duties at Clifton, when he came under the notice of Bishop Ryder (then Bishop of Gloucester), who appointed him his examining chaplain. For several years he held the Incumbency of Christ, Church, Birmingham, his ministry being most acceptable and successful; and in 1828 he became, in succession, vicar of Colwich, Canon of Lichfield; and Archdeacon of Stafford. In 1851, for the more enlarged and efficient discharge of his clerical duties, he exchanged, at a pecuniary sacrifice, the Vicarage of Colwich for that of St. Mary's, Lichfield, rendered vacant by the death of the Rev. J. Lonsdale. This was the scene of his final labours. Having just concluded a visitation of his large archdeaconry, having gone from house to house through the whole of his important parish, having addressed his people for the last time (as if with unconscious presentiment) from the solemn words of St. Paul, "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith;" he left England with his two youngest daughters for a short period of relaxation in Northern Italy and the Tyrol. Here, at Riva, on the Lago di Gorda, he was seized with malignant cholera, and in eight hours, on Sunday, August 12th, he died at the age of sixty-eight years. His body was interred in the Roman Catholic Cemetery at Riva. [The Illustrated London News, Nov.3 1855, p.555]

Edward Holbrook M.A. (rector of Forton) c1602-1653
Holbrook, born about 1602 in Staffordshire, is of unknown parentage. He studied at Oxford where on 10 Mar 1619.20 he was a student at Trinity College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 8 Feb 1620.1 (M.A., 7 Jul 1623). On 21 Sep 1623 he was ordained deacon by Lichfield and likely licensed the same day as parochial curate of Harlaston. Still in that office on 13 Jun 1624 he was ordained priest by Lichfield at Eccleshall. On 16 Oct 1626 after presentation by William Paget 5th Baron Paget of Beaudesert 1572-1628 he was instituted vicar of Abbots Bromley. Here he resigned probably before 31 Dec 1633 when after presentation by the Crown qua guardian of the underage heir of William Watson (of Pattingham, Staffs) 1579-1615 he was instituted vicar of Pattingham and inducted on 4 Jan 1633.4. On 4 Jul 1635 after presentation by Gerard Skrymsher of Aqualate in Forton esquire c1605-1666 he was plurally instituted rector of Forton and paid first fruits on 8 Jul. In 1637 Holbrook built a brick extension on the west side of Forton rectory house. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued as compliant minister in both parishes but under An act against the enjoying of pluralities ... (16 Jan 1642.3) was required to resign one of them.

On 26 Nov 1646 the Committee for plundered ministers granted (the minister here) an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary of £20. Probably about this time Holbrook resigned at Pattingham but continued at Forton. Still in office at Forton he died, aged about 51, was was buried here on 26 Dec 1653. Holbrook married about 1639 to Isabel (d 1686) by whom he had 3 sons and 2 daughters.

Walter Hollier B.A. (parochial curate of Cannock) c1637-a1697 H59
Cooke, born perhaps about 1637, is of unknown parentage. He studied at Oxford where on 29 Oct 1657 he was "a commoner" at Christ Church and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 15 Mar 1660.1. He was ordained deacon and in Dec 1662 ordained priest and also licensed as a preacher (both) by Lichfield. Likely in 1663 after probable presentation by the dean & chapter of Lichfield he was licensed parochial curate of Cannock. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Great Wyrley constablewick (which lay in Cannock parish) but was not assessed within Cannock parish. Hollier probably died, aged about 60, shortly before 19 Sep 1697 when he was replaced in office at Cannock. Hollier married first about 1667 Ann by whom he had 2 sons and 2 daughters. He married second on 23 Nov 1680 at Lichfield cathedral to Mary Hand by whom he had 1 son. His first son Henry Hollier B.A. c1670-.... was a reader at Cannock for a few months in 1696. Richard Hollier B.A. (vicar of Colwich) c1675-1724 was his second son.

Probably connected with the Barton-under-Needwood family, because of the use of the name Walter. Walter Hollier was a graduate of Oxford and became Curate of Cannock in 1666. His eldest son Richard was vicar of Colwich (1700-1724) and rector of Radbourne, WAR (1714-1724). Another son Henry was vicar of Aston 1696-1716. Richard's eldest son Henry (1708-1744) was a noted apothecary in Birmingham. [INTERNET] [NOTE i infant of Walter Hollyer 22 Mar 1694 Barton-under-Needwood]

1 Apr 1664 [FOSTER]

The last rector to be instituted before the Civil War, George Holme,who was presented by the Crown in 1637, was sequestered in 1648. He was accused of seldom preaching at Clowne more than once a month, of being very superstitious and of bowing to the altar. He continued to use the book of Common Prayer and the cross in the baptism service after their abolition by Parliament, and observed the king's Friday feast. He had sheltered in the royal garrisons at Bolsover and Welbeck and given a horse to the kin's service; he also described Parliamentarian soldiers as `rogues, traitors, rebels, russet coats and illiterate fellows', and had promoted the royal cause, assisted the Commissioners of Array and prayed for the success of the earl of Newcastle, of whom he was chaplain and a distant kinsman. Holme was removed from his living with `barbarous inhumanity', as a result of which his wife, who had just given birth, died. [VCH]

... who died after a few days illness of the gout in his stomach on the 22d of Dec. 1734, at his rectory of Ripple in Worcestershire [WOOD Athenae Oxon Vol 1]

Richard Holte (vicar of Rushall) e1579-....
Holte, born perhaps about 1579 is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably ordained deacon and priest before 15 Sep 1604 when after presentation by Sir Edward Leigh of Rushall knight c1545-1617 he was instituted vicar of Rushall. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister and was still in office cJan 1651.2. About 1657 a successor was appointed. No further record (of him or his family) has been discovered.

Anthony Horridge B.A. (vicar of Tutbury) e1588-1655
Horridge, born perhaps about 1588, is of unknown parentage. He studied at Oxford where on 23 Apr 1613 he was probably a student at Magdalen Hall and subscribed as an anglican. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 17 Dec 1614. In 1616 he may have been parochial curate of Caldwell, Derbys but by 22 Aug 1616 was in office as a schoolmaster at Mackworth, Derbys. On 4 Jan 1619.20 he was appointed a stipendiary curate at Rolleston where his son had been christened on 7 Sep 1619. On 31 Oct 1626 after presentation by the Crown qua Duke of Lancaster he was instituted vicar of Tutbury. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. Still in office he died, perhaps aged about 62, on 18 Apr 1655. Horridge married perhaps about 1618 to Mary by whom he had 1 son.

$Alexander Howe B.D. (compliant minister of Draycott-in-the-Moors) c1583-1649
Howe, born about 1583 in Devon, is of unknown parentage. He studied at Oxford where on 20 Jan 1597.8 he was a "commoner" at Exeter College and matriculated but later migrated to Corpus Christi College. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 7 Jun 1602 (M.A., 2 May 1606) (B.D., 25 May 1615). On 22 May 1608 he was ordained deacon by Oxford and on 11 Jun 1609 ordained priest by Gloucester pro Lichfield. In 1610 he was a fellow at Corpus Christi. On 10 Jun 1614 he was instituted rector of Draycott-in-the-Moors. On 16 Nov 1618 he received a faculty office dispensation for plurality and on 17 Nov 1618 after presentation by (? Ralph Brown of Meir in Caverswall "gentleman" 1563-1642) he was, plurally, instituted vicar of Caverswall. On 21 Aug 1626 he was collated prebendary of Lichfield Ufton Decani (and installed 26 Aug). On 24 Jan 1637 he was licensed to preach at Draycott-in-the-Moors and in the dioceses of Lichfield & Hereford. From 5 Feb 1643.4 his prebend was abolished but he continued as compliant minister of Draycott and Caverswall. Under An act against the enjoying of pluralities ... (16 Jan 1642.3) he was required to resign one of them and likely resigned at Caverswall perhaps about 1646. Apparently a committed presbyterian, he signed the Staffordshire testimony of Jul 1648 as "Alexand Howe Rector de Dreycott en lee Moores". Still in office at Draycott Howe died, aged about 66, in (? about Mar) 1649 and was buried there. An inscribed monument was placed in (or near) the church. His will made on 4 Feb 1648.9 was proved under PCC on 21 Dec 1649. Howe married on 4 Nov 1620 at Cubley, Derbys to Ellen Bennett daughter of Edward Bennett (rector of Cubley, Derbys) c1565-?1627 by whom he had 1 son - Alexander Howe of Caverswall gentleman c1621-1667. A granddaughter Sarah Howe was the wife of George Newton (rector of Cheadle, Cheshire) c1652-.... In his will Howe bequeathed several of his books and mentioned his father-in-law and also a godson - Alexander Brassington c1630-.... QV one of his successors at Draycott:

Thomas Hubbocke M.A. (parochial curate of Lichfield St Michael) c1604-1668 H60
Hubbocke, born about 1604, was a younger son of William Hubbocke (rector of Nailstone, Leics) c1561-1631. He studied at Oxford where on 15 Dec 1620 he was a student at Oriel College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 19 Feb 1624.5 (M.A., 7 Jul 1627). On 13 Jun 1624 he was ordained deacon - unusually, before he graduated - and on 24 Sep 1625 ordained priest (both) by Lichfield. On 1 Dec 1628 he was presented by the Crown to the rectory of Nailstone, Leics where his brother John Hubbocke c1597-1657 was in office having been instituted on 5 Nov 1623. The presentation was revoked on 27 Apr 1634. About 1632 after probable presentation by the vicar of Lichfield St Mary then James Povey c1570-.... he was licensed parochial curate of Lichfield St Michael and about the same time was appointed as an under schoolmaster at Lichfield Free School. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister and was probably still in office in 1652. He may have been removed by 1653. In early Jun 1660 he may not have been in any office. He was by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660) restored as parochial curate and subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 22 Aug 1662 when he was also in office as a Lichfield schoolmaster. Still in office he died, aged about 64, and was buried on 5 Dec 1668 at Lichfield St Chad. Hubbock married first on 28 Apr 1641 Lichfield St Mary to Ann Alport (d 1664) (no known children). He married second on 5 May 1664 at Lichfield St Chad & 6 May 1664 at Lichfield St Mary to Joyce Cooper (no known children). Shortly after his death his widow Joyce was assessed on 1 hearth at St John's Street, Lichfield. John Hubbocke (rector of Nailstone, Leics) c1597-1657 was an older brother.

Ralph Hulme (parochial curate of Betley) c1579-1653
Hulme, born about 1579, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. On 18 Sep 1619 he was ordained deacon by Lichfield at Eccleshall. By 27 Apr 1620 he was in office as parochial curate of Betley. In his will dated 8 Nov 1625 William Cleyton of Radwood in Maer gentleman bequeathed him £1 pa. In 1631 Hulme was cited in a Cheshire consistory court for preaching without a licence at Harthill (? in Cheshire), attacking cathedral chapters as unnecessary, requesting more sermons be preached, denigrating singers of morning and evening prayers and asserting that the Lord's Prayer was no more holy than other prayers. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued at Betley as compliant minister. On 12 Dec 1646 the delinquent Randal Egerton of Betley esquire 1619-1681 settled £20 pa on Betley church. About 1649 it was said that Hulme's annual income was no more than £14 pa and that he had been for ?30 years "a painful preacher". A group of about 70 parishioners then requested that he be given the impropriation of the parish. Still in office he died, aged about 74, and was buried here on 3 Dec 1653. Hulme married about 1609 to Ann by whom he had 3 sons and 2 daughters.

William Hulton (parochial curate of Keele) ?1614-1672
Hulton, (?christened on 18 Apr 1614), was probably 1st son of Adam Hulton of Breightmet in Bolton, Lancs chapman 1580–1630 and Ann (Ainsworth). Hulton was probably only educated to literate grade (although in one record he is apparently styled "M.A."). On 24 May 1635 Hulton was ordained deacon by Chester pro Lichfield. About 1644 he may have been appointed as compliant minister of Keele parochial chapelry - his son was christened here in 1645. His appointment was only approved by the Commission (? for approbation of public preachers) on 10 Oct 1655. On 16 Oct 1655 the Trustees for maintenance granted him an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto parochial curate. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 10/0 and subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 19 Aug 1662 (when he was also in office as a reader at Madeley). At Keele he probably resigned before 6 Aug 1663 when after presentation by William Willmer and Felicity Crompton he was instituted as rector of Sywell, Northants. Still in office he died, aged about 58, and was buried here on 16 Aug 1672. His will made on 13 Aug 1672 was proved under Northampton on 20 Aug 1672. Hulton married to Ann by whom he may have had 4 sons and 4 daughters. His daughter Mary was the wife of Thomas Pickford (parochial curate of Edale, Derbys) 1618-1690. [NOTE: A contemporary clergyman William Hulton (?presbyterian minister of Prestwich rectory, Lancs) c1610-.... married in 1637 at Prestwich to Anne Berry.]

Hugh Humphreys M.A. (rector of Drayton Bassett & vicar of Longdon) c1610-1693 H61
Humphreys, born about 1610, is of unknown parentage. He studied at Oxford where on 10 Dec 1630 he was "a commoner" at Christ Church and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 27 Jan 1630.1 (M.A., Trinity College, 5 Jul ?1634). On 25 Sep 1631 he was ordained deacon by Oxford and later presumably ordained priest. About 1635 possibly after presentation by the prebendary of Lichfield Longdon then George Cuthbert c1576-1658 he was instituted vicar of Longdon. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. On 14 Mar 1646.7 the Committee for plundered ministers sequestered him having found that he had deserted his cure and been in arms against parliament. In early Jun 1660 he was not in an office. He was by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660) restored as vicar of Longdon in 1660 (after the removal of Nathaniel Mott c1628-1699 QV). On 18 Sep 1660 he was installed prebendary of Lichfield Flixton. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 18 Jul 1662. On 18 Nov 1662 after presentation by the Crown (29 Oct) he was, plurally, instituted rector of Drayton Bassett. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Drayton Bassett constablewick and was assessed on 3 hearths "for the Parsnage". He did not certify the hearth tax for Longdon constablewick but was assessed on 4 hearths. He resigned at Drayton shortly before 29 Jul 1673. Still in his other two offices he died on 16 May 1693 and was buried on 18 May 1693 at Longdon. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 30 Jun 1693. His inventory included "His study of bookes £6". Humphreys married about 1639 to Fines (d 1695) by whom he probably had 2 daughters. Bridget wife of (his successor) Arthur Shipton (rector of Drayton Bassett) c1646-1722 was probably one of them.

(1915, Longdon) 12 Humphreys, Humphries. Probably B.A. 1630.1 Christ Church, Oxford, M.A. 1634 Trinity College, Oxford (Foster). On 2 Nov 1646 the committee for plundered ministers instructed the committee of parliament for co. Stafford to examine into certain charges that had been made against Humphreys. On 4 Mar 1646.7 the first named committee found that Humphreys had not appeared to answer these charges, that he had deserted his cure, betaken himself to the forces raised against parliament, frequented their garrisons and had been in actual arms against parliament, so it sequestered the vicarage from him to the use of some godly and orthodox minister. (Bodl MS 324 p13 17 343) No subsidy was paid for this vicarage in Jan 1661.2. Humphreys was certainly restored before 1665, as he paid a tax on 4 hearths in that year as vicar here. rector of Drayton Bassett 1662-73 prebendary of Flixton 1661-93. [1915 p181 183]

Christopher Hunt (rector of Colton) c1561-1651
Hunt, born about 1561, is of unkown parentage. He was only educated to literate grade. He was presumably ordained deacon and on 20 Mar 1585.6 ordained priest by Lichfield. In Dec 1592 after probable presentation by Sir Thomas Gresley of Drakelow, Derbys knight 1552-1610 he was instituted rector Colton. By 1602 he has been licensed as a preacher by Lichfield and in 1604 was described as "of loose life, a preacher, weake". On 26 Jan 1610.1 he inducted John Beardmore c1572-1658 QV as rector of Blithfield. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued at Colton as compliant minister. Still in office he died, aged about 90, and was buried here on 30 Jul 1651.

Richard Hunt B.D. (vicar of Walsall) 1594-1662 1639-?1642

Hunt, born on 2 Mar 1593.4 and christened on 3 or 8 Mar 1593.4 at Manchester Cathedral, was a son of William Hunt of Manchester, Lancs "gentleman" and Anne Boulton daughter of William Boulton of Abram in Wigan, Lancs. He was educated at Manchester (? Grammar School). He studied at Cambridge where on 7 May 1610 he was admitted as a sizar at Emmanuel College - presumably matriculated - and later became a scholar. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1613.4 (M.A., 1617) (B.D., 1624). In 1618 he was elected a fellow. On 13 Jul 1619 his M.A. was incorporated at Oxford. On 19 Sep 1619 he was ordained deacon and on 20 Sep 1619 ordained priest (both) by Peterborough. On 14 May 1628 after presentation by Sir Richard Wilbraham of Woodhey in Faddiley, Cheshire 1st baronet c1580-1643 he was instituted vicar of Acton, Cheshire. On 9 Dec 1636 he was installed prebendary of Lichfield Dasset Parva. At Acton he resigned before 16 Feb 1638.9 when after a further presentation by Wilbraham he was instituted vicar of Walsall. He resigned as prebendary of Dasset Parva before 7 Jan 1639.40 when he was collated prebendary of Lichfield Tervin. At Walsall he probably resigned shortly before 30 Apr 1642 about when after presentation by Roger Wilbraham of Dorfold Hall, Cheshire he was instituted rector of Chester St Mary-on-the-Hill (valued at £160/180 pa) and paid first fruits (on 30 Apr). From 5 Feb 1643.4 his prebend was abolished but he continued as compliant minister of Chester St Mary. In Spring 1646 when Chester surrendered to parliamentary forces Hunt was probably ejected. For a short period he was compliant minister of Warmingham rectory, Cheshire but resigned there shortly before 11 Jul 1648. By 21 Jul 1656 he had been reappointed. In early Jun 1660 he was reinstated as rector. Still in office he died, aged 68, on 25 Aug 1662 and was buried there in the choir on 26 Aug. His will made on 26 Jun 1662 was proved under Chester on 20 Sep 1662. Hunt married perhaps about 1630 to Martha Cole daughter of Humphrey Cole of Tillingham, Essex by whom he had 1 daughter. [N.B. Richard Hunt M.A. (vicar of Bishops Itchington, Warwicks) c1596-1661 was a contemporary clergyman.]

(1898) RICHARD HUNT, B.D. His presentation has not occurred, but he was probably appointed on the resignation or death of Francis Edwards. He paid his composition for First Fruits on the 30th April, 18 Charles [1642], so that he must have been appointed early in that year. According to a pedigree in Harl. MS. 2161, f. 1583, he was the son of William Hunt, of Manchester, by his wife Anne, daughter of William Boulton, of Abram, in the parish of Wigan, co. Lanc. He was born on the 2nd March, 1593-4, and was baptized at the Collegiate Church, Manchester, on the 8th of that month. He was not improbably educated at the Manchester Grammar School, and subsequently at Emmanuel College, Cambridge, where he was admitted on the 7th May, 1610, being described as born in Lancashire. He was a scholar of his college and afterwards Fellow. He took his B.A. degree in 1613, that of M.A. in 1617, and B.D. in 1624. He married Martha, daughter of Humphrey Cole, of Tillingham, near Bradwell- juxta-Mare, co. Essex, by whom he had an only surviving daughter and heiress, Grace, who married John Joyce, son and heir of Mr. Alderman Joyce, of Salisbury, by whom she had issue. On the 14th May, 1628, he was presented to the vicarage of Acton, near Nantwich, by Sir Richard Wilbraham, of Dorfold, Bart., and he was also for a time vicar of Walsall, co. Stafford. In the year 1639 he was elected to the prebendal stall of Tarvin in the cathedral at Lichfield. He was still at St. Mary's on the 9th May, 1644, as appears from an entry in the Churchwardens Accounts, but shortly after that he was ejected by the Parliamentary forces, possibly on the surrender of the city to them in the spring of 1646. As will subsequently appear he returned to St. Mary's about 1655, and died there in 1662. --- RICHARD HUNT, B.D. [Re-instated on the death of William Peartree, c1655] On Mr. Peartree's death, the previous rector, Richard Hunt, B.D., would appear to have been reinstated in his old living. His name occurs in the Churchwardens' Accounts on the 21st July, 1656, when he signs himself "Ric Hunt Rector," and he remained there till his death in 1662. In the Registers of Holy Trinity Church, Chester, there are several entries of marriages by Mr. Hunt in 1658, 1659, and 1660, in some of which he is described as "pastor of S' Maries." He died in August, 1662, the following being the entry of his burial in the Register :- "Mr. Richard Huntt minister of St. Maryes was buried in the queare [i.e., the choir] on the north side of Docketer Snealls" ston on the xxvjth Day of Augus[t]." In one of Randle Holme's MSS. in the British Museum (Harl. MS. 1929) is the following entry :- 25 July [sic for August] '62 died that reuerent divine, at 6 in the morning, Rich. Hunt, Rector of St Maryes in Chester, whose memory in his learning [will] let his name liue for euer." His will, dated 26th June, 1662, was proved at Chester on the 2oth September in that year. In it he describes himself as "Richard Hunt, Bachelor in Divinity, Rector of St. Maries within the City of Chester, being aged," and desired his body to be decently buried at the discretion of his executor. To the poor of the parish of St. Mary's he bequeathed 2os. "to be distributed amongst them in bread," and he left small legacies to his servants and others, including one of 5s. " to Richard Hill, sexton, to single out my grave and for making the same." To Mr. Thomas Browne he left 2os, to buy him a ring and to Mrs. Browne 10s. for the same purpose. All the residue of his goods he bequeathed to his daughter, Grace Joyce, and appointed his son-in-law, John Joyce, sole executor. Two of the witnesses to the will were Philippa Browne and Thomas Browne. He signed the will "Ric. Hunt" and used a crest as a seal. When the Rev. John Walker was collecting materials for his history of the "Sufferings of the Clergy " in the year 1706, he had sent to him the following letter, written by the Rev. Samuel Edgley, Vicar of Acton, near Nantwich, and addressed to Nicholas Stratford, then Bishop of Chester.' Mr. Edgley enclosed it in a letter to the Bishop, in which he writes that "the inclosed Account touching M' Hunt, I had from M' Wilbraham of Darfold, who is lately dead," and adds "your Lordship may have a testimonial from the Ancient men of St Marys in Chester concerning that worthy Person." "M' Prebend Wright succeeded in the Place but not immediately. I discoursed him but he is a stranger to the ejection of M' Hunt, being very young early in the Warr Time." TO THE Rr. REVEREND FFATHER NICHOLAS LORD BISHOP OF CHESTER. This may Certify your L'ship that the Reverend M' Richard Hunt formerly vicar of Acton & also of Wallsall in Staffordshire was removed thence before the warrs by a p'sentacon of the wor full Roger Wilbraham Esq' of Darfold to the Rectory of St Maryes in Chester, a place at that time vallued about eight score or nine score poundes per Anum. But the said Reverend Mr Hunt soon after the Taking of Chester by the Parliaments forces was ejected out of the said Rectory, which the present wor'full Patron Peter Wilbraham Esq' doth & will attest to the best of his memory & is willing I should certify your Lordship. Wittness my hand Oct. 16, 1706. Oct. 16, 1706. Darfold. {It is stated by Mr. J. E. Bailey, F.S.A., in the Cheshire Sheaf, vol. i., p. 95, that on "the 25 Feb, 1661-2 Dr. Thomas Mallory [son of the late Dean of Chester] was nominated by the Dean and Chapter of Chester to the rectory of St. Marys, Chester, on the avoidance thereof by Mr. Richard Hunt, in virtue of a certain agreement between him and Capt. Richard Brereton, of Chester." No confirmation of this statement has at present occurred, and Dr. Thomas Mallory never held the rectory of St. Mary's.} [John Parsons Earwaker The history of the church and parish of St. Mary-on-the-hill, Chester ... (1898) p87-8]

[INTERNET] Richard Hunt (alternatively Hunte) was born in Gloucestershire in 1596, the son of a cleric, and died in February 1661. He is primarily noted for his connection to William Shakespeare. Life He attended Oriel College, Oxford, from which he matriculated on 4 December 1612 at the age of 16. He received his B.A. on 23 October 1615, his M.A. on 10 July 1618, and a Bachelor of Divinity sometime afterwards. Thereafter, on 8 July 1621, he became vicar of Bishop's Itchington, and three years later, on 24 January 1623 married Anne Lees of nearby Lighthorne (d.1636),[1] a parish in the Stratford-on-Avon district of Warwickshire. In 1657 he performed the funeral oration over Robert Lucy,[2] a relative of the Thomas Lucy of Charlecote figuring in legends of Shakespeare's youth. All of his seven children died in infancy or childhood between 1631 and 1657.[3]

His successor in the curacy was the Rev. George Watson Hutchinson, who succeeded also to the vicarage upon the death of Mr. Clowes. His character is so faithfully portrayed upon the mural monument which was erected to his memory, that I will neither add to nor curtail the inscription which it bears: In this chancel lies entombed the body of George Watson Hutchinson, A.M., eldest son of Elisha Hutchinson, Esq., of Hagley Row, Birmingham, and grandson of the late Thomas Hutchinson, Esq., the Governor of his Majesty's Province of Massachusets Bay in North America at the time of the revolution. Who died May 11th, 1818, of a pulmonary consumption, in the thirty-sixth year of his age; having been first curate and afterwards vicar of this parish, over which he exercised his ministerial care, during the period of twelve years, with that peculiar faithfulness, diligence, and anxiety, which rendered him justly eminent among the clergymen of the Church of England, a church, for whose superior excellence he was a constant and strenuous advocate, and of which, both in his public and private life, he was a bright and valuable ornament He preached and lived with a simplicity and purity, well corresponding with the great work he was pursuing; and with his views of the supreme importance of religion, and the leading principles of Christianity, there existed strong mutual affection between him and his people, as was especially evinced on their part by the universal and unexampled regret occasioned by his death; and, in testimony of love and esteem for his memory, this monument was erected at the voluntary expense of all classes of his parishioners. "That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection." Phil. iii. 10. [Mosley TUTBURY]

(Blurton) ... became concerned with the expansion of the population in Normacot and Dresden and the need for daughter churches and new parishes - all these he achieved with the support of his Patron, the 2nd Duke of Sutherland. ... He had a love of church music and, when he was made Canon of Lichfield, he also became its Precentor. In 1856 he organised the first choral festival in which twenty-six parish choirs participated at the Cathedral. His wife, Martha Oliver Hutchinson, was a staunch helpmate and helped to establish and run a Sunday School in a cottage next to the chapel. [PRINTED PR]

Anthony Huxley (vicar of Abbots Bromley) c1595-1671
Huxley, born about 1595, was second son of Ralph Huxley of Sidwall Hall, Cheshire c1565-.... He studied at Cambridge where at Michaelmas 1614 he matriculated sizar from Magdalene College. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1618.9 (M.A. 1630). His M.A. was incorporated at Oxford on 13 Jul ?1634. On 18 Sep 1619 he was ordained deacon and on 23 Sep 1627 ordained priest (both) by Lichfield. On 22 Jan 1633.4 after presentation by William Paget 6th Baron Paget of Beaudesert K.B. 1609-1678 he was instituted vicar of Abbots Bromley and on 5 Feb 1643.4 continued in office as compliant minister. On 10 Jul 1646 he was with the royal garrison at Lichfield on its surrender. In Nov 1646 he refused to appear before the Committee for plundered ministers to answer allegations made against him by his parishioners. He was sequestered by the Committee on 10 Dec 1646 "on the ground that he had deserted his cure and betaken himself to the forces raised against parliament". On 15 Mar 1646.7 he was to be evicted from the vicarage house and on 11 Apr 1647 his wife Hanna was allowed a fifth. On 3 Nov 1653 he was appointed by Sir Edward Coke 1st Baronet ?1616-1669 as compliant minister of Longford, Derbys where in early Jun 1660 he continued as de jure vicar. By An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660) he may have been restored in office as vicar of Abbots Bromley and would thus have displaced a minister if one was in office. However in Jan 1661.2 Nathaniel Mott c1628-1699 QV paid a clerical subsidy of 10/0. By later that year (probably before 24 Aug 1662) Huxley was in office but resigned in favour of Mott before 27 Apr 1665. Still in office at Longford he died, aged about 76, and was buried there on 30 Sep 1671. His will made on 25 Oct 1671 was proved under Lichfield on 20 Nov 1671. His personalty was valued at £30/12/6 which included "his whole study of bookes £6/0/6"

Thomas Clerke, B.D., Fellow of All Souls', Oxford, appointed rector 1616. He seems to have adapted himself to the times, for "at the instance and earnest desyer" of one of his parishioners, he omitted the sign of the Cross at a baptism in 1646, and in 1647, used the "new forme" issued by the "Directories" and not the Prayerbook. Buried May 7th, 1659.

Ordained priest by Bishop Griffith of St Asaph, 10 March 1661. Aged 59 in 1693 (Lichfield RO, B/V/1/89A).
James Clerke, succeeded his father in 1659. He was suspended for a year in 1698 for having, according to his own confession, celebrated a clandestine marriage at the "Bull in the Barn", a public-house in Frankwell, Shrewsbury, which stood where Cadogan House now is. There is still a small pillar, with a brass plate, marking the site of the well belonging to the old inn.

(1915) [Abbots Bromley] 4 Huxley. B.A. 1618 Magdalen College, Cambridge, M.A. 1624 Oxford (Foster), M.A. 1630 Cambridge (Venn). He was with the Royalist garrison at Lichfield on its surrender on 10 Jul 1646. In the following November he refused to appear before the committee for plundered ministers to answer certain matters alleged against him by his parishioners, so on 10 Dec 1646 it sequestered the vicarage from him on the ground that he had deserted his cure and betaken himself to the forces raised against parliament. Huxley managed to retain possession of the vicarage house until 15 Mar 1646.7, when the Committee of parliament for Staffordshire, was instructed to turn him out forthwith. On 11 Apr 1647 his wife Hanna was allowed a full fifth of the living for her maintenance provided that she and her husband yielded all due obedience to the sequestration. "Dour James Irvine" This vicar of Leigh was one of the most unsuccessful. He got across so many of those whose souls the bishop had entrusted to him that they openly disturbed his divine service by repeated interruptions. Some seceded and built Pennington church, where they could worship in their own conforming peace. In 1846 there had been trouble over the church bell ringers and Irvine turned them all out. The occasion of the visit of Queen Victoria in October 1851, when she was routed through the parish was an opportunity seized by the vicar's very persistent enemies to put him into an awkward light. Letters were addressed to him requesting that on the Thursday and Friday after 7 October the church bells should ring a royal welcome. Irvine replied yes, if by the ringers appointed by himself. His enemies said it would be a disgrace to let these ring in such an honour and begged him for once to act in harmony with his parishioners. The bells were silent; the reason given was that Mrs. Irvine was ill and the noise would have disturbed her. The vicar's wealthy enemies attacked him by a broadsheet, a fragile copy of which is in Warrington Library. Irvine's wife died in June 1852, aged 72. By July 1856 he had married again. The value of Leigh in 1864 had been much improved by leases and coal rents; it then stood at £270. [INTERNET]

$John Jackson B.A. (compliant minister of Madeley) c1605-....
Jackson, born about 1605, is of unknown parentage. He studied at Cambridge where he (and another man of the same name) matriculated sizar from Trinity College at Easter 1626. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1628.9. On 19 Dec 1629 he was ordained deacon at Eccleshall and on 18 Dec 1630 (then probably stipendiary curate of Measham, Derbys) was ordained priest (both) by Lichfield. On 14 Oct 1635 after presentation by Sir John Offley of Madeley knight c1587-1645 he was instituted vicar of Madeley and inducted on 2 Nov. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister and in Sep 1646 petitioned the Committee for plundered ministers for an augmentation. Apparently a committed presbyterian, he signed the Staffordshire testimony of Jul 1648 as "John Jackson Pastor of Madely". On 4 Jul 1648 he resigned doubtless to be almost immediately appointed compliant minister of Lapley vicarage where the parish register is in his hand from 9 Jul 1648 to 16 Aug 1659. In Nov 1649 the Committee for plundered ministers granted him an augmentation of £50 pa to his annual salary - out of the impropriate rectory of Lapley sequestered from Thomas Petre of Lapley gentleman 1606-a1657 "papist and delinquent". At Lapley Jackson had succeded Robert Hilton 1607-1667 QV who had been removed in 1648. In 1655 Jackson objected to an order to pay Hilton's wife Martha a fifth since "her husband is minister of Tonge, in Shropshire, where he keeps a school, and has Sutton chapelry, co. Stafford." On 28 Jun 1655 Jackson was also register of Lapley. His last entry in Lapley parish register is dated 16 Aug 1659. In early Jun 1660 he may have continued here as de facto vicar but if still in office was displaced by Hilton who was by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660) restored as vicar. Jackson married on 5 Feb 1638.9 at Madeley to Ann Holt by whom he had 2 sons and 1 daughter.

Thomas James M.A. (rector of Blymhill) c1572-1649
James, born about 1572 in Staffordshire, is of unknown parentage. He studied at Oxford where on 23 Oct 1590 he was a student at St Mary Hall and matriculatred but later migrated to Christ Church. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 5 Jun 1694 (M.A., 26 Jun 1598). He was presumably ordained deacon and priest before 10 May 1606 when he was instituted rector of Blymhill. On 18 May he read The 39 articles of religion in the church. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. Still in office he died, aged about 77, and was buried here on 1 Oct 1649. James married first on 16 Oct 1607 at Eccleshall to Judith Steventon e1582-1622 by whom he had 5 sons and 1 daughter. He married second on 18 Sep 1623 at Eccleshall to Mary Lowe dau of Roger Lowe (rector of Waters Upton, Salop) e1544-1632 by whom he had 1 son and 1 daughter. William James ? 1609-1698 (rector of Sutton and Beckbury, Salop) may have been his second son.

Neil Jamieson-Harvey

Tributes have been paid to a north Staffordshire vicar who died today (Thursday) after collapsing on Tuesday following a stroke. The Revd Neil Jamieson-Harvey, who was 64, was Priest in Charge of St Paul's Church, Newcastle under Lyme and vicar of St Michael and All Angels Church, Cross Heath. An Anglo-Catholic, Father Neil was ordained Deacon in 1991 and Priest in 1992 in the Bahamas and started his ministry as curate of St Matthew's Church, Nassau and then Priest in Charge of St John the Baptist's Church, Abaco; before moving to Staffordshire in 1995 as an assistant minister of Meir Heath; moving to Cross Heath a year later. He took on responsibility for Newcastle St Paul in 2006. In addition to his parish work, he was also sub-dean for those churches in the Stafford Episcopal Area which receive alternative Episcopal oversight from the Bishop of Ebbsfleet. Tonight, the Bishop of Lichfield, the Rt Revd Jonathan Gledhill, said: "Neil was a very good traditional parish priest with an interest in mission who bravely took on a huge additional church just a couple of years ago. He will be much missed." The Rural Dean of Newcastle, the Revd Preb Gerald Gardner, added: "Neil was a faithful parish priest who had a real passion for the Gospel and a real concern for persecuted Christians expressed through his support for the Barnabus Fund. We will miss his delightful sense of humour both in clergy chapter and the local minister's fraternal." [INTERNET]

Thomas Janns B.A. (vicar of Sedgley) c1635-1697 H62
Janns, born about 1635, was probably a son of Thomas Janns of Over Penn "gentleman" 1609-.... He studied at Cambridge where on 15 Apr 1651 he was admitted as a pensioner at Emmanuel College. At Cambridge he probably graduated B.A. about 1654 (although the degree is not recorded). He may have qualified as a presbyterian clergyman. On 20 Aug 1662 he was in office (? as a stipendiary curate) at Brewood when he subscribed to the Act of uniformity but was only ordained deacon and licensed as a preacher (both) by Lichfield on (the next day) 21 Aug 1662. Here he resigned before 22 Oct 1662 when after presentation by Rebecca Parkes c1603-1673 qua widow of Thomas Parkes of Willingsworth in Sedgley esquire c1596-1660 he was instituted vicar of Sedgley. In Dec 1662 he was ordained priest by Lichfield. At Sedgley Calamy reported that he "for some Years was hot and fill'd his Sermons with railing Invectives which put many of the People upon persuading [Joseph Eccleshall, former presbyterian minister] to preach to them ...". In 1665 the vicarage was valued at £30. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Sedgley constablewick and was assessed on 6 hearths. Still in office he died, aged about 62, and was buried here on 1 Mar 1696.7. His will made on 22 Feb 1696.7 was proved under Lichfield on 19 Jul 1697. His personalty was valued at £221/14/0 and included "Books in his Study £100". He bequeathed his books to his second son William Janns M.A. 1666-1729 who succeded him at Sedgley. Janns married (? on 22 Feb 1657 at Old Swinford, Worcs) to Elizabeth (?Milward) (d 1722) by whom he had 3 sons and 6 daughters.

William Jeffray M.A. (rector of Hamstall Ridware, Staffs) c1604-1642
Jeffray, born about 1604 in Lewes, was 5th son of Nicholas Jeffray of Lewes, Sussex schoolmaster (later rector of Poole, Dorset) c1557-1625. He studied at Cambridge where on 29 Jun 1618 he was admitted as a sizar at Pembroke Hall under ----- Brownrigg and matriculated that year. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1621.2 (M.A., 1625). Although apparently only aged 18 he was presumably ordained deacon shortly before 12 Aug 1622 when after presentation by Walter Aston [1st Baron Aston of Forfar] 1584-1639 he was instituted vicar of Sheriff Hales. At that time he is said to have been abroad with Aston and serving him as chaplain so that the institution was through a deputy Alexander Howe B.D. c1583-1649 QV. Jeffray is said to have been appointed chaplain to the bishop of Lichfield then Thomas Morton 1564-1659 and on 10 Sep 1625 was collated by him prebendary of Lichfield Gaia Major but resigned before 2 Oct 1627 when Morton collated him prebendary of Lichfield Offley. On 10 Sep 1628 Morton additionally collated him archdeacon of Salop. On 21 Sep 1628 Jeffray (now aged about 24) was ordained priest by the bishop of Canterbury then George Abbot 1562-1633 (a former bishop of Lichfield). On 21 Nov 1628 after presentation by William Strode he was instituted vicar of Meare, Soms and on 3 Aug 1629 licensed as a preacher in the archdeaconry of Wells. During 1630 Jeffray resigned as prebendary of Lichfield Offley and was apparently collated by Morton as chancellor of Lichfield Cathedral and thus prebendary of Lichfield Alrewas. In the period 1628/31 Jeffray may have been, plurally, in office both as vicar of Sheriff Hales and of Meare but likely resigned at both places before 15 Jan 1630.1. On that date after presentation by Catherine Leigh widow & her son Thomas Leigh [1st Baron Leigh of Stoneleigh] c1595-1672) he was instituted rector of Hamstall Ridware. On 30 Sep 1633 he was additionally collated by the bishop of Lichfield then Robert Wright c1560-1643 prebendary of Gaia Major (for a second term). Still apparently chancellor, archdeacon and prebendary and in office at Hamstall Ridware Jeffray died, aged about 38, and was buried here on 15 May 1642. Jeffray may not have married. His will made on 28 Apr 1642 was proved under Lichfield on 11 ?Aug. In his will he wrote "to my Unckle Twysden ... the choyce of 20 of my Bookes to bee chosen by himselfe". This was Charles Twisden D.C.L. (diocesan chancellor of Lichfield) 1576-p1645. It is unclear exactly how they were related. Nicholas Jeffray B.A. c1601-.... (an ordained deacon) who also studied at Pembroke Hall and in 1646 was sequestered for drunkeness from Stanwell school, Middx might have been one of his brothers.

[date of probate uncertain] [1915 p 113-4]
(1979) William Jeffray obtained a living (Sheriffhales vicarage) in the diocese in 1622 at the hands of Sir Walter Aston, whether or not with the bishop's connivance, but he had certainly been noticed by Morton by 1625 when he was collated to Gaia Major prebend as Morton's domestic chaplain. In 1627 Jeffray was collated to Offley prebend and in 1628 to the archdeaconry of Salop. A puritan patron presented Jeffray to Hampstall Ridware in 1631, following his appointment as Chancellor of the cathedral in 1630. Jeffray was an active deputy in the consistory court during the 1630s. His prominence no doubt owed something to his close kinship (nephew) with the chancellor of the diocese, [Charles Twisden D.C.L. (diocesan chancellor of Lichfield) 1576-p1645] [Rosemary O'Day The english clergy: the emergence and consolidation of a profession, 1558-1642 (1979) p152-3]

William Jennings (rector of Church Eaton) c1555-1642
Jennings, born about 1555, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was probably ordained deacon and priest by Chester before 3 Dec 1579. After presentation by the Crown (on that date) as rector of Church Eaton he was perhaps instituted. Earlier on 21 Oct 1579 Thomas Austen c1550-.... - after presentation by John ?Blore - had been instituted as rector. A dispute about the right of presentation followed and Austen is said to have been "restored" by the Privy Council on 28 Aug 1580. On 26 Feb 1584.5 after a second presentation by the Crown (on 30 Jun 1584) he was insituted rector of Church Eaton. In 1604 he is described as "no preacher". For brief spells in 1608 and 1615 he may have been "curate-in-charge" at (neighbouring) Gnosall. Still in office at Church Eaton he died, aged about 87, and was buried here (perhaps as requested "above the chancell dore in the chancell") on 20 May 1642. Jennings married about 1584 to Ann (d 1643) by whom he had 6 sons and 4 daughters. His successor William Jennings (rector of Church Eaton) c1613-1673 was his grandson.

William Jennings M.A. (rector of Church Eaton) c1613-1673 (H63)
Jennings, born about 1613, was a son of ----- Jennings of Church Eaton yeoman and grandson of William Jennings (rector of Church Eaton) c1555-1642 QV. He studied at Oxford where about 1631 he was probably a student at Oriel College. At Oxford he graduated 14 Feb 1633.4 (M.A., 19 Jul 1636). He was probably ordained deacon in 1637 and priest in 1638. From 1637 to 1642 he appears to have served at Church Eaton as a stipendiary curate to his grandfather and on 8 Aug 1638 he was appointed as head schoolmaster of Church Eaton Grammar School. On 23 May 1642 after presentation by Thomas Chetwynd of Church Eaton esquire 1600-1674 he was insituted as rector of Church Eaton and and on 2 Jun paid first fruits. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. Apparently a committed presbyterian, he signed the Staffordshire testimony of Jul 1648 as "William Jennings Minist of Gods Word at Church-Eaton". In 1655 he certified the fitness of candidates for the ministry. Still in office as minister in early Jun 1660 he was then reinstated as rector and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. About Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of £1/10/0. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 12 Aug 1662. In Dec 1663 he was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 the rectory was valued at £80. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Church Eaton constablewick and was assessed on 4 hearths. Still in office he died, aged about 60, on 16 Dec 1673 and was buried here on 19 Dec. His will made on 3 Nov 1673 was proved under Lichfield on 15 Jan 1673.4. Jennings married first in 1644 to Elizabeth ?1623-1661 (probably daughter of John Astley of Bushbury gentleman 1595-c1679) by whom he had 1 son and 2 daughters. He married second on 29 Sep 1663 at Church Eaton to Theodosia Bradshaw (b ?1629) by whom he had 2 daughters. Walter Jennings (rector of Church Eaton) 1650-1724 was his son.

Richard Jessop (parochial curate of Stafford St Chad) e1592-....
Jessop, born perhaps about 1592 (? and christened on 7 Feb 1591.2 at Grantham) was probably a son of Gabriel Jessop of Grantham, Lincs c1560-1624 and Mary (Bristow). He was probably only educated to literate grade. (? He studied at Cambridge where at Easter 1610 he was a sizar at Queens' College and matriculated but is not known to have graduated.) He was presumably ordained deacon (? and priest) before 2 Jul 1637 when after probable presentation by the the prebendary of Lichfield Pipa Minor he was in office as parochial curate of Stafford St Chad. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he may have continued here as compliant minister but likely left office or died shortly after 4 Apr 1644. Jessop married perhaps about 1632 to a woman by whom he had 1 son.

Daniel Jeven M.A. (rector of Broom) 1586-?1654
Jeven, christened on 3 Dec 1586 at Sedgley, was 3rd son of Richard Jeven of "The Hall", Sedgley "gentleman" c1552-1621 and Elizabeth (Cresswell). He studied at Cambridge where by 1608 he was a scholar at Trinity College.
At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1608.9 (M.A., 1612). He was presumably ordained deacon and priest before 22 Jun 1625 when he was in office as rector of Broom. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. Still in office he probably died, aged about 68, in 1654 and was perhaps buried as requested "in the Chancell of Broome". His will made on 1 May 1649 was proved under PCC on 25 Mar 1654. Jeven married (? on 21 May 1617 at Furneaux Pelham, Herts) to Elizabeth (?Freeman) by whom he probably had 4 sons and 3 daughters. Jeven's daughter Rachel 1682-.... [ODNB] was styled Rachel Jevon when she published two poems in english and latin both celebrating the restoration of Charles II - Exultationis carmen and Carmen thriambeutikon. About May 1662 she petitioned the king "For the place of one of the meanest servants about the Queen" and "For the place of [cradle] Rocker to the Queen". In the first petition she writes "[my] father, a loyal clergyman in the diocese of Worcester, though threatened and imprisoned, contrived to preserve his flock, so that not one took arms against His Majesty, but could only give his children education, without maintenance."

Thomas Jewell (vicar of Ilam) e1637-1669 H64
Jewell, born perhaps about 1637, is of unknown parentage. Probably as a literate he was presumably ordained deacon and priest shortly before 1661. On 6 May 1661 after presentation by Roger Hurt of Castern in Ilam esquire c1591-a1666 (? qua guardian of his under-age grandson John Port of Ilam esquire c1652-1719) he was instituted as vicar of Ilam. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 22 Aug 1662. On 13 Jan 1663.4 he was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 the vicarage was valued at £50. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Okeover, Ilam & Castern constablewick when "The Vickeridge" was assessed on 3 hearths in Ilam township. Still in office he died, perhaps aged about 32, shortly before 13 Feb 1668.9. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 13 Feb 1668.9 when his goods were to be administered by his principal creditor Nicholas Hurt. His personalty was valued at about £66 and included "in books £20/6/0". Jewell may not have married.

Jane Johnson (1706-59) was the wife of Woolsey Johnson, vicar of Olney, Buckinghamshire. She was the author of the earliest known (to date) example of an English fairy story for children. Robert Augustus Johnson (1745-99) was the son of Jane Johnson. He married Anna Rebecca Ludford Taylor, née Craven, sister of the 6th Lord Craven. He was at one time rector of Wistanstow in Shropshire, in the patronage of the Earls of Craven, and was rector of Hamstall Ridware, Staffordshire, 1791-9. At the time the journals described in section C were written he was living in Kenilworth, Warwickshire, close to the Craven seat at Combe Abbey where he seems to have been a frequent visitor. William Johnson (parochial curate of Ipstones) e1595-1644
Johnson, born perhaps about 1595, is of unknown parentage. ~ He (or a man of his name, born about 1595 in Staffordshire) studied at Oxford where on 31 May 1616 he was a student at Christ Church College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 15 Jun 1616 (M.A., Wadham College, 8 May 1618). On 15 & 16 Mar 1617 this man was ordained deacon and on 14 & 15 Jun 1617 ordained priest (both) by Oxford at Marsh Baldon, Oxon. ~ In 1639 Johnson was in office as parochial curate of Ipstones (where a predecessor had probably resigned before 20 May 1626). From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. Still in office he died, perhaps aged about 49, and was buried here on 10 Dec 1644. Johnson may not have married. On 3 Sep 1644 Johnson was examined by the Stafford parliamentary committee after he had complained about Captain John Garland who had "preached" in the village. The record reads:

> "The examination of me William Johnson of Ipstones, Minister, concerning Articles to me tendred by the Councell of warre at Stafford about Captain Garland, these are the Tenents which he mayntayned in my presence. ... 1. That baptisme is Antichristian, & without baptisme of no force. ... 2. That the baptising of Infants till they be able to giue testimonie of theyr faith is allso Anti-christian. ... 3. That there is no separation of the soule from the body at the day of death, but they both lye in the graue till the resurrection. ... 4. That the calling of our Clergie is altogeather unlawfull and Antichristian. ... 5. That we may keepe any day for the Sabboth as well as the day we keepe. By me William Johnson Mnr. giuen upon oath."

In 1819 he was nominated to two benefices, one in the diocese of Peterborough and the other in that of Lincoln, and he produced to the respective bishops the three testimonials which were required before institution. His diocesan at Exeter declined to countersign them on the grounds that Jones, at a county meeting at Exeter Castle on 23 April 1819, had made in his speech some inappropriate comments, apparently on the Athanasian creed, and his institution to these livings, together worth £500 a year, was refused. The matter was brought before the House of Lords by Lord Holland on 12 May 1820, on a petition from Jones; but a motion for a committee on the subject was rejected by eighteen votes to thirty-five. [ODNB]

Thomas Jones (vicar of Rugeley) e1610-1672 H65
Jones, born perhaps about 1610, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade and was likely ordained deacon and priest before 1643. On 5 Feb 1643.4 he may not have been in an office. But probably shortly thereafter he was appointed as ?compliant minister of Rugeley where in 1645 the inhabitants petitioned for him to remain minister. On 27 Aug 1646 the Committee for plundered ministers granted (the minister here) an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary of £40 (or pehaps £60). In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de facto vicar and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. The same year he probably presented (? pro Walter Aston 2nd Baron Aston of Forfar c1609-1678) John Saunders B.A. c1619-1682 QV as rector of Colton. About Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of £1/10/0. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 23 Aug 1662. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Rugeley & Brereton constablewick and was assessed on 4 hearths at Rugeley. Still in office he died, perhaps aged about 62, and was buried here (perhaps as requested in the chancel) on 1 Nov 1672. His will made on 10 Aug 1671 was proved under Lichfield on 7 Nov 1672. His personalty was valued at £150/7/6 and included " In the Study... Books of all sorts £5". Jones may not have married.

(Busbury) "[Thomas Fletcher] Appointed ... but after only one year suffered a mental breakdown from which he never recovered. He resigned and died in 1800; buried at Tutbury 1.2.1800. During the years of his illness his work was carried out by his curates, first Thomas Greaves, then from 1770, William Jones, who was also vicar of Wednesfield and a prebendary of St. Peter's Wolverhampton. He died in May 1793, and his successor, John Clare, curate of Pattingham, was appointed vicar in 1800." [INTERNET]

$Isaac Keeling M.A. (compliant minister of Wolstanton) 1605-1679 (H66)
Keeling, christened on 15 Sep 1605 at Newcastle, was 1st son of Ralph Keeling of Newcastle gentleman 1582-1650 and Elizabeth Yardley daughter of John Yardley of Grobershill. He studied at Oxford where on 31 Oct 1623 he was a student at Magdalen Hall and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 9 Mar 1626.7 (M.A., 9 Jul 1629). On 18 Dec 1631 he was ordained deacon by Lichfield, on 19 Feb 1631.2 ordained priest by Oxford pro Lichfield and on 2 Oct 1633 licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. By 1638 after probable presentation by the rector of Stoke-upon-Trent then John Mainwaring c1605-1692 QV he was in office as parochial curate of Burslem. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. Before 8 Dec 1643 he was, jointly, presented as vicar of Wolstanton by the Staffordshire parliamentary committee at about the same time as Richard Shelley e1601-.... QV was presented to the same office by Ralph Sneyd of Keele esquire c1612-1650. Shelley appears to have served as de facto vicar and (from Feb 1643.4) de facto compliant minister until about Sep 1645. That month Keeling appears to have resigned at Burslem and was in office as compliant minister at Wolstanton being approved by the Staffordshire parliamentary committee on 11 Dec 1645. Apparently a committed presbyterian, he signed the Staffordshire testimony of Jul 1648 as "Isaac Keeling Minister of Gods Word at Wolstanton". In 1658 he certified the fitness of many candidates for the ministry. In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de facto vicar and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of £2. On 26 Jun 1662 after presentation by William Sneyd of Keele esquire c1614-1695 he was instituted vicar. In 1665 the vicarage was valued at £40. In 1665 he did not certify the hearth tax but was assessed twice at Wolstanton - for 8 hearths (probably at his privately owned home) and 3 hearths "att the Viccaridge". Still in office he died, aged 74, and was buried here on 15 Aug 1679. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 3 Sep 1679. On his death his goods were to be administered by two of his creditors. His personalty was valued at £28/0/10 and included "the deceaseds Librarie £6/8/4". Keeling married on 23 Aug 1636 at Wolstanton to Ann Brett (d 1683) daughter of John Brett of Keele esquire c1567-1628 by whom he had 3 sons and 4 daughters. On 7 Apr 1663 Keeling certified his family's entry in the heraldic visitation of Staffordshire but no coat of arms was exhibited. Keeling qua vicar of Wolstanton was patron of the parochial chapelries of Keele (where he had probably presented Edward Beardmore ?1619-1679 QV in 1665) and of Newchapel.

On 13 Sep 1645 Shelley complained to the committee for plundered ministers that the vicarage had been wrongly taken from him by and upon a presentment of his patron's delinquency. On 11 Dec 1645 the said committee decided that Ralph Sneade of Keele, esq., did not present Shelley until after his estate had been sequestered for delinquency and that Shelley had himself expressed great malignancy against Parliament; therefore it confirmed the appointment of Keeling as vicar and ordered him to preach diligently to the parishioners there (Add. John Kelsall B.A. (vicar of Audley) 1604-1669 D67

Kelsall, christened on 21 Sep 1604 at Audley, was 3rd son of William Kelsall (vicar of Audley) 1566-1649 and Ann Beech dau of Andrew Beech (vicar of Audley) c1537-1610. He studied at Cambridge where in Easter 1623 he was a sizar at King's College and matriculated. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. about Feb 1626.7. On 17 Feb 1626.7 he was ordained deacon and on 23 Sep 1627 ordained priest (both) by Lichfield. Thereafter he likely served as a stipendiary curate at Audley - assisting his father William. From 5 Feb 1643.4 the father and son continued here as compliant minister and compliant assistant minister. By Mar Kelsall had taken "the oathe against the parliament" (presumably the royal protestation) and on 21 Mar the Staffordshire parliamentary committee ordered his release from prison after he had acknowledged his error and paid £40 in support of parliament. On 8 Jul 1646 the Committee for plundered ministers ordered that both William Kelsall and John Kelsall be sequestered as a delinquent from the vicarage and appointed John Smith c1615-.... as ?presbyterian minister who they granted the tithes up to £50. However Smith was unable to gain access to the vicarage and on 23 Jun 1647 the Staffordshire parliamentary committee were instructed to assist him to enter. Smith then gained entry with the assistance of soldiers and probably of his father William and brother Richard who John Kelsall then prosecuted for assault. In 1657 John Kelsall was approved by the Triers as compliant minister of Hathersage vicarage, Derbys but may not have entered office until later. In Jun 1660 he likely continued in office as de facto vicar. An entry in Audley parish register reads "Here William Kelsall & his Curate John Kelsall were sequestered and ejected for adheringe to the Kinge Charles 1. p.m. and Kinge Charles 2. returneing to his throne John Kelsall returned to his vicariage August. 9. 1660 and continued the register ..." By Sep 1660 Kelsall had displaced William Overton c1615-1661 as de facto vicar of Audley, in Jan 1661.2 paid a clerical subsidy of £2 and on 26 Sep 1662 was reported to be "sick". At Hathersage he resigned before 29 Jan 1662.3 and on 18 Aug 1663 after presentation by Randal Egerton of Betley esquire 1619-1681 was instituted vicar of Audley and also licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 the vicarage was valued at £12. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Audley constablewick and was personally assessed on 2 hearths at Audley township (probably at his privately owned home) where he was also assessed "and for the Vicarage 1". Still in office Kelsall died, aged 65, and was buried here on 17 Feb 1668.9. His will made on 30 May 1668 was proved under Lichfield on 11 May 1669. His personalty was valued at £424/5/4 and included "His liberary of books £166/0/0". Kelsall married first on 9 Mar 1639.40 to Margaret Brook (d a1643) by whom he had a son. He married second about 1643 to Elizabeth Haworth (d 1647) dau of Henry Haworth of Audley by whom he had a son and 2 daughters. John Kelsall (rector of Quarrington, Leics) 1644-1689 was his son by his 2nd wife and in 1665 had been a stipendiary curate to his father at Audley. Kelsall qua vicar of Audley was patron of the parochial chapelry of Talk-on-the-Hill.

John Kelsall (vicar of Mayfield) c1634-1698 H68

Kelsall, born about 1634, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He is probably the man of this name who on 12 Jan 1657.8 was classically ordained as a presbyterian clergyman by the Derbyshire Wirksworth Classis and appointed presybyterian minister of Hathersage, and then, in early Jun 1660 may have resigned. On 11 Jul 1661 (together with Thomas Tooth ?1636-1693 QV) he was ordained deacon and priest by Sodor & Man. He had been appointed reader of Ashbourne, Derbys by 21 Aug 1662 when he subscribed to the Act of uniformity and the same month was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. On 9 Dec 1662 after presentation by Thomas Hunt of Shrewsbury esquire 1599-1669 he was instituted vicar of Mayfield. In 1665 the vicarage was valued at £30. In 1665 he did not certify the hearth tax but was assessed on 3 hearths at Church Mayfield township in Mayfield constablewick. Still in office at Mayfield he died, aged about 64, and was buried there on 9 Sep 1698. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 15 Sep 1698. His personalty was valued at £174/11/0. Kelsall married perhaps about 1663 to Ruth (d 1693) by whom he had 1 daughter. Kelsall qua vicar of Mayfield was patron of the parochial chapelry of Butterton (where he had probably presented William Hambleton e1621-1669 QV about 1665).

John Kelsall (parochial curate of Rushton) 1637-1687 H69
Kelsall, christened on 23 Jul 1637 at Etchells, was 3rd son of John Kelsall of Etchells, Cheshire yeoman c1596-1677 (? and Ann Ashton). He was probably only educated to literate grade. On 25 Sep 1664 he was ordained deacon and on 21 May 1665 ordained priest (both) by York pro Lichfield. In 1664 or 1665 after probable presentation by the vicar of Leek then George Roades c1627-1695 QV he was licensed parochial curate of Rushton. In 1665 he did not certify the hearth tax for either of the Rushton townships and was not assessed there. He probably resigned at Rushton about 1671 when after presentation by Francis Revell he was instituted rector of Pinxton, Derbys. Still in office at Pinxton he died, aged 50, and was buried here on 12 Feb 1686.7. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 13 Apr 1687. His personalty was valued at £180/1/8 and included "In the Study one watch and bookes £12". Kelsall married first about 22 Oct 1667 to Mary Gibson c1642-1675 by whom he had 2 sons and 3 daughters. He married second on 30 Sep 1676 at Nottingham to Jane Hall by whom he had 3 sons and 3 daughters. Roger Kelsall (vicar of Wormingford, Essex) c1632-? 1692 was his oldest brother and Roger Kelsall 1678-.... who was expelled from Jesus College, Cambridge in 1699 after converting quaker was a son.

William Kelsall (vicar of Audley) 1566-1649
Audley, christened on 11 Jan 1565.6 at Audley, was 1st son of James Kelsall of Audley c1526-1583 and (his 2nd wife) Joan (Short). He was only educated to literate grade. He was (presumably) ordained deacon and on 25 Jan 1589.90 ordained priest by Lichfield. On 2 Jul 1590, perhaps after presentation by (the patron) Ralph Egerton of Betley esquire 1539-1610, he was instituted vicar of Audley. About 1602/4 he was described as "Scholaris ruralis et sacrarum litterarum experitus" and "A mere worldling, no preacher, no degree". In 1604 the vicarage was valued at £26/13/4 and about that time Kelsall may have been granted a turn (or turns) to present at Audley by (his father-in-law and predecessor) Andrew Beech c1537-1610. In 1627 Kelsall's 3rd son John Kelsall 1604-1669 was ordained deacon and priest and thereafter likely served as a stipendiary curate at Audley assisting his father. From 5 Feb 1643.4 the father and son continued here as compliant minister and compliant assistant minister. That month William Kelsall "took royal protestation" and is said to have been imprisoned and fined £32. On 1 Mar 1643.4 he was ordered to pay the Staffordshire parliamentary committee £20 in support of parliament and on 21 Mar made payment with "a mare valued to £8 and ... in mony 20 marks [£13/6/8]". He was then noticed as having taken "the oathe against the parliament" (presumably the royal protestation). This circumstance seems to have caused the committee to demand a further payment of £30 on 6 Nov 1644. Kelsall acknowledge his debt but claimed that inhabitants and others were refusing to pay him their tithes and other dues which the committee ordered they should pay unless they "shew sufficient cause to the contrary". As late as 13 May 1645 the whole matter was to be reviewed by four men - two who had paid tithes chosen by Kelsall and two who had not paid. On 8 Jul 1646 the Committee for plundered ministers ordered that he be sequestered as a delinquent from the vicarage (together with his son John) and appointed John Smith c1615-.... as ?presbyterian minister who they granted an augmentation of up to £50 (from the tithes) to his annual salary of £26/13/4. However Smith was unable to gain access to the vicarage and on 23 Jun 1647 the Staffordshire parliamentary committee were instructed to assist him to enter. Smith then gained entry with the assistance of soldiers and probably of (? his father) William and (? brother) Richard who John Kelsall then prosecuted for assault. In Nov 1648 Kelsall "alwaies a verie unconscionable and contentious man" had begun 30 lawsuits for tithes. Kelsall died, aged 83, and was buried on 12 Jul 1649 at Audley (perhaps as requested "in the parish churchyarde ... in or neare the place where my father and mother and wife doe lye"). His will made on 8 Jun 1649 was proved under Lichfield on 18 Jul 1649. His personalty was valued at about £20. Kelsall married on 21 Sep 1592 at Audley to Ann Beech (d 1648) dau of Andrew Beech (vicar of Audley) c1537-1610 by whom he had 4 sons and 2 daughters. John Kelsall (vicar of Audley) 1604-1669 was his 3rd son. Gabriel Smith B.A. (presbyterian minister of Talk-on-the-Hill) c1625-1664 was a grandson.

(1915) [John Smith] On 8 Jul 1646 the committee for plundered ministers described him as a godly and orthodox divine and granted him this vicarage. He had a good deal of difficulty in obtaining possession of it, for articles of complaint were brought against him in Nov 1646, but no one appeared in support of them, so on 23 Jun 1647 the parliamentary comm. for Staffs, were instructed to assist him to enter the vicarage and obtain possession of the register books, rentals, etc (Add. MSS. 15670 p302; 15671 p61, 85, 86, 103, 121; BodlMS 324 p82) Meanwhile on 8 Jul 1646 he had been granted the Audley tithes up to £50 pa, which had been sequestered from Col. Ralph Egerton of Betley, delinquent, as this living was only worth about 40 marks. (SPDI F1 p90; BodlMS 323 p268)
(1948) KELSALL, william. (vicar, Audley, 1590. According to later information from family papers, when Lord Byron be-sieged Nantwich, Cheshire, he took royal Protestation, for which Fairfax imprisoned him & made him pay £32 to compound delinquency, Feb. 1643/4. Twice imprisoned later for same offence, paid £10 more to Staffs. County Committee, who after-wards sequestered his estate & that of his son John (q.v.). Some parishioners articled against both, Aug. 1645. In reply 48 leading inhabitants petitioned County Committee for John to continue minister County Committee ejected them both, thanks to W. Smith & his son John (C.R.), 14 Nov. 1645. J. K. with much trouble, got sequestration on his estate discharged by Committee for Sequestrations, 12 Nov. 1646, but County Committee would not obey order. Compounded sequestration for £55 6s. 8d. the Committee for Plundered Ministers , 12 June 1647, ordered W. K. to give up parish records & goods to Smith (adm. minister 1646): 23 June, on his petition, ordered County Committee to get Smith possession without interruption by K. Parishioners complained to Committee for Indemnity, Nov. 1648, that W. K. jun., whose sequestration lately discharged, was still constable, also that W. K. sen., 'alwaies a verie unconscionable and contentious man', had begun at least 30 actions for tithes: also complaint of W. Smith & son Richard that J. K. prosecuted them for assault when soldiers put in J. Smith — Kelsalls cited. W. K. sen. buried there, 12 July 1649. [See W. MS. [He] was appointed vicar in 1936 and faced the most difficult task of any priest at St. Andrew's when the Second World War started in September 1939. Handsworth suffered numerous air-raids, with many inhabitants killed or injured. Fr. Kennaby was always ready to attend the casualty post set up at Grove Road Baths to comfort the sick and dying. He arranged shelters for the children remaining in the area, but many children (including those in the choir) had been evacuated. There was much disruption in family life and he had to combat apathy towards attending church. However, services continued as usual, using the Good Shepherd Chapel (which had been blacked out) and altering the time of Evensong to 3.30pm because of blackout restrictions. [INTERNET]

Roger Kimberley B.A. (presbyterian minister of Kinver) 1631-1658
Kimberley, christened on 15 Jun 1631 at Bromsgrove, was the younger son of Gilbert Kimberley of Bromsgrove, Worcs yeoman ?1590-?1655. He studied at Oxford where on 9 Dec 1650 he was "a commoner" at Pembroke College and matriculated. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 1 Apr 1652. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by Apr 1655 when he was in office as presbyterian minister of Kinver parochial chapelry and probably master of Kinver Grammar School. In 1655 the Trustees for maintenance granted him an augmentation of £10 to his annual salary (perhaps in addition to another augmentation of £45). In 1656 as "minister at Kinver" he was a member of the Worcestershire Association. Still in office he died, aged 27, and was buried here on 28 Sep 1658. His will made on 17 Aug ?1658 was proved under PCC on 4 Jan 1658.9. In his will he made two bequests for charitable use – one of £50 to trustees for use at Kinver and another of £50 to Richard Baxter of Kidderminster, Worcs 1615-1691 [ODNB]. Kimberley may not have married. William Kimberley M.A. (?compliant minister of Kinver) 1615-1678 QV was his older brother.

William Kimberley M.A. (?compliant minister of Kinver) 1615-1678
Kimberley, born at Whitford in Bromsgrove and christened on 18 Oct 1615 at Bromsgrove, was 1st son of Gilbert Kimberley of Bromsgrove, Worcs yeoman ?1590-?1655. He was educated at Bromsgrove under John Crump, at Oundle, Northants and at Stamford, Lincs. He studied at Cambridge where on 17 May 1633 he was admitted as a sizar at Sidney Sussex College. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1636.7 (M.A., 1640). He was likely ordained deacon (? and priest) before 1639 when he was in office as master of Kinver Grammar School. On 1 Aug 1648 the Committee for plundered ministers appointed him ?compliant assistant minister of Wolverhampton with a salary of £50 but he probably resigned here before Sep 1649 when he was in office as ?compliant minister of Kinver parochial chaplery. He resigned as master and minister at Kinver before 27 Jun 1651 when he compounded on his appointment as ?compliant minister of Redmarley rectory, Worcs. In early 1656 as "preacher at Redmarley D'Abitot" he is recorded as a member of the Worcestershire Association. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto rector. Here he probably resigned before 14 Nov 1662 when he signed articles and subscribed to the Act of Uniformity on his appointment as master of Wolverley school, Worcs. By 30 Nov 1664 he was master of Bromsgrove school. Perhaps still in office Kimberley died, aged 63, and was buried here on 4 Sep 1678. His will made on 6 Jun 1678 was proved under PCC on 26 Nov 1678. Kimberley married perhaps about 1645 to Elizabeth by whom he had 3 sons and 2 daughters. Roger Kimberley B.A. (presbyterian minister of Kinver) 1631-1658 QV was his younger brother. Jonathan Kimberley (dean of Lichfield) 1651-1720 was one of his sons. Calamy believed that Kimberley had been ejected and records "A man of no contemptible learning, good ministerial abilities, and a becoming conversation. He lived very privately after his ejectment, and did not ordinarily preach, but contented himself with teaching a school, in which some thought he excelled most."

Simon King M.A. (? parochial curate of Codsall) c1613-1694
King, born about 1613, was a son of Simon King of Woodhouse, Leics. He studied at Cambridge where on 15 Jun 1632 he was a commoner at Balliol College and matriculated but later migrated to St John's College. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. on 11 Feb 1633.4 (M.A., Balliol College, 20 Apr 1638). He was presumably ordained deacon (? and priest) perhaps about 1637. About 1638 he was probably in office as parochial curate of Codsall when, styled "Simon King of Codsall - minister of the gospel", he testified to the honest life and conversation of a local preacher Humphrey Vincent ? 1595-.... He may still have been in office on 1 Jan 1640.1. In Mar 1640.1 he was head schoolmaster at Bridgnorth School and held a lease of the school-house. By Aug 1642 he was vicar of Coventry Holy Trinity, Warwickshire where after the battle of Edgehill (23 Oct) he gave shelter to Richard Baxter who later wrote "[I] obtruded myself on Mr. King one of the Ministers, and my old Acquaintance, not paying him a Groat for a Months Diet or more." From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. On 16 Feb 1645.6 he inducted Joseph Lee as rector of Cotesbach, Leics. By Dec 1646 he was compliant minister of Crick rectory, Northants. Apparently a committed presbyterian, he signed the Northamptonshire testimony of 1648. By Sep 1651 he was compliant minister of Rothwell vicarage, Northants. By Oct 1655 he was compliant minister of Bottlebridge (aka Botolphbridge) rectory, Hunts. In Jun 1660 he likely continued in office as de facto rector but on 24 Aug 1662 he apparently did not subscribe to the Act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. About Jul 1672 he was licensed as a presbyterian teacher at his own house at Orton Longueville, Hunts where he was still holding meetings about 1688. The house was burnt down in Aug 1689. The Common Fund survey of dissenting ministers taken about 1690 has under Northamptonshire the entry "Mr Simon King - Att Peterborough a Lecture noe (corrected to very small) maintenance. well known to mr Baxter". King received an annual grant from the Common fund of £8 from 1690 to 1693. King died, aged about 81, and was buried on 30 Sep 1694 at Orton Longueville. King married about 1641 probably to Mary (d 1693) by whom he had 1 son and 1 daughter. In 1696 Richard Baxter described King as "a Man of a solid Judgment, an honest Heart and Life, and addicted to no Extremes, and an able Scholar (long ago chief School-Master at Bridgnorth)".

Richard Kinsey (presbyterian minister of Madeley) e1622-1663
Kinsey, born about 1633 probably in Cheshire, was a son of Robert Kinsey of Congleton, Cheshire chapman c1603-1676 and ?Frances. He studied at Oxford where on 21 Jul 1651 he was a commoner at Brasenose College and matriculated but is not known to have graduated. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 15 Jan 1658.9 when he was in office as presbyterian minister of Madeley vicarage. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto vicar. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 15 Aug 1662. On 26 Sep 1662 he was said to be "Ill at [the] time of [the] Visitation". He may have resigned here before 6 Aug 1663 when after presentation by Richard Wynne gentleman and Francis Smith gentleman he was instituted as vicar of Cheswardine, Salop. Here he died, aged about 41, and was buried on 30 Oct 1663. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 19 Nov 1663. His personalty was valued at £43/17/4. Kinsey married about 1658 to Ann (? d c1661) by whom he had 1 son and 1 daughter.

Rev. John Knight - Perpetual Curate, St Nicholas Church from 1775. Image provided with permission of Randall Knight.

In 1775 Rev. John Knight became the perpetual curate of Fulford Chapel. He had been baptised in Biddulph in Staffordshire on 8th February 1747 and had then moved to London where, on 23rd July 1769 at the age of 22 he had married a lady named Elizabeth Hall at the church of St. Sepulchre-without-Newgate.

They had then moved to Milwich in Staffordshire where on 10th October 1780, Elizabeth gave birth to a son named Edward. He was baptised in Milwich on 16th October 1780. Dr. Edward Knight eventually became Mayor of Stafford in 1822. Sadly Elizabeth died on 4th June 1795 and three years after, on 4th September 1798, Rev. John married Mary Fox at All Saints Church in Milwich.

In 1770 John had became Curate at Milwich and then he became vicar there in 1772. His father Samuel Knight then purchased the right of presentation to Fulford and duly presented his son to be perpetual Curate.

He was Perpetual Curate from 1775 until his death on 27th March 1800 aged 53. He is buried at All Saints Church in Milwich.

Buried December 23, 1749, according to the Cathedral registers. In the Muniment Room of the Cathedral there is a deposition of Thomas Cotterell, organ-builder, as to peculations of George Lamb, vicar Choral and Organist, Mention is therein made of "a little organ in the Lady Choir" This organ is still in the possession of the Dean and Chapter. The following lines appear on the front of the organ in blue and gold: "Hinc venti dociles resono se carcere solvunt / Et Cantum accepta pro Libertate rependunt." An English rendering of these lines, by Anna Seward (the "swan" of Lichfield), is given on a sheet of paper pasted to one of the panels: "The docile gales, that here imprisoned dwell, Do thou release from every hollow cell. They for their freedom shall the gift repay With sounds respondent to thy dulcet lay." Anna Seward. Oct. 15, 1781. There is also a letter from George Lamb to the Dean and Chapter complaining of Cotterell's dishonesty. [West CATHEDRAL ORGANISTS (1921)]

In June 1872 Lambert was instituted to the living of Tamworth, Staffordshire, where he remained for six years. There he made a careful and thorough restoration of the fine old parish church, nearly completed two district churches, and was instrumental in establishing a school board. But he found a provincial town more impervious to new ideas and methods than east London. In this parish, as elsewhere, he was attacked for his willingness to work with Roman Catholics and nonconformists. Although an evangelical by background, he was a broad-churchman in practice and regarded himself always as the vicar of the whole parish, not just of the congregation. A serious falling off in his private income owing to the decline of the West Indian sugar trade led to his resignation at the end of 1878. [ODNB]

Brooke Lambert (1834-1901) was an English clergyman and social reformer. He graduated (B.A., M.A., and B.C.L.) from Brasenose College, Oxford University. He became vicar of St. Mark's, Whitechapel, in 1866. There he became involved in many issues outside of the ecclesiastical range. He studied the poor law administration and government, and published a volume titled, Pauperism. He founded a soup kitchen, mutual improvement society, and a working man's club. He also renovated the church. Poor health forced him to resign his Whitechapel position. After his health was restored, Lambert held a number of positions including vicar of Tamworth, Staffordshire and voluntary work for the London school board. In 1880, he became the vicar of Greenwich, where he remained until his death. In that position he did much for the public good, such as working with the schools, founding the Greenwich Provident Dispensary, and serving as chairman of the Metropolitan Association for Befriending Young Servants. The papers of Brooke Lambert are comprised of letters written to him between 1860 and 1901. Most of the papers are signed, holograph letters. Letters are arranged alphabetically by correspondent, then chronologically. Topics range from pulpit freedom to women's suffrage and colonialism to the welfare of orphans and the poor. The correspondents include such people as William Boyd Carpenter, Edward Denison,

Richard Holt Hutton, Mark Pattison, William Stubbs, Archibald Campbell Tait, and Anthony Wilson Thorold. [University of Iowa Libraries]

Edward Lane (parochial curate of Pelsall) e1592-1649
Lane, born perhaps about 1592, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably ordained deacon (? and priest) before 1616 when he was probably in office as a stipendiary curate at Aldridge. About 1622 he may have been licensed parochial curate of Pelsall where he was in office in 1642. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister. Still in office he died, aged perhaps about 57, in 1649 and was buried at Norton-under-Cannock. His will made on 26 Oct 1648 was proved under PCC on 12 Jun 1649. Lane may not have married. [NB: Edward Lane (rector of Shelsley Walsh, Worcs) c1590-?1661, Edward Lane M.A. (vicar of Sparsholt, Hants) c1605-1685 and Edward Lane (presbyterian minister of West Bromwich, Staffs) 1618-1660 QV were contemporary clergymen]
